Websites of K-State Athletics

On November 1, 2023, K-State Athletics and SIDEARM Sports -- one of the leading sports technology providers -- unveiled a new-look k-statesports.com, which provides fans with industry-leading features and enhanced mobile and video experiences. Serving more than 1,000 partners, SIDEARM Sports -- a LEARFIELD company since June 2014 -- is the nation's leading digital provider in college athletics, and its easy-to-use interface allows schools to customize their content streams and digital presence. The company will play host to nearly 225 Division I university athletics sites during the 2025-26 season, including 41 schools in the Power 5 Conferences. SIDEARM Sports provides the software and technology that powers websites, mobile applications, live stats, social presence and video streaming for its athletic partners. Launched in in 2011, K-StateHD.TV is an exclusive high-definition online network providing K-State a world-wide connection for live athletics and academics, classic games, press conferences, original programming plus much more. ALL K-StateHD.TV content is FREE, including live press conferences and athletic events not selected by the school's television partners, in addition to all on-demand content.

Halftime and final boxscores, a running play-by-play and postgame notes and quotes from head coaches and players of the teams will be provided digitally and will be posted on www.kstatesports.com following the game. Live statistics will also be available via kstate.statbroadcast.com.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Tom Gilbert with five minutes remaining in the game. Head coach Jerome Tang and requested players will be available in the designated interview room in Bramlage Coliseum. Requested players will be made available for a short period time. Tang will be available following his postgame radio obligations.

Visiting Team Policy

The opposing coach and selected players will be given the option to hold their postgame press conference in-person in the interview room or outside the visiting locker room. Please check with the visiting media relations representative(s) for their list of policies. A list of contacts with e-mail addresses and phone numbers can be found on pages 10-11.

Internet Access

The press area as well as the Seaton Media Room in Bramlage Coliseum is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Please contact a member of the athletics communications staff for instructions relating to the network. It is a password-protected wireless network.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the K-State Athletic Communications Office, based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers regularly covering K-State, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized Kansas State student publications or student electronic media outlets.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications reporting on the game.

Other Credential Guidelines

- With the exception of beat writers covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
- Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working media members.
- Kansas State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout" or "tip" sheets.
- Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
- All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
- Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
- Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conference from K-State events are limited to and cannot excede three (3) minutes in length per event.

K-State returns 4 lettermen and welcomes a highly-regarded 10-man recruiting class in 2025-26, as the Wildcats enter their fourth season under head coach Jerome Tang. The team has won 61 games in Tang's first three seasons, including 28 in Big 12 play and 16 over Top 25 opponents, with two postseason appearances (NCAA Elite Eight, NIT).

Q. What lessons did you learn from last season?

■ "Well, what I took from it is that we had a good enough team to win games, and when we didn't win, then it wasn't players, it was the staff, it was me, and so I had to be better. If I was better, they would have had a better outcome. So yeah, I mean, our guys showed that they had the ability to play at a really high level, both at home and on the road, and we just didn't do a good job of getting it out of them and I say we, but I really mean me, right, because I wasn't the best version of myself. If I'm not at my best, then it trickles down to everybody else. But I'm excited about this week and really, really looking forward to seeing how good we can become, how quickly we can become at the level I see for this team."

Q. You mentioned last season you didn't do a good job of coaching. What personal adjustments did you make in the offseason?

■ "Yeah, I think I've been pretty transparent with the fact that I wasn't the best version of myself last year, and part of that is because I was like, we were paying players and expected them to be professionals when they were still 18 to 23 years olds. So, expectation without grace leads to disappointment and frustration. I spent a lot of last year with expectations, but I didn't apply the grace that needed to be applied, so I was frustrated and disappointed a lot, and it reflected in how I taught the guys, how I cared for the guys, and just my response to certain things, and it stopped me from being the best version I could've been that year."

Q. How have the coaching staff changes gone over?

■ "Personally, it's just been incredible. I love coach [Bill] Peterson, love coach Matthew Driscoll. Coach [Driscoll] taught me how to be a college coach, you know, and Carrie, his wife, are my daughter's godparents, so just having somebody around like that is just a blast, just a lot of fun. And professionally, it's been awesome, because there's just so much that you have to do. And he told me the other day, said 'Man, I mean, I've been a head coach, I know what the busy is like, but you just have, like, so much that you have to do.' And there are just so many things, and to know that you don't have to worry about certain things, or he sees certain things, so he knows how to get everybody else to see things that need to be seen. It just helps you so much. And so, I just, I feel weight lifted off just because I know things are gonna get done, I don't have to worry about as many things. So, the professional side of things, but also the personal side of things."

Q. How did you go about building a versatile roster?

■ "We did a great job of bringing talented, mature guys together, and now it's up to those guys to figure out which eight guys are gonna play. Whichever eight guys prove that they can be consistent and provide the toughness and competitiveness that we need, and shot making ability, those guys will then determine how they are used. I'm excited about finding that out, to answer the question, which guys are gonna separate themselves."

Q. What stood out during summer basketball training?

■ "Their approach, and I think I can say that about most of the guys, if not all of them, they have a very mature approach to the game. They show up early, they work hard, they come back late. They have a real professional approach. They know how to talk to people, whether it's their teammates, whether they need encouragement at times or they need somebody to get on them at times. They take coaching well, and they bring great energy to practice, and particularly Abdi [Bashir Jr.]. Abdi's got a gift for leadership and just love the energy that he brings."

Q. Which players have stood out so far in the preseason?

■ "You know, we got a couple of dudes that are different. Mobi's (Ikegwuruka) athleticism is different, right? Abdi's (Bahir Jr.) shot making ability, Andrej's (Kostic) shot making ability is a little bit different, you know, Dorin's (Buca) size is different. So, there's those multiple guys that add something a little bit different, and then whenever you have a returning All-American in P.J. Haggerty that's going to help you. So, you know, I think it's a collection, like our goal is to figure out how we can make the sum better than the individual parts by themselves."

Q. Where can P.J. Haggerty take that next step?

■ "Well, there's another level to play other than this and I think he wants to get there. And so, I mean, that's what he heard from all the NBA scouts who wanted him to play hard all the time, be a better on the ball defender, but I just need him to just be P.J. His teammates love him, and they, I mean our guys, they really like each other, and they get along, but I don't need him to be liked every day in practice. So, it's just that bringing that killer instinct that he's going to bring on game day to do it in practice, because it's going to make his teammates better."

Q. What are your early impressions of Nate Johnson?

■ "He's a talented man, like you don't win MVP of the league like the MAC [Mid-American Conference] as well as defensive player of the league and not be a really good player. And sometimes he coasts when he should dominate. Our goal as a staff is to be able to draw out of Nate where he dominates the whole time he's on the floor practicing. Such a nice young man, and he likes his teammates. His teammates like him, that sometimes I need him to be mean and nasty on purpose. And so that's a growth that has to take place, but he's a joy to be around and a pleasure to coach."

Q. What did you like about the international additions?

■ "There's a lot to like about all of them. We added three, well, actually four. Stephen [Osei] is from Canada, and so he played junior college basketball last year. Mobi [Ikegwuruka] is a returner. Elias [Rapieque] played professionally in Germany for probably last three or four years. At a young age, all of them have been around grown men whose livelihood is playing basketball, and therefore their approach to the game is different than a normal kid who grows up playing in high school or even at another college. Elias [Rapieque] had the same role of being a ball mover, body mover, rebounder, defender to or playing on the team one level down, still professional, but having a bigger role on the offensive end, so he can adjust to either one. Andrej [Kostic] is just a talent at 18 years old, having played with grown men at every level. He has a gift to shoot the ball but still has to learn to grow and mature in his approach. He's got a supreme confidence about himself, and that comes from playing at a real high level at a young age, and then watching other professionals prepare. I get more impressed with Dorin (Buca) every single day. Since a very, very young age, he's been away from home and had to learn how to take care of himself. There's a lot to like at 7-foot-2 and for him to have played as much basketball and grow and learn and be able to bring that to the equation. They are all like sponges, just soaking up everything so it's fun to be around these guys."

Q. What have liked so far about Khamari McGriff?

■ "I like the job he's done with his body. Phil's (Baier, strength and conditioning coach) has done an unbelievable job. Our goal this summer was to get him quick, thick and nasty, in a way, and he's done it at least, adding 20 pounds of muscle, if not more. Just looked different out there running. Now he's got to learn how to move with that extra 20 pounds. Giving somebody 20 pounds to move around with, they might have moved the same way. As for his ability to finish around the rim, I think he's like close to 70 percent if not higher, finishing at the rim, and a lefty, so he does a good job. Really, really good teammate, and very mature in how he handles tough situations."

Q. Tell us about getting C.J. Jones back from the portal.

■ "I'm fired up about C.J. coming back. I don't know what the details were on his side, choosing to put his name in the portal. I told him once I made the decision that he could come back, that nothing that happened in the past was going to affect what's going to go forward. And he's been great, so excited to have him. I think he's going to contribute to us winning this year. He started for us last year. There are not very many, 6-foot-5 guys with 6 '7" wingspan that can play the point, so God blessed him with the measurables but now he's got to continue to work so that he can become the best player he's capable of."

Q. What did you emphasize with David Castillo in the offseason?

■ "You know just his confidence has to continue to grow and him not worry about making mistakes moving on to the next thing. And physically, he's done a great job. Phil's done a great job with his body. He's going to be able to impact defensively on the ball. Then it's just having the confidence to make mistakes and play through it."

Q. Tell us about freshman Exavier Wilson.

JEROME TANG

HEAD COACH

Fourth Season at K-State // Charter Oak State College '07

@CoachJTang / coachjtang

Jerome Tang, who was selected as the 2023 Werner Ladder Naismith Men's College Coach of the Year after guiding the Wildcats to a 26-win season and its 13th trip to the Elite Eight in his inaugural season, is set to start his fourth season as the 25th head men's basketball head coach at Kansas State in 2025-26.

With his relentless passion, energy and positivity, Tang has re-energized a K-State program which had endured three consecutive losing seasons before his arrival in 2022-23. In the past 3 seasons, he has led the Wildcats to a 61-42 (.592) overall record, including 28 wins in Big 12 play, with consecutive postseason appearances (2023 NCAA Tournament, 2024 NIT) highlighted by the run to the Elite Eight. He is one of just 4 head coaches (Lon Kruger, Frank Martin and Bruce Weber) in school history to help the Wildcats to the postseason in their first 2 seasons.

Tang inked a 1-year contract extension in 2024 with the Wildcats through the 2030-31 season.

Among his 61 wins at K-State are 16 against teams ranked in the Top 25, including 7 Top 10 opponents. The 16 career Top 25 wins tie for the fourth-most in school history, while the 7 against Top 10 competition also ranks fourth all-time. Thirteen of the 16 ranked wins have come in the friendly confines of Bramlage Coliseum, where Tang is 39-9 (.813) overall, including 21-7 (.750) in Big 12 play and 13-4 (.765) against ranked foes. The 13-career home Top 25 wins are the second-most in school history.

In addition to the wins over ranked teams, Tang's teams have also proved to be clutch in his tenure, posting a 12-1 mark in overtime games, including an NCAA single season record 7 such wins in 2023-24. The team's 12-game overtime winning streak between the 2022-23 and 2023-24 seasons is the second-longest such streak in Division I history since 1950 and the second-longest behind Florida State's 14-game streak (2018-2024). Including his time as interim head coach at Baylor, Tang is now 13-1 in overtime games.

The 12 total overtime wins are the third-most by a head coach in school history, trailing Hall of Famers Tex Winter (15) and Jack Hartman (14), despite coming in just 103 career games.

Tang has helped reestablish the "Octagon of Doom" as one of the toughest places to play in college basketball, as the Wildcats have played before 10 sellouts while posting a 39-9 record at home with 13 wins over Top 25 opponents, including a pair of top 5 wins over archrival Kansas, two over top 10 Baylor and No. 6/6 Iowa State. The 15 home wins in 2022-23 were the most in nearly a decade (2014-15) and tied for the second-most in the arena's 35-year history. The eight sellouts in 2022-23 were the most since 2014-15, while the team ranked 23rd nationally in percentage capacity at 87.57 percent in the 11,010-seat arena.

During a roller coaster 2024-25 season that included a 6-game losing streak followed by a 6-game winning streak in Big 12 play, K-State could not overcome a disappointing non-conference season, as the Wildcats finished with a 16-17 overall record, including a tie for ninth place with TCU in the new-look 16-team Big 12 with a 9-11 mark. Among the 16 wins were 10 over teams that advanced to the postseason, including ranked wins over No. 3/3 Iowa State, No. 13/13 Arizona, No. 16/17 Cincinnati, No. 16/17 Kansas and No. 23/23 West Virginia.

K-State won 6 of its first 8 games before losing its last 3 non-conference games (at St. John's, Drake and Wichita State) to enter Big 12 play with a 6-5 record. After rallying for a 70-67 win over No. 16/17 Cincinnati in the opener, the Wildcats lost their next 6 league games (at TCU, at Oklahoma State, No. 12/11 Houston, Texas Tech, at No. 9/10 Kansas and at Baylor). After an impressive win over No. 23/23 West Virginia, the team rattled off 5 more victories, including an 80-61 win at No. 3/3 Iowa State and back-to-back home wins over No. 16/17 Kansas and No. 13/13 Arizona. However, the Wildcats couldn't keep the momentum going with 4 straight losses (BYU, Utah, Arizona State and UCF). The team managed to win 3 of their last 4 games before falling to Baylor at the Big 12 Championship.

Seniors Coleman Hawkins and David N'Guessan were both lauded for their outstanding seasons, as Hawkins was named to the All-Big 12 Third Team while N'Guessan was selected to the Honorable Mention team. Hawkins was the only Division I player in the country to average at least 10 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocks per game. The team's leading scorer (13.3 ppg.) and rebounder (7.2 rpg.), N'Guessan led the Big 12 with a 64.4 field goal percentage while ranking in the league's top 20 in both scoring and rebounding. He led the Wildcats in double-digit scoring games (26), 20-point games (6) and double-doubles (7).

Despite losing All-Americans Keyontae Johnson and Markquis Nowell as well as a third starter in Nae'Qwan Tomlin right before the season, Tang kept the Wildcats in the NCAA Tournament conversation until the very end of the 2023-24 season before receiving a bid to the NIT, where they lost in the first round at Iowa. The team posted a 19-15 overall record, which included a tie for ninth with Oklahoma in the 14-team Big 12 with an 8-10 mark. Among the 19 wins were 10 over teams that advanced to the postseason (6 NCAA Tournament and 4 NIT teams), including No. 9/9 Baylor, No. 4/4 Kansas, No. 25/21 BYU and No. 6/6 Iowa State.

The victories over the Bears and Jayhawks both came in overtime, as the Wildcats set a new Division I single-season record with 7 overtime wins, breaking the mark of 6 set by Wake Forest (1983-84), Chattanooga (1988-89) and Lafayette (2007-08). The 7 overtime wins also broke the school record of 5, set in 1992-93 and 2022-23, while it is the most overtime games in school history (5 total set in 1992-93 and 2022-23). The 6 overtime home wins are also a Division I record, surpassing the 5 by Cincinnati in 1966-67.

K-State enjoyed a fast start to the 2023-24 season, winning 14 of its first 18 games, including 4 of 5 in Big 12 play, highlighted by 5 overtime victories – Providence, Oral Roberts, North Alabama, Villanova and No. 9/9 Baylor. Three of those 5 overtime wins came in a row at home in a feat not accomplished in nearly 60 years (1964). However, a 1-7 slide over a 4-week span in late January to mid-February derailed the promising start with 5 of those 7 losses coming to teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament. The Wildcats did win 4 of their last 6 games, including at home over No. 25/21 BYU and No. 6/6 Iowa State and over Texas at the Big 12 Championship.

Arthur Kaluma and Tylor Perry were both All-Big 12 honorable mention selections to cap the season, as Kaluma was one of four Big 12 players to rank in the top 15 in both scoring and rebounding in 2023-24 while Perry was among the league's top scorers, ranking eighth in the league at 15.3 points per game. Perry led the Big 12 in minutes (36.41) and was second in 3-point field goals (2.74) and free throw percentage (90.9).

The success in year two came on the heels of a historic inaugural campaign in 2022-23, in which, Tang guided K-State to its third-highest win total (26) and a thrilling run to the Elite Eight despite being picked to finish last in the preseason Big 12 poll. The Wildcats posted a 26-10 record, which included a tie for third place in the Big 12 – with an 11-7 mark and the school's 13th appearance in the Elite Eight and the first since 2017-18.

The 26 wins are the third-most in school history, trailing the school-record 29 in 2009-10 and the 27 in 2012-13, and just the eighth 25-win campaign. His 26 wins are the second-most by a first-year head coach in school history.

Tang became the 11th first-year head coach to direct his team to the Elite Eight since 1996-97, while joining North Carolina's Bill Guthridge in 1997-98 and Hubert Davis in 2021-22 and Kent State's Stan Heath in 2001-02 as the only first-time head coaches to accomplish the feat. Tang's win total was the second-most by a first-year Division I head coach in 2022-23.

In guiding K-State to the Elite Eight in his first season, Tang became just the third coach in the program's history to be selected National Coach of the Year, joining Fred "Tex" Winter (UPI) in 1958 and Jack Hartman (NABC) in 1980. He was a candidate for nearly every other National Coach of the Year honor in 2022-23, including finishing as the runner-up for The Associated Press award. In addition, he was the consensus Big 12 Coach of the Year, earning the honor from both the league coaches and the AP.

During the team's historic season, Tang coached a pair of All-Americans in 2023 Bob Cousy Award winner Markquis Nowell and small forward Keyontae Johnson, who became the first duo in school history to each earn the recognition from The Associated Press when they were selected to the Third Team. Both players were named to the All-Big 12 First Team, while Johnson was the league's Newcomer of the Year.

Nowell was selected as the Cousy Award winner as the nation's top point guard by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame after he finished second nationally in assists/game (8.3 apg.), total assists (297) and total steals (92) while ranking in the top-15 in four others. He was chosen the NCAA East Regional Most Outstanding Player after guiding the Wildcats to the Elite Eight, averaging 23.5 points, 13.5 assists and 4.0 steals in his 4-game NCAA Tournament run, which included a tournament and school-record 19-assist performance in the win over Michigan State. He was also named a Third Team All-American by The Sporting News, NABC and U.S. Basketball Writers Association.

Following the season, Johnson became the first Wildcat under Tang and the first since 2017 to be selected in the NBA Draft, as he was taken in the second round with the 50th pick by the Oklahoma City Thunder. He averaged 19.7 points on 53.1 percent shooting, including 40.4 percent from 3-point range, with 6.2 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.1 steals for the Thunder's G-League team, the Oklahoma City Blue, while leading the squad to their first G-League title in April. He was also selected to the G-League's Up Next Game (the league's version of an All-Star Game).

Johnson is the 13th draft pick developed by Tang, which includes 11 at Baylor and one at Heritage Christian Academy (Von Wafer). In addition, Nowell signed a 2-way contract with the Toronto Raptors on draft night.

The 2022-23 Wildcats set three school single-season records, including shattering the mark for assists (611), while finishing No. 2 in points (2,742), field goals made (961), 3-point field goals made (258), free throw percentage (74.8) and steals (289) in school history. The 46.1 field goal percentage tied for the seventh-best in the shot clock era and the best since 2017-18. Nowell crushed the single-season marks for assists (297) and steals (92) while he and Johnson became just the second duo in school history to each tally 600 or more points in a single season.

Tang came to K-State in 2022 after helping build Baylor into a national powerhouse in his 19 seasons (2003-22) as an assistant and associate head coach.

"I am beyond excited to be the next head basketball coach at Kansas State," said Tang upon his hiring on March 21, 2022. "Having the opportunity to build on a program with a rich basketball history at a prestigious university is truly a blessing. We look forward to bringing an exciting style of basketball to K-State while helping our student-athletes succeed on the court and in life. My family and I can't wait to get to the city of Manhattan and form deep relationships with our students, former players, alumni and Wildcat fans everywhere. We look forward to making the Octagon of Doom the best home court advantage in the country!"

Head Coaching Experience

Tang's success as a head coach at K-State has not come as a surprise after he built a prep powerhouse at Heritage Christian Academy in Cleveland, Texas over a 10-year period (1993-2003) before starting his tenure at Baylor in 2003. He led the team to four TAPPS Division A State Championships (1995, 1999, 2000, 2001).

Overall, Tang has a 63-42 (.592) record as a head coach, which includes 2 wins while serving as the interim head coach at Baylor in 2012-13. Those 2 wins came in Big 12 play, including an 87-79 overtime victory over archrival Texas in Waco and an 82-48 road win at Texas Tech. In all, Tang stepped in on four occasions as the Bears' interim head coach, which also includes the first 2 games of the 2020-21 national title season in Las Vegas, Nev., against Louisiana (112-82) and Washington (86-52). Those wins don't count since they came while head coach Scott Drew was out due to COVID-19 health and safety protocols.

%Postseason cancelled due to COVID-19 pandemic but Baylor was expected to garner a top-seed in the NCAA Tournament
Associate Head Coach*

At Baylor (2003-22)

Tang was an original member of Scott Drew's staff and played an instrumental role in building the Bears program from one rocked by scandal and NCAA probation into one that has developed into one of the nation's top programs highlighted by the 2021 NCAA Championship and consecutive Big 12 regular-season titles in 2021 and 2022. He served his first 14 seasons (2003-17) as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach in 2017.

During his time at Baylor, Tang helped the Bears post a 397-222 (.641) overall record, including a 168-155 (.520) mark in Big 12 play, to go with 13 postseason appearances (10 NCAA Tournaments, 3 NITs), one NCAA title (2021), one NIT title (2013) and one NIT runner-up finish (2009). In the process, he assisted in the development of 11 All-Americans, including consensus selections Johnathan Motley (2017) and Jared Butler (2021), National Defensive Player of the Year Davion Mitchell (2021) and 58 All-Big 12 honorees, including nine on the First Team.

In addition to his prowess on the bench, Tang helped construct nine consensus Top 25 recruiting classes while at Baylor, including 2010 (Perry Jones III), 2011 (Quincy Miller and Deuce Bello), 2012 (Isaiah Austin, Taurean Prince and Rico Gathers), 2013 (Ishmail Wainright, Al Freeman and Johnathan Motley) and the highest-ranked class in program history at No. 4 in 2021 (Kendall Brown, Langston Love and Jeremy Sochan).

Starting with the 2007-08 season, Tang was a pivotal part in helping Baylor to a stretch of 15 consecutive seasons of at least 18 wins, including a school-record 30 in 2011-12, en route to a 361-153 (.702) record and 10 NCAA Tournament appearances. Starting in 2010, the Bears appeared in the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 five times (2010, 2012, 2014, 2017, 2021) with three trips to the Elite Eight (2010, 2012, 2021) and one to the Final Four (2021).

Additionally, 14 Bears have gone on to play in the NBA, including Quincy Acy, Jared Butler, Freddie Gillespie, Pierre Jackson, Cory Jefferson, Perry Jones III, Quincy Miller, Davion Mitchell, Johnathan Motley, Royce O'Neale, Taurean Prince, MaCio Teague, Ekpe Udoh and Ish Wainwright.

During a three-year stretch (2019-22), Baylor tallied an 81-13 (.862) record, including a 43-8 (.843) mark in Big 12 play, with 22 wins over ranked opponents highlighted by the Bears' first National Championship in 2021, as they defeated No. 1 ranked Gonzaga, 86-70, in the national title game. The 2021 Bears also won their first Big 12 Championship in the league's 25-year history, which was the school's first conference title in 71 years, then followed it up with a second-straight crown in 2022 by winning their last five conference games.

Baylor's 55-9 (.859) combined record during the 2020-21 and 2021-22 seasons was the nation's best among power conference teams, while the 81-13 (.862) record since 2019-20 ranked second-best nationally, trailing only Gonzaga (90-6). In that span, the Bears were ranked in the top 5 for 29 consecutive AP Top 25 polls and finished the 2021-22 season with the nation's third-longest active streak of 56-straight weeks ranked.

Despite a season mired by injuries to key players, Tang helped Baylor navigate a successful 2021-22 season that ended in a heartbreaking 93-86 overtime loss to eventual national runner-up North Carolina in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Down 25 points with 10 minutes left, the Bears rallied to force overtime before faltering late, 93-86, to finish the season with a 27-7 overall record, including a tie for first place in the Big 12 with a 14-4 mark. The team ran their winning streak to 21 games, including 15 straight to start the year, ascending to the No. 1 ranking for five consecutive weeks. For his efforts, Tang was named the 2022 Division I Men's Assistant Coach of the Year by the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches (TABC).

Three Bears earned All-Big 12 honors in 2022, including a First Team selection by senior transfer James Akinjo. Senior Jonathan Tchamwa Tchatchoua was one of three players to share the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, while freshman Jeremy Sochan was named the league's Sixth Man Award winner.

Sochan became the fourth Baylor player (and second consecutive) to be a lottery pick when he was selected by the San Antonio Spurs with the No. 9 pick of the 2022 NBA Draft. Teammate Kendall Brown followed in the second round with the No. 48 selection by the Minnesota Timberwolves.

Baylor lost just twice during its historic national championship season in 2020-21, posting a 28-2 record and a 14-1 mark in Big 12 play which included school-record 11 wins against ranked opponents. The Bears enjoyed the best start in program history with an 18-game winning streak, which was the fourth-longest streak by any team in Big 12 history. A school-record three Bears earned All-America honors, including Jared Butler becoming the first consensus First Team selection. Davion Mitchell and MaCio Teague were both Third Team All-Americans, while Mitchell swept every major National Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Tang helped Baylor to what was then the best season in program history in 2019-20, as the Bears spent five straight weeks ranked No. 1 nationally en route to posting a 26-4 record, including a 15-3 mark in league play. The team set a Big 12 record with 23 consecutive wins and were projected to earn a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament before it was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. All five starters were named to All-Big 12 teams, a first in league history, including First Team honors for Jared Butler.

Tang was part of the Baylor rebuild from the beginning, as he assisted Drew in guiding a Bear program that was crippled by NCAA sanctions into one that advanced to the postseason 13 times in a 14-year span, including a streak of 11 consecutive seasons (2011-12 to 2021-22), and 15 straight winning seasons (2007-08 to 2021-22).

After going 36-69 in their first four seasons, Tang and the Bears were rewarded with their first NCAA Tournament berth in 20 seasons and just their second at the school since 1950 in 2007-08. The team lost to No. 18 Purdue in the first round to conclude the year with a 21-11 overall record, including 9-7 in Big 12 play, as Curtis Jerrells became the program's first All-Big 12 First Team selection since 2001.

Baylor posted back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time in school history, as the 2008-09 team advanced to its first Big 12 Championship game before finishing as the runner-up in the NIT. The Bears then made another significant step with two Elite Eight runs in a 3-year period, including the first in the modern era in 2009-10 and to cap a school-record 30-win season in 2011-12.

At Baylor (2003-22)

The 2009-10 team earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA South Region and won the school's first NCAA Tournament game in 60 years en route to reaching the Regional Final for the first time since 1950. The Bears were ranked throughout the 2011-12 season for the first time in program history, reaching as high as No. 3 in the polls and never dropping lower than 14th, as they won a school-record 30 games. A program-record three players (Perry Jones III, Quincy Acy and Quincy Miller) were selected in the 2012 NBA Draft.

Tang played a major role in leading Baylor to 23 wins and the program's first national tournament championship in 2012-13 when the Bears went on a five-game run to the NIT title. The team then ran off a string of four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including Sweet 16 runs in both 2013-14 and 2016-17.

Tang helped Baylor win 12 of its last 15 games, including three in a three-day span to reach the 2014 Big 12 Championship game. The Bears won 26 games and advanced to the Sweet 16 for third time in a five-year stretch in 2013-14, becoming one of only 12 programs nationally to accomplish that feat between 2010 and 2014.

The 2014-15 Baylor team won 24 games, including seven over Top 25 opponents, and earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, tying for the best seed in program history and earning back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances for the first time in school history. Three Bears (Kenny Chery, Rico Gathers and Taurean Prince) earned All-Big 12 honors, while Gathers was named an All-American.

Baylor continued its streak of NCAA Tournament appearances in 2015-16 and 2016-17, as the Bears reached new heights by earning their first No. 1 national ranking on January 9, 2017.

The 2016-17 team rolled to a 15-0 start in 2016-17, climbing from unranked to No. 1 nationally in an eight-week span. They recorded victories over four Top 10 teams, including No. 4 Oregon, No. 7 Xavier and No. 10 Louisville in the first eight games. The Bears made a third Sweet 16 in a six-year span with victories over New Mexico State and USC to finish the year at No. 12 in AP poll. Four Bears (Johnathan Motley, Manu Lecomte, Jo Lual-Acuil, Jr. and Ish Wainright) earned All-Big 12 accolades with Motley winning the 2017 Karl Malone Power Forward of the Year Award and becoming the school's first consensus All-American.

Although injuries led to a 2-7 start in Big 12 play and derailed a fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017-18, Baylor rallied to win seven of its last 12 games to finish the season with 19 wins and earn a seventh consecutive postseason appearance, advancing to the second round of the NIT.

Baylor extended its school-record streak to eight consecutive postseason appearances in 2018-19, as the Bears posted a 20-14 overall record and made a return to the NCAA Tournament. The squad went from being picked ninth in the Big 12 preseason poll to winning 10 league games and finishing fourth despite losing four projected starters to injuries throughout the season.

Heritage Christian Academy (1993-2003)

Prior to his time at Baylor, Tang built a powerhouse at Heritage Christian Academy, a birth-through-high school private school in Cleveland, Texas, as both the head coach and athletic director, guiding the Eagles to four TAPPS Division A state championships (1995, 1999, 2000, 2001) from 1993 to 2003. His program gained national attention in 2001 when Cedrick Hensley scored 101 points in a game.

Tang became known for producing Division I athletes at Heritage Christian, including his most-publicized recruit Vakeaton "Von" Wafer, a 2003 McDonald's All-American who played at Florida State and was drafted by the L.A. Lakers in 2005. His last two teams featured several Division I signees including Cedrick Hensley (Houston), Elijah Miller (Houston), Marlon Pompey (Texas A&M), Lamar Hurd (Oregon State), Tim Mayes (Richmond) and Tyler Jones (St. John's).

Personal

Tang was born in San Fernando, Trinidad. He migrated with his parents (Paul and Bano Tang) to St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands until age 10 when his family moved to Texas. He and his wife, Careylyen (Rey) have a son, Seven, and a daughter, Aylyn. He also has adopted sons (Lamar and Richard Hurd). His in-laws are Calvin and Carolyn Carter. Tang earned a bachelor's degree from Charter Oak State College in 2007.

Jerome Tang's "Life-Defining Moment" and his lifelong friendship with Baylor's Scott Drew

How Jerome Tang's life changed over a slab of ribs, three phone calls and Scott Drew's unwillingness to accept "no" for an answer

The following account was taken from "The remarkable rise of Jerome Tang to the head chair at No. 2 Baylor" written by The Athletic's C.J. Moore (@CJMooreHoops) on Nov. 28, 2020 and re-told again in "How New Kansas State Coach Jerome Tang is elevating the Wildcats' Standard" also written by Moore for The Athletic on July 27, 2022.

When Scott Drew got the Baylor job in 2003, Jerome Tang was making $16,000 a year as the basketball coach and athletic director at Heritage Christian, a small private school in Cleveland, Texas, with few resources that he had turned into powerhouse. He drove a 1992 baby blue Honda Accord with a bumper that was held on by a wire after one of his players backed it into a light pole. The care was symbolic of his priorities. It was the first car he'd ever purchased, and he had skimped on the radio and passenger-side mirror because he didn't want to pay extra. He never installed a radio, because without it, it forced his players to talk to him. He also taught all of his players how to drive a stick shift with that car.

This kind of devotion to his players was respected by those who witnessed it, and it's why's Tang's name kept coming up in conversations Drew was having with people. One was from Rick Darnell, a high school administrator who told Drew if he wanted an assistant who was a Christian and could recruit Texas, he should consider Tang. The second was Mike Kunstadt, who ran the Great American Shootout and had a scouting service in Texas, and upon being apprised of Drew's plan — recruit guards from the South and bigs from overseas — he told him he needed to get to know Tang. The third was Hal Pastner, who started the Houston Hoops program that Tang coached. Once Drew told Pastner about his faith and coaching philosophies, Pastner told him he needed to meet Tang.

"Now he'd heard my name three times," Tang says now. "It just happened to be the right three people."

Tang wanted to talk to Drew too. Not because he wanted a job; he wanted a player. Drew had received a commitment from Mamadou Diene, and Tang was hoping Drew would place him at Heritage Christian.

When Drew called Tang back, he told him that Diene was staying in Africa, but he really wanted to meet him.

"I was like, nah," Tang recalls. "Any coach who got a job in the state, they always were like, I really want to talk to you about being on the staff. But really all they wanted to do was suck up to you, so they could get your players. And we had some good players at Heritage. And we had good players on the Hoops. I understood that."

Drew insisted, so Tang gave him all the reasons why he'd never hire him: Tang didn't have his college degree, and "you don't know me from Adam."

"The worst thing you can do is tell Scott Drew no," Tang says. "For the next 45 minutes, he is pounding me. Just drive up to Waco and spend a few hours with me. I just want to meet you."

Tang finally relented, promising he'd make the drive two nights later. His wife, Careylyen, was pregnant with their second child (Aylyn) and had quit her job a month earlier. The family's insurance had run out, and unbeknownst to Tang, while he was visiting Drew in Waco, she had inquired if they could qualify for Medicaid. She was told no, and she sat in the parking lot in tears.

Tang, meanwhile, hit it off with Drew, who had 100 questions prepared to ask him. Three questions in, Drew abandoned his list and the two started talking movies. "It was like he was my kindred spirit," Drew says.

They visited for 3½ hours, and when Tang got up to leave, Drew told him, "Man, everybody told me you were here," Drew said, holding his hand up. "I figured you'd be about there. But you're like way up here. But I don't know ya. I don't know you, and you just don't hire guys you don't know."

"I told him, 'Coach, if God wants me at Baylor, there's nothing you can do to stop it. If God doesn't want me at Baylor, there's nothing you can do to make it happen."

Tang gave Drew a hug and returned home, figuring that was the end of it. He didn't even tell his wife about the meeting. The next day Drew called his dad, Homer, and told him he knew who he was going to hire for his final assistant, but he really liked a guy he'd met in Texas; he just didn't know him.

Homer told him to have dinner at Tang's house. "If you eat dinner at a man's house, you'll find out everything you need to know about him." So Drew called Tang and basically invited himself over.

"Now I've got to tell my wife," Tang says.

The Tangs were living paycheck to paycheck, and Tang scrounged up all the money they had: $10.81. There was already a half of slab of ribs his father-in-law had made in the fridge. He bought another half a slab, potato salad and some bread. The meal was a hit, and Drew says he could feel the love in the home. Everything he wanted to feel he felt.

"It was one of those nights where you think you're going to be at a friend's house for an hour and then you end up being there for three hours," Drew says. "I realized, dang, we're a lot alike."

As he left, Drew told Tang the job was his if he wanted it. He then apologized and told him Tang he could only offer him $70,000.

As soon as Drew left, Tang got a call from Leonard Hamilton, who had just completed his first season at Florida State.

"Coach Hamilton, anything that I need to do?" Tang asked. "He said, just get on your knees and thank God."

And that's what Tang did. He dropped to his knees and wept.

Fast forward to 2022, 19 years after those Tang's initial conversations with Drew.

The duo have experienced the ultimate highs of highs (NCAA title) and the lows of lows (NCAA probation) while sharing the same sideline.

Together, the friends helped Baylor to a 397-22 (.641) record, including a 361-153 (.702) mark since 2007-08, to go with 13 postseason appearances (10 NCAA Tournaments, 3 NITs), one NCAA title (2021), one NIT title (2013) and a pair of Big 12 regular season championships (2021, 2022). Through the years, they coached 11 All-Americans, including consensus selections Johnathan Motley (2017) and Jared Butler (2021), a National Defensive Player of the Year in Davion Mitchell (2021) and 58 All-Big 12 honorees, including nine on the First Team, as well as 12 NBA Draft picks of which seven are currently playing in the league.

However, despite all those accomplishments, it was Tang's selection as K-State's head coach in March 2022 that called for a special celebration among those friends.

"When Coach Drew found out I got the job, he came over that night and he brought with him a bottle of wine that someone had given to him in 2003 when he took the job at Baylor," as Tang related the story at his introductory press conference on March 24. "They told him, 'I want you to drink this when you want to celebrate something that's really, really great.' Well, we won an NIT championship, we went to Sweet 16s, we went to two Elite Eights, we went to a Final Four and a National Championship, and won the Big 12 again (in 2022), and that bottle was still closed. But when I got this job, he came over with his wife to open that with me."

Tang related the story to express how he intends to run his program at K-State.

"See, those kinds of ties, those deep bonds that take colleagues to become friends and to become brothers for life, that's what we're gonna do here. I plan to be at your weddings. I plan to send you something for when you have your first son or daughter is born. I'm going to have the picture up on my refrigerator and in my office. The kind of bonds that are not broken when you change colors, the kind of bonds that are not broken by distance or time. Scott Drew is a terrific man, but I expect you students to give him a hard time when they come here."

MATTHEW DRISCOLL

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

First Season at K-State // Slippery Rock '92

@CoachMDriscoll

Veteran coach Matthew Driscoll, who became the winningest coach in North Florida and Atlantic Sun Conference history during a 16-year stint (2009-25) with the Ospreys, is in his first season as associate head coach at Kansas State after being hired by head coach Jerome Tang on May 23, 2025.

A head coach for 20 seasons counting a four-year stint at Division III La Roche College in the mid-1990s, Driscoll has 274 career victories, including a school-record 248 at North Florida. In addition to being the winningest coach in Ospreys' history, he has the most wins (144) of any head coach in Atlantic Sun Conference (ASUN) history, boasting a career .550 winning percentage in league play. He won 15 or more games 10 times at UNF, while he finished .500 or better in ASUN play on 12 occasions. He owns the program's only three 20-win seasons, which includes 23 in 2014-15, 22 in 2015-16 and 21 in 2019-20.

Driscoll led the Ospreys to three regular-season Atlantic Sun Conference championships (2015, 2016, 2020), while winning the league's tournament championship in 2015. He guided the school to three postseason appearances, including the school's first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2015 where they lost to Robert Morris in the First Four. The team went to NIT the following year in 2015-16, while they earned a bid to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) before it was canceled in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Driscoll was selected three times as the Atlantic Sun (ASUN) Coach of the Year following the Opreys' regular season championships in 2014-15, 2015-16 and 2019-20. He was also the 2015 NABC District 3 Coach of the Year following the Ospreys' historic 23-win campaign, in which, they won both the regular season and tournament titles before advancing to the school's first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

"I am excited to welcome Matthew Driscoll to the K-State family as our new Associate Head Coach," said Tang. "Coach Driscoll is a proven program builder and an exceptional teacher of the game. His ability to develop players and implement high-level offensive systems is second to none. At North Florida, he not only became the winningest coach in ASUN history but also built one of the most dynamic and efficient offenses in the country, consistently ranking among national leaders in 3-point shooting and scoring. His basketball IQ and passion for teaching will bring tremendous value to our program and elevate our team on every level."

Driscoll's relationship with Tang dates back more than 20 years, as the two coached alongside each other for 6 seasons (2003-09) at Baylor as original members of head coach Scott Drew's staff. The pair were part of 81 wins at Baylor, helping Drew rebuild the Bears from scandal into their first NCAA Tournament bid in 20 years in 2007-08. Driscoll was named the fourth head coach in North Florida history on April 7, 2009.

In addition to his head coaching stints at Northgate High School (1988-90), La Roche College (1993-97) and North Florida, Driscoll has been an assistant coach at the high school, junior college, Division II and Division I levels in his 37-year coaching career, including Butler County (Pa.) Community College (1990-91), Seneca Valley (Pa.) High School (1991-92), Slippery Rock (1992-93), Wyoming (1997-98), Clemson (1998-2003), Valparaiso (2003) and Baylor (2003-09) coaching with the likes of Larry Shyatt and Scott Drew.

At North Florida (2009-24)

Described as a "Home Run" hire in April 2009, Driscoll immediately made an impact in his first season, as he led the Ospreys to a 5-win improvement from the previous season, including a seventh-place finish in the ASUN despite being picked last in the preseason poll, en route to an ASUN Tournament appearance in the program's first year of eligibility in the event. The next season, he guided the squad to an appearance in the 2011 ASUN Tournament final, which included wins over rival Jacksonville and second-seeded East Tennessee State, while setting Division I program records for overall (15) and conference (10) wins.

Driscoll led the Ospreys to unprecedented heights in year three in 2011-12, as UNF finished with a then-program record 16 victories, including a 10-8 mark in the ASUN with a program-best tying fourth-place finish. Despite a step back in the win column at 13-19, the Ospreys still made a fourth consecutive appearance in the ASUN Tournament in 2012-13, as Driscoll's first recruiting class left with the most victories (57) in a four-year span in program history. Senior Parker Smith became the school's first-ever All-ASUN First Team selection.

The 2013-14 team equaled the program records for overall (16) and conference (10) wins, as UNF qualified for the conference tournament while also posting a regular-season sweep of league champion and NCAA Tournament participant Mercer. Freshman Dallas Moore earned the program's first ASUN Freshman of the Year honor. The Ospreys topped the 100-point mark for the first time in their Division I era with 109 points vs. Webber International.

Driscoll guided UNF to a season of firsts in 2014-15, as the Ospreys posted a 23-12 overall record, including a 12-2 mark in league play, en route to winning their first Atlantic Sun Conference regular-season and tournament titles and their inaugural trip to the NCAA Tournament. The team earned the school's first and only final Top 20 ranking in the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major poll, while Driscoll and his staff were named the ASUN Coaching Staff of the Year. The championship squad included a pair of first team all-conference performers (Beau Beech, Moore), along with the league's Defensive Player of the Year Demarcus Daniels, who would be the MVP of the ASUN Tournament. The team made it back-to-back ASUN regular-season championships in 2015-16, as the Ospreys recorded the most regular-season wins (21) before hosting Florida in the opening round of the NIT.

The Ospreys concluded the most successful four-year run in program history in 2016-17, as they made a second appearance in the ASUN Tournament Championship game in 3 seasons. Dallas Moore capped his career with a second straight ASUN Player of the Year honor while also becoming the school's first 2,000-point scorer and the state of Florida's all-time leading scorer in Division I play. UNF started five sophomore in a rebuilding season in 2017-18, as the team ranked in the top-10 nationally in 3-point field goals made, attempted and percentage.

For the third time in 6 seasons, North Florida earned a share of the 2020 regular season crown, finishing with a 13-3 mark in ASUN play, as the Ospreys won 21 games while leading the nation in 3-pointers (391). The team earned a bid to the CollegeInsider.com Tournament but it was canceled due to COVID-19. Driscoll became the first coach in program history to reach 200 career wins in a 74-72 victory at Kennesaw State on Feb. 12, 2022. In his final season in 2024-25, he put the Ospreys on the national map with early Power Four wins on the road against South Carolina and Georgia Tech, earning votes in the AP poll for the first time, before finishing with a 15-17 record.

Driscoll's teams own every single season program record except for steals, while they produced 27 of the 50 all-time triple-digit scoring outputs. The Ospreys set the ASUN record for points in a 114-111 double-overtime victory at Lipscomb on Feb. 16, 2023. His teams led the nation in 3-point field goals/game (12.0 in 2023-24 and 12.8 in 2024-25) and 3-point attempts/game (33.2 in 2023-24 and 25.8 in 2024-25) in each of the last two seasons.

Driscoll coached 13 of the program's 18 1,000-point scorers, including the top-4 all-time scorers and the only 2,000-point scorer in Dallas Moore (2,437; 2014-17). Individually, he mentored two ASUN Players of the Year (Dallas Moore [2015-16, 2016-17), three ASUN Defensive Players of the Year (Demarcus Daniels [2014-15, 2015-16] and Wajid Aminu [2018-19]), one ASUN Newcomer of the Year (Noah Horchler [2017-18]), two ASUN Freshmen of the Year (Dallas Moore [2013-14], Wajid Aminu [2016-17]) and three ASUN Scholar-Athletes of the Year (Trent Mackey [2015-16], JT Escobar [2018-19], Carter Hendricksen [2020-21]). He also had seven NABC All-District honorees, including First Teamers Dallas Moore (2015-16, 2016-17) and Chaz Lanier (2023-24).

Overall, Driscoll coached 19 ASUN all-conference selections, including 10 on the First Team, to go along with 11 All-Tournament and nine All-Freshmen picks. He also had 37 ASUN Players of the Week and 24 Newcomers of the Week. In addition to 16 ASUN All-Academic selections and 120 Academic Honor Roll members, he graduated every player who completed their career at North Florida.

Driscoll's success is all the more impressive considering UNF is one of the youngest athletics programs, having only started athletics in 1983 at the NAIA level before joining the Division II ranks in 1993 and eventually moving to Division I in 2005. The school only became eligible for the NCAA Tournament in his first season in 2009-10.

At Baylor (2003-09)
Driscoll's relationship with Tang began during their 6-year stint on staff at Baylor (2003-09), where they helped head coach Scott Drew transform the Bears from a program decimated by tragedy, player departures, a depleted roster with NCAA restrictions into a team that produced back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time en route to the school's first NCAA Tournament (20008) since 1988 and a runner-up finish at the 2009 NIT.

The coaching staff inherited a team in 2003-04 with half the alloted scholarship players and a handful of walk-ons. Experts said the Bears could possibly finish winless but they surprised everyone by winning 8 games, including 3 in Big 12 play. The next season with just one returning scholarship player, the team fought their way to a better record at 9-19, including an impressive 73-72 win at Purdue. The 2005-06 squad overcame perhaps their biggest challenge when despite being banned from playing any non-conference games still managed to win 4 Big 12 games, which matched their conference win total from the previous 2 seasons.

With no NCAA penalties, Baylor took off during the 2007-08 and 2008-09 seasons winning 45 games, including consecutive 20-win seasons. The Bears advanced to just their fifth NCAA Tournament in 2007-08, winning 20 games for the first time in 20 seasons, before winning 24 games amidst a run to the NIT Championship game in 2008-09.

Driscoll spent 7 weeks on Drew's staff at Valparaiso before making the move to Baylor.

At Clemson (1998-2003)
Driscoll moved with head coach Larry Shyatt to Clemson, spending 5 seasons (1998-2003) on the Tiger bench. He was part of 70 victories with the Tigers, including a 20-win season and a trip to the 1999 NIT Championship game. Among these victories were three over North Carolina, including an upset over top-ranked Tar Heels in 2001.

At Wyoming (1997-98)
Driscoll first worked as Shyatt's assistant coach at Wyoming in 1997-98, helping the Cowboys to a pair of top-15 upsets, including national finalist and No. 5 Utah as well as No. 12 New Mexico, en route to a 19-9 record, including a third-place finish with a 9-5 mark in the WAC, and a berth in the NIT. Senior forwrd Jeron Roberts was named to All-WAC First Team, while senior guard Gregg Sawyer was a second team selection.

At LaRoche College (1993-97)
Driscoll earned his first head coaching position at Division III La Roche College in McCandless Township, Pa., from 1993-97, guiding the RedHawks from one win to 15 wins by year four. He coached the school's all-time leading scorer Chuck Cieslak, who was inducted into La Roche's Hall of Fame in 2012.

At Slippery Rock (1992-93)
Driscoll got his start in college coaching as an assistant coach at his alma mater - Slippery Rock - in Slippery Rock, Pa., in 1992-93 under head coach Bob Bartlett. The Rock posted a 10-16 record.

High School Experience (1988-92)
Driscoll began his career in 1988 when he served as the head coach of his high school alma mater Northgate High School in Pittsburgh. He served in that role from 1988-90 before assistant coaching stints at Butler County (Pa.) Community College (1990-91) and Seneca Valley (Pa.) High School (1991-92).

Personal
Driscoll earned his bachelor's degree in Education from Slippery Rock (Slippery Rock, Pa.) in 1992. A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Driscoll and his wife, Carrie, are the parents of two sons: Chase and Paxton. Carrie was a cheer coach at Wyoming and North Florida as well as an academic counselor. The Driscolls are the godparents of Aylyn Tang, the youngest daughter of Jerome and Rey Tang.

ASSISTANT COACH

Fourth Season at K-State // Maryland-Eastern Shore '05

@Coachreem4everi / 4evercoachreemvi/

Jareem Dowling is in his fourth season at Kansas State in 2024-25 after being the first announced member of head coach Jerome Tang's inaugural coaching staff on March 29, 2022.

Dowling has been part of a coaching staff that has helped reenergize a K-State program in the past 3 seasons, leading the Wildcats to 61 wins, including 28 wins in Big 12 play, with consecutive postseason appearances (2023 NCAA Tournament, 2024 NIT) highlighted by the run to the 2023 Elite Eight. During their memorable first season in 2022-23, he helped the Wildcats to their third-highest win total (26) and a thrilling run to the Elite Eight despite being picked last in the Big 12 preseason poll after three consecutive losing seasons.

Among the 61 wins at K-State are 16 against Top 25 teams, including 7 Top 10 opponents. The 16 career Top 25 wins tie for the fourth-most in school history, while the 7 against Top 10 competition also ranks fourth all-time. Thirteen of the 16 ranked wins have come in the friendly confines of Bramlage Coliseum, where the staff is 39-9 (.813) overall, including 21-7 (.750) in Big 12 play and 13-4 (.765) against ranked foes.

Dowling assisted in the development of a pair of All-Americans in Bob Cousy Award winner Markquis Nowell and Julius Erving Award finalist Keyontae Johnson, who were the only teammates nationally to earn All-America honors in 2022-23. They became the first duo in school history to each earn All-American recognition from The Associated Press when they were selected to the Third Team. Both were named to the All-Big 12 First Team, while Johnson was the league's Newcomer of the Year.

Following the season, Johnson became the first Wildcat since 2017 to be selected in the NBA Draft, as he was taken in the second round with the 50th pick by the Oklahoma City Thunder. After leading the Oklahoma City Blue to a G-League title and a spot in the Next Up Game, Johnson signed a new deal with the Charlotte Hornets. Nowell inked a 2-way contract with the Toronto Raptors on draft night, spending the 2023-24 season with Raptors' G-League team before averaging 17.3 points and 8.1 assists with the G-League's Rio Grande Valley Vipers in 2024-25.

In addition to his work with Johnson and Nowell, Dowling has helped develop four more All-Big 12 performers in Third Team selection Coleman Hawkins (2024-25) and honorable mention picks Arthur Kaluma (2023-24), David N'Guessan (2024-25) and Tylor Perry (2023-24).

In 2024-25, Hawkins was the only Division I player to average at least 10 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4.0 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocks per game. N'Guessan, who ranked fifth nationally with a Big 12-leading 64.4 field goal percentage, set both the school single-season and career (63.6) field goal percentage records in concluding his college career.

With Dowling helping to run the defensive scheme, the Wildcats have ranked among KenPom's top-40 in adjusted defensive efficiency the past 3 seasons, including 27th (95.0) in 2022-23, 25th (96.8) in 2023-24 and 36th (97.2) in 2024-25. They also ranked 24th in opponent 3-point field goal percentage (30.8) in 2022-23 and 23rd in effective defensive field goal percentage (46.8) in 2023-24. The team has totaled 200 or more steals in each of the past 3 seasons, including a near school single-season record 289 in 2022-23, while they registered 139 blocks in 2023-24, which are the fifth-most in a single season.

Nowell, who ranked second nationally in steals in 2022-23, broke three individual school records for steals, including single season total (92) and per game average (2.56 spg.) as well as career average (2.40).

Dowling has continued to be praised for his abilities to recruit at a high level, as he has helped construct some of the top transfer classes in the country at K-State. All-conference selections Hawkins, Kaluma, N'Guessan and Perry were all high-level transfer portal success stories in the last 3 seasons. He has also helped continue that recruiting momentum this off-season with the additions of five Division I transfers (Abdi Bashir Jr., P.J. Haggerty, Marcus Johnson, Nate Johnson, Khamari McGriff), a trio of international standouts (Dorin Buca, Andrej Kostic and Elias Rapieque), a junior college player (Stephen Osei) and a top-100 high school senior (Exavier Wilson).

In addition to their on-court success, Dowling and the staff helped the team set marks for academic success, as the cumulative team GPA (2.993) as well as the Fall 2022 (2.998) and Spring 2023 (2.903) semester GPAs were the highest in program history.

An assistant coach with 19 years of experience as well as 13 years of international head coaching experience, Dowling came to K-State after spending 6 seasons (2016-22) on staff with current Texas Tech head coach Grant McCasland at Arkansas State (2016-17) and North Texas (2017-22). He also worked alongside current West Virginia head coach Ross Hodge, who was on staff with Dowling and McCasland at Arkansas State and North Texas.

In addition, Dowling has also been an assistant at the NJCAA level at Cecil College in Maryland (2005-08), the Division II level at Slippery Rock (2008-11) as well as Morehead State (2011-12) and Southern Miss (2012-15).

Dowling also has extensive international experience having served as the head coach for the U.S. Virgin Islands Junior National Team as well as an assistant coach on the Senior National Team since 2007. During his time with the junior team, he has guided them to two silver medals (2008 U16 Centrobasket and 2015 U17 Centrobasket) and two bronze medals (2009 and 2011 U17 Centrobasket) at international competitions.

Dowling has been a part of coaching staffs that have won 422 games – averaging more than 22 wins per season in his coaching career – and advanced to the postseason on 11 occasions, including the 2006 NJCAA Division II National Championship, a memorable run to the Second Round of the 2021 NCAA Tournament with North Texas and the Elite Eight at K-State in 2022-23. He has also helped teams to 13 seasons of at least 20 wins, including three 30-win campaigns, and collect four conference titles (2014, 2020, 2021, 2022).

In addition to his assistant coaching stints, Dowling has head coaching experience at the prep school level, guiding Scotland Performance Institute in Scotland, Pennsylvania to 19 wins in 2015-16.

At North Texas (2017-22)
Dowling spent five seasons (2017-22) at North Texas, where he helped the Mean Green set the school single season records for overall wins (25) and conference wins (16) en route to collecting a third consecutive Conference USA Championship in 2021-22. In addition, the team ended the season with the nation's best scoring defense (55.7 ppg.), which was the best such mark in Conference USA history.

Dowling assisted in the recruitment and development of several high-level Mean Green players, including Javion Hamlet, the 2020 C-USA Player of the Year and Male Student-Athlete of the Year and 2021 C-USA Tournament MVP, as well as Roosevelt Smart, who became the program's single-season scoring record holder with 742 points (19.5 ppg.) in 2017-18. In 2021-22, four Mean Green players earned All-Conference USA honors, including Newcomer of the Year and First Team selection Tylor Perry. The next season, Perry would go on to lead the Mean Green to 31 wins and the 2023 NIT Championship while earning a number of honors, including NIT Most Outstanding Player, 2023 Conference USA Player of the Year, C-USA First Team All-Conference and C-USA All-Tournament Team.

In his time at North Texas, Dowling helped lead the Mean Green to 104 total wins, three conference championships, the program's first wins in both the NCAA Tournament and NIT, a 2018 CBI Championship, the most wins (25) in a single season and twice setting the school record for most conference wins in a season.

When Dowling and the staff joined UNT in 2017-18 they inherited a program that had won just eight games.

During the record-breaking 2021-22 season, Dowling was part of a staff that helped North Texas to a 25-7 overall record, including a 16-2 mark in Conference USA, and a first-ever trip to the NIT. In addition to setting the school's single season marks for overall and conference wins, the team won a program-best 15 consecutive games from early January until early March. The No. 2 seed Mean Green beat Texas State, 67-63, in overtime to claim the school's first-ever NIT victory before losing in the second round at Virginia, 71-69, in overtime.

Dowling and the staff navigated the challenges of COVID-19 to post arguably the greatest season in school history in 2020-21, as the Mean Green claimed their first NCAA Tournament win with a 78-69 overtime victory over Purdue on March 19, 2021. It was the first victory over an AP Top 25 opponent since 1972. The team earned their first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2010 by winning four games (Middle Tennessee State, Old Dominion, Louisiana Tech and Western Kentucky) in four days at the C-USA Tournament to capture their first league tournament title in 11 years with a 61-57 overtime victory over the Hilltoppers.

North Texas had posted its third consecutive 20-win season in 2019-20 and were the No. 1 seed at the 2020 C-USA Tournament before the postseason was cancelled due to COVID-19. The Mean Green went a then program-best 14-4 in league play, ending an 11-game skid against Western Kentucky to win the regular season championship. The team were one of just four nationally to rank among the top 25 nationally in both overall field goal percentage and 3-point field goal percentage during the season.

Dowling helped the Mean Green increase their win total by 12 games in year one and capture the school's first NCAA National Tournament Championship with the College Basketball Invitational Tournament title in 2017-18. The success carried overall into year two in 2018-19, as UNT began the season with a program-best 16-1 start.

Other Coaching Stints
Dowling followed McCasland to North Texas after one season (2016-17) at Arkansas State, where he helped the Red Wolves double their win total with a 20-12 overall record, including an 11-7 mark in Sun Belt play.

Dowling spent one season (2015-16) as the head coach at the Scotland Performance Institute, where he developed several players that went on to earn college scholarships, including three with Division I programs.

Dowling was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Southern Miss from 2012-15, helping the Golden Eagles post a 65-37 (.637) record and a pair of NIT appearances. The team won 27 games in 2012-13 and captured their first postseason victories since 1988 with their trip to the NIT Quarterfinals, while they collected a school-record 29 wins in 2013-14 and claimed a share of the C-USA regular-season title.

Dowling moved to Southern Miss after spending one season (2011-12) at Morehead State, where he helped the Eagles win 18 games, including 10 in Ohio Valley Conference play.

Prior to Morehead State, Dowling was an assistant at Division II program Slippery Rock for 3 seasons (2008-11), helping the Rock post three consecutive winning seasons, including 21-win campaigns in 2008-09 and 2010-11.

Dowling began his coaching career as an assistant coach for his former college coach and mentor, the legendary Bill Lewit at Cecil College in North East, Maryland in 2005, helping lead the Seahawks to a 97-6 (.942) record in three years. He was part of winning three Maryland JUCO regular season championships, two region tournament championships and one NJCAA Division II National Championship. During his tenure, Cecil finished No. 1 in the final regular season NJCAA national rankings all three years.

Playing Career
Dowling started his college playing career at Cecil, where he played two seasons (2000-03) before transferring and becoming a starter and two-time captain at UMES (2003-05). He was a two-year starter for the Seahawks, leading the team to the 2001 Maryland JUCO regular-season championship as a freshman before returning from an injury in 2001-02 to guide the squad to the Region XX Championship and NJCAA Division II Final Four as a sophomore in 2002-03. His two-year record at Cecil was 51-11, playing with nine eventual Division I players.

It was at UMES in 2004 where Dowling first crossed paths with head coach Jerome Tang when he scored a career-high 22 points against Baylor on Dec. 22, 2004 in a game where Tang served as the opponent scout.

A native of St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, Dowling moved to the Wilmington, Dela., during his high school years. He led Howard High School to the Blue Hen Flight B Championship game and a trip to the state's final four as a senior in 2000 en route to earning honorable mention all-state and first team all-conference honors. In addition, he qualified for the 2000 Delaware State Blue and Gold All-Star Game.

Personal
Dowling earned a bachelor's degree in sociology from UMES in 2005, while he added a master's degree in Sports Management from California University of Pennsylvania in 2011.

Dowling and his wife, Cierra, have two daughters, Laiya and Levi.

The Man Behind the Phone

The tweeting — "KANSAS FREAKING STATE!" — has paused, the laughter has stopped, and sobering minutes draw out like a blade that cuts into the heart of K-State men's basketball assistant coach Jareem Dowling, dressed in a gray T-shirt, and whose shiny eyes grow slightly moist as the 41-year-old native of St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands poignantly and painstakingly recounts the life he left behind and the challenges he navigates each day.

May 15, 2023
by D. Scott Fritchen, K-State Sports Extra

"I know how hard life is," he says, slowly and softly. "I try to enjoy every moment. I don't want to spend time pretending to be somebody. I want to spent time being who I am."

He pauses.

"I'm transparent, natural, and true to myself, you know?"

Dowling, the first announced member of head coach Jerome Tang's inaugural coaching staff on March 29, 2022, is the kind of guy you want to see at a dinner party, the contagious energy and boisterous laugh brightening up a home, which these days includes 13,000 family members at Bramlage Coliseum. Always carrying with his cell phone, Dowling chronicles the pregame atmosphere, the echoing "K-S-U" chants from the Wildcats' student section along with the "Wabash," and sends the tweets across America: K-State is the place to be.

"How could you not be hyped with this fan base?" he says.

"Probably 99% of the stuff I tweet is positivity," he continues. "This place deserves respect and we don't need to bow to anybody because the passion and love here is real. I love the positivity you can do with Twitter."

Yet for every photo and every video, for every K-State victory and defeat, lies stirring truths that Dowling honestly and inspiringly faces, embraces, and courageously shares — tales of individual triumph in a world of darkness, stories of personal success when perspective starts to slip, and dockets of despair-turned-acceptance as the first glint of light reaches the long lonely tunnel.

It traces back to a handful of years ago. He was in O'Hare International Airport in Chicago. He began to feel weird. Then he felt sick. Then scared. He panicked. His feet froze. There were so many thoughts, so many of them, jockeying for position like Max Verstappen and Fernando Alonso around the third turn in Melbourne. How could this be? He was physically healthy. He was on his way to see his daughter. There's nothing in the world like seeing your daughter. Fear. Jitters. Shutdown. He picked up the cellphone and made a call.

"I was Coach Tang's hype man right before Gene Taylor walked into his house to interview him," Dowling says, his eyes sparkling and voice rising in excitement. "I called Coach Tang on Facetime. He was chill. He and Rae were having breakfast and praying. I was like, 'Today is the day!' I was hype throughout the whole hiring process."

Dowling once punched the numbers. His family, between his mother's side and his father's side, had served a combined 137 years of prison time, everything from bank robbery to selling drugs. Dowling calls himself a "proud Virgin Islander," and "someone that's struggled growing up finding an identity."

Who is Jareem Dowling?

"They call me the nerd of the family, and I'm OK with that," he says. "I just pride myself in trying to change the narrative of my family's last name, trying to create a new level of excellence in my family, so the younger ones coming up behind me can hear this and see this versus the other stories that I heard growing up."

He moved to Wilmington, Delaware, during his high school years. He led Howard High School to the state Final Four his senior season in 2000 and earned honorable-mention all-state accolades. He played two seasons at Cecil College, a NCAA Division II school in North East, Maryland (2000-03), and was a two-time captain at Maryland-Eastern Shore (2003-05). He began his coaching career as an assistant coach for his former college coach and mentor, legendary Bill Lewit, helping Cecil to a 97-6 record in three years. During Dowling's tenure, Cecil finished No. 1 in the regular season NJCAA national rankings all three seasons.

Dowling first met Tang in 2007 in the U.S. Virgin Islands. Tang coached the U.S. Virgin Islands' senior team. Dowling coached the junior team and served as an assistant for the senior squad. Dowling was quickly enamored with Tang's personality, knowledge and coaching style. He hoped for a chance to one day serve on Tang's staff. Tang, at the time, was in his fifth year of a 19-year stint as assistant coach/associate head coach at Baylor. Cecil came off a NCAA Division II national championship. Dowling says that he fancied himself as the second-coming of Phil Jackson.

"As a young coach, you're always looking for that next step and Coach Tang offered some constructive criticism, basically telling me after my first year I wasn't ready, and if he had a head coaching job that he wouldn't hire me," Dowling said upon his hiring as K-State assistant coach. "I respected it because he was transparent and to the point.

"As our relationship grew, the conversations changed to, 'When we work together, this is what it's going to be like.' It took 10 years before he started talking like that. I love his honesty. That's why I've been attached to his hip since I first met him."

Dowling's dream came true when athletic director Gene Taylor hired Tang as head coach on March 21, 2022. Tang said that he sought to elevate the men's basketball program, adding that it wouldn't take long. Dowling couldn't sleep. He knew it would be difficult to sleep with "K-State" across his chest. His first car was a purple 1996 Honda Accord, his father's house is purple, his ex-step mom's house is purple, and his daughter's favorite color is purple.

"It's just a sign," Dowling said. "I'm just so excited to have the purple on."

Dowling arrived at K-State with 16 years of experience as an assistant coach and 12 years of international head coaching experience. He had spent the previous six seasons on staff with Grant McCasland at both Arkansas State (2016-17) and North Texas (2017-22).

Jareem and wife Cierra and daughter Laiya hit the Little Apple without hesitation.

Jareem and Cierra were married in 2018 with Tang serving as officiant. Three months after Jareem met Cierra, he phoned Tang. He told Tang that he wanted to marry her. Jareem had been in long-lasting relationships before, but this felt different. Tang told Jareem to pray on it. Jareem did.

"If you want," Tang said, "I'll marry you guys."

Jareem and Cierra were ready. Jareem requested that they be married in their living room. Cierra's family drove from New Orleans to Denton while Jareem's family in the U.S. Virgin Islands watched the ceremony on Facetime.

"It was the perfect day," Dowling says.

The Man Behind the Phone

He remembers his brother's smile the most. Leo always smiled. He was six months from graduating college in three years. He had jobs lined up. He committed suicide at age 20.

"Everybody assumes that a smile means you're happy and everything is OK," Dowling says. "Do not judge a person by what you see on the exterior."

Dowling kept moving and kept grinding. He went to work the day of his brother's death in 2010. He pushed Leo's death out of his mind like that heartbreaking, buzzer-beating 3-pointer that can linger too long if you let it. But wait a minute. Death and basketball? No correlation, man. But Dowling trudged on, focusing on the hardwood.

Until the connecting flight six years later, until busy O'Hare International Airport, until nothing seemed right and everything appeared out of control. Under the airport lights, everything dimmed. That's when it hit. And it hit Dowling in ways he couldn't fathom.

"I couldn't get on this next flight," Dowling says. "I called Coach Tang."

The next four or five days and nights were the worst. That's because Dowling didn't sleep. He phoned Tang at 3 or 4 a.m. just to talk. He phoned his foster brothers, George and Charles. He phoned other family members.

"I had depression and anxiety but I didn't know it at the time," Dowling says. "I'd never felt it before, but I just knew I wasn't right."

Charles, nearly a decade older than Jareem, stepped in.

"Charles sat me down and said, 'If you really want help, it's going to be a little extreme, but this is what we need to do. We need to check you into a mental hospital,'" Dowling recalls. "I was like, 'OK.'"

Dowling lasted four days. Figured he was recovered. Came home. Three or four days later, he mentally crashed. He returned to the mental health facility. He was fully on board with completing the mental health program.

"I went back there for a while," Dowling says. "It really slowed things down and made me understand, 'OK, you have anxiety and depression and all these things are normal, and here's how you cope with it, and here are some steps.'"

Charles hugged his brother when he left the mental health facility.

"You're going to be just fine," Charles told Jareem. "Ninety-eight percent of people in the world have something going on and they don't know what it is. Now you know. And now you can help others."

Dowling pauses in his office.

"I promise you after coming out of there, I've seen so many people suffering just by talking and hearing what they have to say, and I've helped a lot of people, and a lot of people have helped me," Dowling says. "I'm always going to be an advocate of mental health, man. It's really, really serious, and I'm OK with not being OK every day."

Dowling's process begins shortly after he awakens.

"People sometimes see me walking in the grass at 7 a.m., and that's a part of my thing," he says. "Walking in my grass helps me connect with the earth. Getting enough sun, the simple things we take for granted as everyday human beings, I focus on that."

In death, Leo taught his brother a lesson.

"My brother didn't tell anybody anything," Dowling says. "You have to speak and talk and keep talking until somebody listens. I'm now able to incorporate it into my life and incorporate it into my players. Every player I've coached since then, I've always told them my story, so they know they don't have to hide anything from me, because I'm being transparent.

"I've been in a mental hospital. I've been through this stuff. You miss five shots in a game? That ain't nothing. If that's the worst thing you deal with, you're going to live a great life."

"I'm not necessarily worried about what people think," Dowling says. "That's why I'm OK wearing my chains — because it's who I am. It doesn't make me a bad person because I wear jewelry. I like jewelry, I grew up wearing jewelry, and it's an expression, you know? What you see is what you get: loud, energetic, passionate, a truth teller, and just passionate about whoever I love."

"Our staff is different, man," Dowling says. "We all love who we are and we love each other for who each other is. It's fun. It's energetic. We love being around each other. It's true natural transparency, true growth, true love and true inspiration for each other. That's why we put our best foot forward every day. We know we can't do it without each other. It's fun, man. I promise you, it's fun."

And that's sometimes where Twitter comes in.

"I've showcased my wife, daughter, and the players on social media. I think it's really good insight into an everyday feel of the program. I love the positivity you can do with it. Some people might never see these guys in person or outside of a basketball game, but I might take a video of them getting a haircut, and people think that's cool."

Dowling identifies some of his co-workers by music genre.

"Ulric Maligi is R&B, Coach Tang is gospel, Rodney Perry is jazz, Anthony Winchester, Phil Baier and Luke Sauber are country, Marco Borne is New Orleans-style ballroom music, Austin Carpenter and Bailey (Bachamp) are country and rap, and I'm rap, reggae and country," he says.

Dowling says that he used to wear socks around the office because it felt like home. Tang told him to wait until 5 p.m. to take off his shoes. The coaches' wives are best friends, frequent the Farmer's Market in Manhattan, and, once in a while, they even tour Aggieville — "dates without us," he laughs.

Dowling says that Tang has directed the staff to spend more time in their faith and with their significant other.

"He said, 'You do those two things and basketball is going to sort itself out.' We were all sitting in the meeting like, 'Is he serious?'" Dowling says. "He's quick to tell you to get out of here and take your wife or your husband out. He's quick to tell you that. Invest in them. Invest in them and this part will be easy."

Dowling had a few best friends and their spouses in Manhattan for the Fourth of July weekend. Even though the coaching staff was still in the midst of recruiting 13 players to the Wildcats, Tang told Dowling to hang back and enjoy his friends. Dowling took his friends on a tour of Bill Snyder Family Stadium and they played basketball in the Ice Family Basketball Center. Then they barbequed in Dowling's backyard.

Martez was a friend who Dowling confided in for more than 10 years. Dowling phoned him before every important decision. Martez suffered an aneurism in Dowling's living room. He passed away. He was 40.

"It was brutal," Dowling says.

"Going through my mental depression a couple years ago helped me to be able to reach out to my therapist and set up an emergency therapy session to talk about how to move forward," Dowling says. "Just understanding what I went through five or six years ago now, it's helped me to be able to handle it. Otherwise I probably would've needed a year off, I mean, that happened in my house.

"It's been a heck of a year — positive, negative, it's been a heck of a year, but I wouldn't trade it for the world."

"We're Kansas Freaking State!" Dowling says. "Just like a new artist coming out or somebody that's been a big-time artist and had to remake himself to be in this generation, that's what we're doing. We're saying it loud and proud. We're not whispering it. We're saying it loud and proud!"

The biggest hype man in the history of K-State athletics furrows his brow. K-State just announced the signing of North Texas guard Tylor Perry, the first transfer portal pickup for the 2023 recruiting class. The 5-foot-11 guard from Fort Coffee, Oklahoma, averaged 17.3 points, 3.4 rebounds and 2.1 assists en route to Conference USA Player of the Year honors and was named Postseason NIT most outstanding player. Perry, who also won a national championship at Coffeyville Community College in 2021, has one season of eligibility left at K-State.

But that's not why Dowling furrows his brow. He furrows it because of the "haters."

"We have a product to sell now," Dowling says. "Before we were selling a vision but now we actually have the proof. But some people are saying it's a fluke. Some people just think we're a flash in the pan. That's why I put 'Freaking' in 'Kansas Freaking State.' You're going to respect us."

Dowling rises from his office chair. He points to a photo, and then picks up a stack of cards. The top card in cartoon lettering reads, "THANK YOU."

"This picture right here is a little kid named Carter," he says. "Met him and his family and they traveled to the NCAA Tournament and I made sure our players met him and he became a team favorite. They sent me a nice card. I get so many notes every day from people. When I tell you it makes my day, it's crazy man. This motivates me. I keep every card and I read them. The days I don't feel good, I read them. I just pick one up and read it, and boom, I'm good.

"We're all human. I love Manhappiness, man. I'm here as long as they have Coach Tang here. I'm not looking for another job or a head coaching job. I want to work for Jerome Tang until he retires. That way. I can potentially be better than Jerome Tang because I learned everything he knows."

He smiles.

"I love my wife and my daughter and Coach Tang and K-State and people who are honest," he says, "and I just love living life to its fullest."

RODNEY PERRY

ASSISTANT COACH

Fourth Season at K-State // Missouri State '94

@CoachRodPerry / CoachRodPerry

Rodney Perry enters his fourth season as an assistant coach at Kansas State in 2024-25 after joining head coach Jerome Tang's inaugural coaching staff on July 27, 2022.

Perry has been part of a coaching staff that has helped reenergize a K-State program in the past 3 seasons, leading the Wildcats to 61 wins, including 28 wins in Big 12 play, with back-to-back postseason appearances (2023 NCAA Tournament, 2024 NIT) highlighted by the run to the 2023 Elite Eight. During their memorable first season in 2022-23, he helped the Wildcats to their third-highest win total (26) and a thrilling run to the Elite Eight despite being picked last in the Big 12 preseason poll after three consecutive losing seasons.

Among the 61 wins at K-State are 16 against Top 25 teams, including 7 Top 10 opponents. The 16 career Top 25 wins tie for the fourth-most in school history, while the 7 against Top 10 competition also ranks fourth all-time. Thirteen of the 16 ranked wins have come in the friendly confines of Bramlage Coliseum, where Tang is 39-9 (.813) overall, including 21-7 (.750) in Big 12 play and 13-4 (.765) against ranked foes.

Perry assisted in the development of a pair of All-Americans in Bob Cousy Award winner Markquis Nowell and Julius Erving Award finalist Keyontae Johnson, who were the only teammates nationally to earn All-America honors in 2022-23. They became the first duo in school history to each earn All-American recognition from The Associated Press when they were selected to the Third Team. Both were named to the All-Big 12 First Team, while Johnson was the league's Newcomer of the Year.

With Perry helping run the offense scheme, the Wildcats have posted some of the top offensive performances in school history, including setting three school single-season records in 2022-23. In addition to shattering the mark for assists (611), the team finished second in points scored (2,742), field goals (961), 3-point field goals (258), free throw percentage (74.8) and steals (289) in school history. The 46.1 field goal percentage tied for the seventh-best in the shot clock era and the best since 2017-18. Nowell crushed the single-season marks for assists (297) and steals (92) while he and Johnson became just the second duo in school history to tally 600 or more points in a single season. The team set top-10 marks for scoring (2,454 points/10th and 3-point field goals (251/5th) in 2023-24.

Nowell, who was selected as the winner of the 2023 Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard, finished second nationally in assists/game (8.3 apg.), total assists (297) and total steals (92) while ranking in the top-15 in four others. He was chosen as the East Regional Most Outstanding Player after guiding the Wildcats to the Elite Eight, averaging 23.5 points, 13.5 assists and 4.0 steals in his 4-game NCAA Tournament run. His 19 assists in the win over Michigan State set both the tournament and school records.

In addition to his work with Johnson and Nowell, Perry has helped develop four more All-Big 12 performers in Third Team selection Coleman Hawkins (2024-25) and honorable mention picks Arthur Kaluma (2023-24), David N'Guessan (2024-25) and Tylor Perry (2023-24). Kaluma was one of four Big 12 players to rank in the top-15 in both scoring and rebounding while Perry was among the league's top scorers, ranking eighth in the Big 12 at 15.3 points per game. Perry led the Wildcats in nearly every offensive category, including scoring, 20-point games (11) and assists (148), while his 93 made 3-point field goals tied for the fourth-most in a single season.

This past season, Hawkins was one of the top all-around players in the country, as he was the only Division I player to average at least 10 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4.0 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocks per game. N'Guessan, who ranked fifth nationally with a Big 12-leading 64.4 field goal percentage, set both the school single-season and career (63.6) field goal percentage records in concluding his college career.

Perry, along with the rest of the staff, have capitalized on the program's excitement by helping attract some of the top transfer classes. Johnson, Kaluma, Perry, Hawkins and N'Guessan have all been high-level transfer portal success stories in the last 3 seasons. He has also helped continue that recruiting momentum this off-season with the additions of five Division I transfers (Abdi Bashir Jr., P.J. Haggerty, Marcus Johnson, Nate Johnson, Khamari McGriff), a trio of international standouts (Dorin Buca, Andrej Kostic and Elias Rapieque), a junior college player (Stephen Osei) and a top-100 high school senior (Exavier Wilson).

A finalist for the 2022 Jersey Mike's Naismith High School Boys Coach of the Year, Perry arrived at K-State after spending the 2021-22 season building Link Academy in Branson, Mo., into a national powerhouse, as the Lions finished as the national runner-up at the GEICO National Tournament with a 34-2 record.

Perry also led the AAU program that he helped found – MOKAN Elite – to their third title at the prestigious Nike Peach Jam (2016, 2019, 2022) with a 53-52 win over Team Takeover on July 24, 2022, to cap a 27-3 season. MOKAN Elite's three championships are the most by any team in the 26-year history of the signature Nike EYBL (Elite Youth Basketball League) summer event held in North Augusta, S.C. Perry's Link Academy (34-2) and MOKAN Elite (27-3) teams went a combined 61-5 during the 2021-22 season.

Perry has 31 years of coaching experience with 18 coming on the college level, including six as the head coach at NAIA Avila University from 2010-16. On top of that, he is a co-founder and former head coach of two successful AAU teams in the Springfield (Mo.) Rockets (1994-2003) and MOKAN Elite (2006-16, 2018-19, 2021-22). In addition to the three Peach Jam titles with MOKAN Elite, he won the 1995 AAU National Championship with the Rockets.

The Lions opened the season with 26 wins in a row, spending time as the nation's top-ranked team, before their lone regular-season loss to No. 1 Sunrise Christian, 74-65, at the Heartland Classic in Nebraska.

Link finished the regular season with a 32-1 record before defeating No. 5 Oak Hill, 81-67, and No. 8 Prolific Prep, 60-53, at GEICO Nationals, and setting up the showdown with defending champion Montverde in the championship game. The Lions finished No. 2 in the final ESPN High School Boys Basketball Top 25.

He developed a two-time All-American in Sedrick Johnson, who was an NAIA Second Team All-American and the Heart of America Athletic Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 2015-16. In 2006, Perry helped co-found the MOKAN Elite AAU program, which has been the home to some of the best players in the country. He was part of five trips to the Peach Jam Final Four (2012, 2016, 2018, 2019, 2022), including three championships (2016, 2019, 2022), while assisting in the development of eight NBA players. ANTHONY WINCHESTER

ASSISTANT COACH

Fourth Season at K-State // Western Kentucky '06

@ A_Winchester10 / a_winchester10/

Anthony Winchester is in his fourth season at Kansas State in 2025-26, including his third as an assistant coach for head coach Jerome Tang after beginning his career as the program's Director of Video Operations.

Winchester has been part of a coaching staff that has helped reenergize a K-State program the past 3 seasons, leading the Wildcats to 61 wins, including 28 in Big 12 play, with consecutive postseason appearances (2023 NCAA Tournament, 2024 NIT) highlighted by the run to the 2023 Elite Eight. Among the 61 wins the past 3 seasons are 16 against teams ranked in the Top 25, including 7 Top 10 opponents.

During their memorable first season in 2022-23, Winchester helped the Wildcats to their third-highest win total (26) and a thrilling run to the Elite Eight despite being picked last in the Big 12 preseason poll after 3 consecutive losing seasons. He also assisted in the development of a pair of All-Americans in 2023 Bob Cousy Award winner Markquis Nowell and forward Keyontae Johnson, who became the first duo in school history to each earn the recognition from The Associated Press when they were selected to the Third Team.

In addition to his work with Johnson and Nowell, Winchester has helped develop four more All-Big 12 performers in Third Team selection Coleman Hawkins (2024-25) and honorable mention picks Arthur Kaluma (2023-24), David N'Guessan (2024-25) and Tylor Perry (2023-24).

Winchester, along with the rest of the staff, has helped capitalize on the program's excitement by helping attract some of the top recruiting classes. Kaluma and Perry were high-level transfer portal additions in 2023-24. He also helped continue that momentum in 2025 with the additions of Division I transfers Abdi Bashir Jr., PJ Haggerty, Marcus Johnson, Nate Johnson, Khamari McGriff), international standouts Dorin Buca, Andrej Kostic and Elias Rapieque, a junior college player in Stephen Osei and a top-50 high school senior in Exavier Wilson.

Winchester, who spent time playing professionally in both Spain and Puerto Rico after a Hall of Fame career at Western Kentucky (2002-06), arrived at K-State after the spending the 2021-22 season as assistant coach at Southern Miss for head coach Jay Ladner, who was named the 2022-23 Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. The 2021-22 season was Winchester's first as an assistant coach, as he made a second stint at Southern Miss after serving as the video coordinator for one season in 2019-20.

In between his two stints at Southern Miss, Winchester served as the Director of Basketball Operations at Pacific for longtime NBA player and current Georgia Tech head coach Damon Stoudamire in 2020-21. Before that, he was a graduate assistant at Loyola Marymount for head coach Mike Dunlap in 2018-19.

Winchester got his start in coaching at his alma mater Western Kentucky, first as a graduate intern in 2008-09 followed by a stint as Director of Operations in 2009-10 working for head coach Ken McDonald. The Hilltoppers combined for 46 wins those two seasons, including a 25-win season in 2008-09 which was highlighted by a Sun Belt Conference Tournament Championship and trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Winchester played professionally in Spain and Puerto Rico between 2006-08 and 2010-16. He twice was named Rookie of the Month while playing for Caja Rural Melilla in Spain's 2nd Division in 2006-07, while he was selected to the LEB Gold First Team in 2012 and LEB Gold Player of the Year in 2013 while playing for Leche Rio Breogan Lugo in Spain's 2nd Division. He also spent time in Puerto Rico, twice earning Player of the Week honors in 2014. He finished his career in 2016 after playing in Spain's 1st Division (ACB), which is the second-best pro league in the world.

Hall of Fame Playing Career

Winchester enjoyed a memorable career at Western Kentucky playing for coaches Dennis Felton and Darrin Horn from 2002-06, cumulating with his recognition to the school's 15-member Centennial Team in 2006 and the WKU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2019. He helped WKU to 84 wins, three postseason appearances (1 NCAA Tournament, 2 NITs), one Sun Belt Tournament Championship and two SBC Division titles.

Winchester scored 1,732 points in his four-year career (2002-06) for the Hilltoppers, which ranks 10th on the school's all-time list, while leading the team in scoring as a junior (18.2 ppg.) in 2004-05 and senior (18.6 ppg.) in 2005-06. He also finished his career ranking second in 3-point field goals made (247) and fourth in 3-point field goal percentage (41.6). As a senior, he was selected as an AP honorable mention All-American, a Mid-Major All-American by CollegeInsider.com and FOXSports.com and the Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year after finishing second in the league in scoring (18.6 ppg.). He was twice named First Team All-Sun Belt (2005, 2006), while he was the league's Freshman of the Year in 2002-03. He was also a standout player at Austin High School in Austin, Indiana, where he scored 2,256 career points and finished as the runner-up to Indiana Mr. Basketball as a senior in 2001-02.

Winchester earned a bachelor's degree in sociology/criminology from Western Kentucky in 2006. He and his wife McKenzie were married in May 2025. The couple share two children (Beckham and Ella), while they are expecting a third child in December 2025.

The International Expedition

In March, Anthony Winchester journeyed in Belgrade, the capital and largest city of Serbia. There were many important stops along his postseason international travel — and this was plenty important for the Kansas State men's basketball program, which finished its season with a 16-17 record, and eyed a turnaround in 2025-26. As fourth-year head coach Jerome Tang put it, "We need some dudes."

by D. Scott Fritchen, K-State Sports Extra

The staff mapped out an entire course of action, a master plan, with Winchester, an assistant who is entering his fourth season on staff, taking his passport and international professional experience to further evaluate players who might look good in lavender — and who could soon make life difficult for opponents in the Big 12.

So, Winchester, who played international basketball at the highest level in Europe for nearly a decade, began this international trip at his roots: Spain. He hit Madrid, Spain, and then visited Barcelona for two days, and then hit Germany for a couple days, where Tang joined him, and they flew together to Serbia. The game to go to was two hours away. They got a driver. It was up into the mountains in a little town. When Tang and Winchester departed their car, they found a little gym with bleachers all to one side.

"You're taking your head coach to watch a player, but getting there was difficult," he says. "You hope the kid is good."

But Tang and Winchester had an idea about the kid they came to watch. They saw the film. Everybody raved about him. He was not unknown. On one play in the game, the kid came off a pick-and-roll, went between the legs and behind the back, and hit a circus shot. Tang, seated nearby, shot Winchester an eyes-wide-open all-knowing glare. Winchester thought, "OK, this is good." Tang was sold.

The kid scored more than 30 points that night and was easily the best player. And he was playing against some of the best talent in all of Europe. Seemed people from all over came to watch the best players around. And the kid was clearly the best of the bunch. The kid, by the way, was just 18 years old. His name? Andrej Kostic.

"He shot at the highest level," Winchester said. "The way the ball came off his hands, it was just easy for him, you know? He has a chance to be really good."

Kostic is a 6-foot-6, 210-pound freshman guard from Belgrade, Serbia. He led the 2023 European under-18 team to the gold, he averaged 24.2 points, 7.8 rebounds and 2.0 steals in the 2024 Adidas Next Generation Tournament in Belgrade, and he was a member of the 2024 All-Serbian Junior League First Team while also earning 2024 All-Serbian Junior League Guard of the Year. He also earned all-tournament honors at the 2025 Adidas Eurocamp in Treviso, Italy. During one game this past February, he scored 39 points. Another night he grabbed 10 rebounds. Another night he dished out eight assists. And another night, he had five steals.

"He has a baby face," Winchester says, "but on the court he's a killer."

Winchester, 42, remembers being fresh faced and overseas, a kid with a smooth shot, big dreams, and nice views, as the native of Austin, Indiana moved to Melilla, Spain, on the coast of Africa, after an All-American career at Western Kentucky. His first season with Caja Rural Melilla in Spain in 2006-07 wasn't about padding stats as much as letting the experience soak in. The team had to fly to all the away games. Once, they had to take a boat. But it was lonely, yeah, and there was the constant feel that Winchester was missing out on something back home.

"You'd get on Facebook and they're doing a birthday party," Winchester says. "When I came home in the summers, it was the same stuff like when I left. There were times abroad that I was like, 'Yeah, I'm ready to get back.'

But Winchester was good, too, earning Player of the Week and Player of the Month honors several times. In 2013, he was named Player of the Year for his league in Spain. He concluded his playing career in 2016 after playing in Spain's 1st Division, ACB, which is known as the one of the best professional leagues in the world behind the NBA.

Winchester has nine years of college coaching experience — and now a wife, McKenzie. The couple were wed on May 24 at Union Hall in Manhattan with Tang officiating the marriage ceremony. He became stepfather to a son, Beckham (10), and daughter, Ella (6), while McKenzie is pregnant with their first child together. It is a boy. And he is expected to join their happy family on December 26.

"It's awesome, man," he says. "When I met McKenzie, it was crazy how — it was like I had a purpose. I always kind of knew that I wanted to be a dad, but when this happened, it was like, 'Nope, you'll be a stepdad first. So, Beckham just turned 10 and Ella is 6, and she's in the first grade now. She's a handful. She keeps me on my toes."

Winchester says that his bride-to-be was OK with him traveling halfway across the world two months before their wedding to seek out key pieces for the Wildcats. By then, most of the gears were in motion for the May wedding.

The question becomes this: How do you convince an international basketball player, who perhaps has never been to the U.S., to leave his homeland and fly sight-unseen to northeast Kansas to play at K-State?

"For me, when I'm having conversations with a recruit, maybe their parents, maybe their advisor, I sell them on Coach Tang," Winchester says. "At the end of the day, it's about the people, and the people you're going to be around, and that's what really helped us in recruiting these international kids. Then there was Coach Tang, and he was over there with me, and he was going to see those kids and do everything possible to make it work.

"Then there's a lot of timing in college basketball with the NIL, and things are different than how they were a few years ago when you tried to get a kid to come over and play. Now there are incentives that play a huge part in all this. That obviously helps. Even though it's an international kid, and it's hard to get to know him because you don't see him all the time, it's all about relationships. If you tell him the truth, most of the time it's going to work out."

There was Elias Rapieque in Germany. The 6-foot-9, 225-pound junior transfer played 53 games with the ALBA Berlin organization between the EuroLeague (27 games) and the German Basketball Bundesliga, which is the highest-level league of pro basketball in Germany.

"We saw Elias in person," Winchester says. "He played in the EuroLeague, which is the second-best league behind the NBA in the world. He was on the same team as David McCormack from Kansas and Matt Thomas from Iowa State. He was on a team with pros, who showed him the way. Elias is a player who can pass, dribble and shoot. He gets everyone involved and can connect guys in a certain way on and off the court. He just knows how to play. He has a really good feel for his game."

There was junior Dorin Buca, the 7-foot-2, 254-pound terror from Perugia, Italy.

"The first thing is his size. I mean, he's huge," Winchester says. "A lot of times with a kid with that size, they might not run well or have good hands. Dorin has all the tools. He's been really good, a pleasant surprise for all of us, in how he's adapted. He has something you can't teach, and it's a cliché, but it's true, and the way he moves and handles the ball and has really good touch, he has a chance to be really good."

K-State is one of more than 15 high-major college basketball programs that brought in at least two international newcomers for 2025-26, according to CBS Sports, which projected that between 70 and 80 or more international prospects could land on the rosters of high-major basketball teams for this season.

"We were excited everything was going to get done, and it did," Winchester says. "It was a good feeling because we felt like our roster was complete. We had been working on the roster the whole year. The portal now is different. Some kids were coming back and then they weren't coming back, and it's just a process, and it felt like a long process. We looked at our roster and felt it was complete, and we felt really good about it. We were really excited."

Adding a Wealth of Knowledge

Spend a little bit of time with Bill Peterson and you instantly want to become better. That's the first impression of the man.

April 30, 2025
by D. Scott Fritchen, K-State Sports Extra

The second impression? With a wealth of knowledge and experience over a 47-year coaching career and boasting a history of mentoring a few of the greatest players in NBA history, Peterson will become a valuable asset as a Kansas State assistant men's basketball coach under Jerome Tang.

Tang announced the hiring of Peterson in late April. It's a reunion of sorts. Peterson coached alongside Tang while at Baylor from 2017-22 where they helped guide the Bears to the 2021 NCAA Championship.

"Every coach, player, and person associated with K-State basketball will be better because of the addition of Coach Bill Peterson," Tang said in a news release.

Peterson was Baylor's director of men's basketball operations from 2017-19 before spending the next five seasons as special assistant to head coach Scott Drew. Peterson was a part of 167 wins with the Bears and five NCAA Tournament appearances.

He also spent a combined 11 years on staff with the Dallas Mavericks, Milwaukee Bucks and Orlando Magic (G-League), mentoring over 20 NBA players, including Hall of Famers Dirk Nowitzki, Steve Nash and Karl Malone.

Peterson knows talent. And he knows faith. And resilience.

"God has blessed me to have some great opportunities to work with some great people," Peterson said. "I've taken in a lot of knowledge. But more than anything, I've learned to be resilient. I tell my girls all the time, and they laugh, I tell stories, and I have an acronym I give them, and it's, "NNNGU" — Never, Never, Never Give Up. There are going to be ups and downs, there are going to be obstacles, but you just have to keep fighting through them.

Peterson spoke with K-State Sports Extra's D. Scott Fritchen about his career journey and excitement to be reunited with K-State head coach Jerome Tang as they help build a consistent winner in 2025-26.

Q. When you think of Jerome Tang, what first comes to mind?

■ "His great faith and his passion for the game of basketball and how much he cares about the kids."

Q. When you were on the coaching staff with Coach Tang at Baylor, exactly what kind of chemistry did you two possess?

■ "In the beginning, it was just OK, and probably after a year and a half at Baylor, Jerome and I got to be really, really close. He'd come into my office and ask for ideas on defense and player development. Sometimes we'd disagree, and we got to be really close. Sometimes we'd just say, "Hey, I don't believe that, and you don't believe that, either, so we're going to agree to disagree." When we got to that point, it really helped our growth. I saw him grow tremendously as a person and as a coach. I grew also just because we weren't afraid to share our true feelings. We'd go at each other back and forth, and he'd come into my office every morning with his cup of coffee and sit on my couch and sometimes we'd talk for an hour. Those were times I really, really enjoyed. I knew he'd be a really good head coach one day, and he just kept growing and learning and the opportunity came about at K-State. It was almost like we went through the wars together and we grew and got tougher and more savvy out of it."

Q. What makes Jerome Tang such an effective coach?

■ "His ability to be resilient and to bounce back and not listen to distractions and what other people say and his ability to say, "What's the problem? What's the issue?" We always said at Baylor, "Keep the main thing the main thing." So many times, in coaching you get off track a little bit. Everybody says that you have to do this, and you have to do that. You have to focus on a couple really, really important things and keep them at a high level so you can be successful. He's learned to do that. He's learned to bounce back and overcome and be resilient. I have no doubt he's going to have the team rebound and be right there to get into the NCAA Tournament this year."

Q. Can you describe the decision-making process in deciding to jump on board with the Wildcats?

■ "He called me as soon as my season was over (at Denver) and said, "Hey, I want you to come down and spend some time with my players and some of my coaches." He said, "I know we know each other really well, and God has blessed you with the specialty of player development and teaching them and watching film with them and building a relationship with them." I spent 11 years in the NBA doing that. He just said, "I want you to come down and be around my players and work them out and be with these coaches and talk to them." Then I met with him at the Final Four. We had lunch together. He said, "You know, I think I want to do more than that. Would you be interested in joining my staff?" That's when we started talking about it.

"Obviously, I was very, very excited about it because I know him and I trust him, and I know how he's going to be every day. I'm kind of the same way. I love working with young guys and I love pouring into them. I'm an older guy that's been around a lot. I see guys and go, "How can I help him be a better player? How can I help his growth as a person? How can I help him spiritually?" I love spending time with young guys and young coaches. I believe he saw a benefit to that to his staff. We talked a little more, and about two weeks ago he brought me in for an interview and I visited with some of the other staff members. I felt very comfortable."

Q. You mentored over 20 NBA players, including Dirk Nowitzki, Steve Nash and Karl Malone. What was that experience like?

■ "I was really blessed. At Louisiana Tech, the second year I was there we got this big kid named Karl Malone. He wasn't eligible, so somebody had to work him out and be with him, and at that time I was 24 and still playing a lot. I put together an independent team and we played every weekend in the fall. Karl was on my team. We went to little gyms all over Louisiana, and there'd be a thousand people there on Saturday nights to watch us play. We only lost one game to the Grambling football team with Doug Williams the quarterback and some great players.

"Don Nelson was with the Mavericks, and it was the lockout in 1999-2000. He asked me, "Why don't you be our player development guy? We just drafted a young kid from Germany, and he needs an older guy. I don't want a young guy with him." I prayed about it and talked to my wife and left my job at semester break. I dreamed of being in the NBA. I spent hours and hours with Dirk that first year. As much as I was in the gym, Steve Nash was right there with me. I spent a lot of hours with him. I could tell he was going to take off. The next year Dirk blossomed."

Q. How did you land a position with Scott Drew at Baylor?

■ "A friend of mine knew Scott Drew and brought me in. He said, "I want you to be my special assistant and be around some of my young guys. It'd be a great opportunity." He loved the game, loved kids, and had great faith in the good Lord. It was a great seven years. We won the NCAA Championship and were in the NCAA Tournament every year but the first. Last year, I went to Denver. My two daughters live there, and I hadn't been around them in 25 years, and it was a good opportunity for me to get around them. One of them is getting married in December. It was great. But when Jerome (Tang) approached me about K-State, I thought, "This is awesome." I'm really, really excited to be here. I know the Big 12 really well after being at Baylor for seven years. I've been blessed to coach a lot of really good players and teach a lot of guys."

Q. What are some of the challenges facing coaches today?

■ "Obviously, now you're paying the players. That's a little different. I told Jerome when I talked with him, when I was in the NBA with Scott Skiles, he'd always call me in there in the offseason and say, "Bill, players want two things: they want to play more, and they want to make more money," because that's their life for a short period of time. Most guys don't play more than two or three years in the NBA and that's it. So, they have a great opportunity to make money, and a lot of it, but they have to get better. He always said, "If you can get them better and help get them more money, they're probably going to listen to you." Now that philosophy has filtered down to college.

"The one thing eventually – and hopefully will get changed – is that there will be some type of buyout. It's the only sport in the world where at the end of the season everybody is a free agent. It doesn't work like that in pro basketball or pro football. Now that people are getting paid there has to be some type of contract that says, "These are the parameters, and this is what we're doing." If you did it like that in the NBA, the NBA would be a mess. People would be leaving all the time. You want to have more continuity to it. Eventually, they'll figure it out and figure out a way to do it like that. It has changed that way, but you're still leading kids, too, and you teach them and listen to them and help them get better. I'm excited for that opportunity here."

MARCO BORNE

CHIEF OF STAFF

Fourth Season at K-State // Dillard [La.] University '03

@CoachBorne / coachmarcoemaw

Hall of Fame head coach Marco Borne is in his fourth season at Kansas State in 2024-25 after being selected as the program's Chief of Staff on March 29, 2022, by head coach Jerome Tang.

Borne has been part of a coaching staff that has helped reenergize a K-State program in the past 3 seasons, leading the Wildcats to 61 wins, including 28 in Big 12 play, with back-to-back postseason appearances highlighted by the run to the 2023 Elite Eight. During their memorable first season in 2022-23, he helped the Wildcats to their third-highest win total (26), which were the most since a program-record 29 in 2009-10.

Among the 61 wins at K-State are 16 against Top 25 teams, including 7 Top 10 opponents. The 16 Top 25 wins tie for the fourth-most in school history, while the 7 against Top 10 competition also ranks fourth all-time. Thirteen of the 16 ranked wins have come in the friendly confines of Bramlage Coliseum, where Tang is 39-9 (.813) overall.

Borne assisted in the development of a pair of All-Americans in 2023 Bob Cousy Award winner Markquis Nowell and forward Keyontae Johnson, who became the first duo in school history to each earn the recognition from The Associated Press when they were selected to the Third Team. In addition, Borne has helped develop four more All-Big 12 performers in Third Team selection Coleman Hawkins (2024-25) and honorable mention picks Arthur Kaluma (2023-24), David N'Guessan (2024-25) and Tylor Perry (2023-24).

Borne, along with the rest of the staff, have capitalized on the program's excitement by helping attract some of the top transfer classes in the country. Johnson, Kaluma, Perry, Hawkins and N'Guessan were all high-level transfer portal additions the last 3 seasons, which the staff continued this off-season with the additions of five Division I transfers, a trio of international standouts, a junior college player and a top-100 high school player.

Borne has 23 years of coaching experience, including 14 as a head coach at both the high school and NAIA levels. He has served as the head coach at three different NAIA programs, including his alma mater Dillard University (2000-04), Southern University-New Orleans (2006-07) and Paul Quinn College (2009-11), in addition to a seven-year stint (2011-18) at Roosevelt High School in Dallas. He also has international coaching experience, as the head coach of the Haitian Junior National Team as well as an assistant coach for the Haitian Senior National Team from 2017-20.

Borne has helped lead six different programs to historical record-breaking seasons in his coaching career, including a Louisiana high school state championship while coaching future NBA player Greg Monroe as an assistant coach at Cox High School in 2008. In addition to his ties in the Texas and Louisiana prep ranks, he has coached extensively in the international ranks, including in Haiti, Poland, Puerto Rico, Barbados and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

A native of New Orleans, Borne came to K-State after spending the 2021-22 season as the associate head coach at Alcorn State, where he helped the Braves to a record-breaking season, in which, a team picked seventh in the preseason won the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) regular-season title and advanced to the NIT. It was the school's first conference championship in 20 years, and it was the first postseason appearance in 35 seasons.

Head Coaching Experience

Borne spent two seasons (2009-11) as head coach at Paul Quinn College, an NAIA program in Dallas, guiding the school to a 21-11 record and earning Red River Conference Coach of the Year honors in 2010-11. The team advanced to the semifinals of the Red River Conference Tournament, which was the best finish in school history. He guided the school from a 2-win program prior to his arrival to his 21-win campaign in year two.

Borne served as interim head coach at Southern University-New Orleans in 2006-07 during the aftermath of Hurricane Katarina. Despite a 6-man roster and no home gym, he helped guide the team to a fourth-place conference finish and a NAIA national ranking as high as No. 12.

Borne was the head coach at his alma mater Dillard University in New Orleans from 2000-04. A member of the school's Hall of Fame, he became the first coach in program history to qualify for the NAIA National Tournament in three straight seasons. He guided the Bleu Devils to both the Gulf Coast Athletic Conference (GCAC) regular season and tournament titles in 2001, earning conference and Louisiana Small College Coach of the Year honors.

High School Coaching Career

Borne was a high school coach at Roosevelt High School in Dallas for seven years (2011-18), helping transform a program from a 1-win season into one of the top programs in the state of Texas with the Dallas Morning News recognizing it as the best turnaround in the Dallas-Fort Worth area. He also spent time an assistant coach at both Cox High School (2007-09) in Harvey, La., where he coached Greg Monroe, as well as West Jefferson High School in New Orleans.

Borne earned a bachelor's degree in education from Dillard University in 2003, while he added a master's degree in human performance and health promotion from the University of New Orleans in 2006. He has a wife, Genean.

"I'm Blessed I'm Still Here"

The white Ford Explorer flipped five and a half times down Interstate-10 between Hattiesburg and New Orleans. Had it flipped six times it would've been hit by an 18-wheeler barreling down in the opposite direction.

by D. Scott Fritchen, K-State Sports Extra

Doctors said that the coach in the passenger seat would've lived had he been wearing a seatbelt. Instead, he flew out of the passenger side window. Doctors said that Marco Borne, the driver of the vehicle, would've died had he been wearing his seatbelt. Instead, the steering wheel, which would've crushed Borne's insides, mashed his legs before he flew into the backseat. It was February 14, 1998. A holiday reserved for love could forever mark a dark day, the darkest of days — a day that one life ended, and another one changed forever.

Instead, Borne, who had his right leg amputated right below the knee, chooses to celebrate his blessings.

"When I first got back on my feet, I used to take that drive on February 14 just to pass the spot and reminisce," Borne says. "I'd think about the coach who didn't make it. I haven't been that way in a while, but I'm almost sure if I drove it, I could find the exact spot where the accident happened. I used to take that ride and remember the blessing of what happened."

Cause of the accident: A tire blowout.

"I was told I'd never walk again," he says. "Then I was told I might stand but would be paralyzed on my right side. Then I was told I might lose my left leg and keep my right leg. Then I found out they were going to amputate right leg below the knee."

Ten months in the hospital. Then back-and-forth trips to the hospital over the next few months. A year and a half recovery in all. Then, once everything stabilized, came the leg amputation.

"One thing about me, I stay positive about everything," Borne says. "The coach who was with me didn't make it. Who am I to complain? All I did was lose my leg. I was sad that he didn't make it. He had a newborn baby. His family lost a loved one due to a freak accident.

"There's never been a day where I've been like, 'Why?' I always say, 'Man, I'm blessed I'm still here.'"

Borne serves on the K-State men's basketball team as assistant coach and chief of staff — a position he's held since he joined head coach Jerome Tang on staff in April 2022. It's been quite the impressive climb by Borne, who brought 21 years of coaching experience, including 14 as head coach at both the high school and NAIA levels, to Manhattan.

He is in the Hall of Fame of his alma mater, Dillard University (2000-04), in which he became the first coach in program history to qualify for the NAIA National Tournament in three consecutive seasons. He served as assistant coach at West Jefferson High School in New Orleans (2005-06) and interim head coach at Southern University-New Orleans (2006-07) during the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. He bounced around, collecting titles and helping six different programs to historical record-breaking seasons in his career. He even served as head coach of the Haitian Junior National Team, guiding the under-16 squad to a second-place finish at the FIBA Centrobasket Championship in Hermosillo, Mexico in 2019. He also assisted with the Haitian National Team as they attempted to qualify for the Tokyo Olympics.

"The proudest part of my career is having a 100 percent college graduation rate as a head coach, especially on the level of which I coached," he says. "All the guys who played at least two years of high school ball went onto college for free. Those are my two proudest things."

And now after spending the 2021-22 season as the associate head coach at Alcorn State, where he helped the program to its first conference championship in 20 years and its first postseason appearance in 35 seasons, he's spent two years here in the Little Apple as assistant coach and chief of staff.

"Basically, the duties of chief of staff range from just being available to doing whatever is needed to ensure the program is running smoothly," he says. "I do my best to keep things off Coach Tang's plate so he can focus. I'm a liaison for academics and compliance and with the community. I help set up recruiting visits and ensure we have everything in order with travel — everything.

"As far as being an assistant coach, being on the court is something I've always done. I appreciate the opportunity. Coming here I already knew the deal and told Coach Tang whatever he needs, I just want him to be successful."

Borne in his own right has become a recognizable face among the K-State family in Manhattan.

"I was in Dillons and somebody paid for my groceries," he says. "There are just kind-hearted people. The good thing is you don't have to pretend to be anybody else, I can just be myself and they accept me, and love me for who I am. You just try to return that love with hard work and passion."

Borne's passion began early in life. A native of New Orleans, he immersed himself in athletics. He played 17-year-old summer basketball and was on a trip and the coach quit on the 15-year-old team. Borne moved over and coached the 15-year-olds. Then he coached the team the remainder of the summer.

"That's when I started thinking this is what I want to do," he says. "My grandmother was an educator, and she was happy because I wanted to go into education. With the education came coaching. That's when I started thinking about it."

He was introduced to basketball head coach Jerry Loyd while attending Dillard University.

"Five miles from my house, I played at Dillard, got blessed my last year to play under Jerry Loyd, and he basically introduced me to coaching," Borne says. "I went to school for five years and he allowed me to be a student assistant my fifth year. That was a true example that when you think something bad is happening really it's God opening another door. I was supposed to graduate college and I didn't. I was frustrated, mad, had to go back to school for another year, and that allowed — I don't even know if I am who I am today if I didn't spend that extra year with Coach Loyd, learning the ins and outs, and being able to establish my foundation for being a coach."

He's carried a philosophy with him throughout his career, which he refers to as "The Three D's" — discipline, dedication and determination.

"When you're disciplined, you're going to do all the things to be successful," he says. "If you're determined, you're not going to allow anything to stop you from achieving what you want to achieve. If you're dedicated to the task, you're going to do everything you need to do. Basically, (the philosophy) comes from my 8-year-old AAU basketball coach. The things that he taught me are the things that my grandmother taught me, which led me to the coaching profession.

"The things that he poured into me are things that I wanted to pour into other people. Those are things that you can take onto the basketball court and into life."

Borne continues to make the most of every day, pouring into players, and helping Tang and a men's basketball program that he loves. It's been 26 years since his life changed forever.

In helping others, he helps himself.

"I've never looked at it like, 'Man, I can't believe this.' I look at it like, 'You have to make the most of this situation,'" Borne says, reflecting on the car accident.

"There's a reason God kept me here."

AUSTIN CARPENTER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Fourth Season at K-State // Oklahoma '20

@AustinCarps austincarps_

Austin Carpenter is in his fourth season at Kansas State as the program's Director of Player Development in 2025-26 after joining head coach Jerome Tang's staff on April 8, 2022.

Carpenter has been part of a coaching staff that has helped reenergize a K-State program in the past 3 seasons, leading the Wildcats to 61 wins, including 28 in Big 12 play, with consecutive postseason appearances (2023 NCAA Tournament, 2024 NIT) highlighted by the run to the 2023 Elite Eight. Among the 61 wins the past 3 seasons are 16 against teams ranked in the Top 25, including 7 Top 10 opponents.

Carpenter assisted in the development of a pair of All-Americans in 2023 Bob Cousy Award winner Markquis Nowell and forward Keyontae Johnson, who became the first duo in school history to each earn the recognition from The Associated Press when they were selected to the Third Team. Both players were named to the All-Big 12 First Team, while Johnson was the league's Newcomer of the Year.

In addition to his work with Johnson and Nowell, Carpenter has helped develop four more All-Big 12 performers in Third Team selection Coleman Hawkins (2024-25) and honorable mention picks Arthur Kaluma (2023-24), David N'Guessan (2024-25) and Tylor Perry (2023-24). This past season, Hawkins was one of the top all-around players in the country, as he was the only Division I player to average at least 10 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4.0 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocks per game. N'Guessan, who ranked fifth nationally with a Big 12-leading 64.4 field goal percentage, set the school single-season and career (63.6) field goal percentage records in concluding his career.

Carpenter, along with the rest of the staff, have capitalized on the program's excitement by helping attract some of the top transfer classes in the country. All-conference selections Hawkins, Kaluma, N'Guessan and Perry were all high-level transfer portal success stories in the last 3 seasons. He has also helped continue that momentum this off-season with the additions of five Division I transfers (Abdi Bashir Jr., P.J. Haggerty, Marcus Johnson, Nate Johnson, Khamari McGriff), a trio of international standouts (Dorin Buca, Andrej Kostic and Elias Rapieque), a junior college player (Stephen Osei) and a top-100 high school senior (Exavier Wilson).

Carpenter came to K-State in April 2022 after spending two seasons (2020-22) working as a graduate assistant at Baylor, where he worked alongside Tang. He was a part of the greatest two-year stint in the school's history, as the Bears won their first National Championship in 2021, along with back-to-back Big 12 titles in 2021 and 2022.

Prior to his time at Baylor, Carpenter also worked in recruiting operations as an undergraduate at Oklahoma for the powerhouse football and golf programs from 2018-20.

During his time in Waco, Carpenter spent considerable time with Tang working on opposing team scouting reports. The Bears led the Big 12 in scoring margin, steals, turnover margin and assist/turnover ratio in both 2020-21 and 2021-22, while finishing in the top-4 in scoring defense each season.

Carpenter helped Baylor navigate a successful 2021-22 season, as the Bears won 27 games and tied for the Big 12 regular-season title despite numerous injuries to key players. The team lost in heartbreaking fashion to eventual national runner-up North Carolina in the second round of the NCAA Tournament, as they rallied from 25 points down with 10 minutes remaining before losing 93-86 in overtime. The squad ran their winning streak to 21 games, including 15 consecutive wins to start the year, spending five weeks at No. 1 before finishing No. 8 in the final USA Today Coaches poll. Three Bears earned All-Big 12 honors, while senior Jonathan Tchamwa Tchatchoua (Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year) and freshman Jeremy Sochan (Sixth Man Award) earned individual awards.

In Carpenter's first season in Waco, Baylor lost just twice during its historic national championship season in 2020-21, posting a 28-2 record and a 14-1 mark in Big 12 play. The Bears enjoyed the program's best start with an 18-game winning streak en route to collecting the school's first conference title in 71 years and cumulating with an 86-70 win over No. 1 ranked Gonzaga in the national championship. A school-record three Bears earned All-America honors, including Jared Butler becoming the first consensus First Team selection. Davion Mitchell and MaCio Teague were Third Team All-Americans, while Mitchell swept every National Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Carpenter was a recruiting strategist for the Oklahoma men's golf program and two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year Ryan Hybl from January to August 2020. During the COVID-19 shortened season, the Sooners were among the best teams in the country, climbing to No. 1 in the GCAA and Golfweek polls and finishing the year ranked No. 2 nationally. Carpenter spent time creating a comprehensive recruiting strategy for the program, which included creating graphics and video content for social media as well as alumni engagement.

Carpenter spent two years (2018-20) as an undergraduate at Oklahoma working in the football recruiting operation, first serving as a game day assistant (Fall 2018) before becoming a student recruiting assistant from January 2019 to August 2020 under former Assistant AD of Recruiting Strategy Annie Hanson. He was a part of consecutive Top 10 signing classes in both 2019 and 2020.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Carpenter earned a bachelor's degree from Oklahoma in 2020 in Sports Management and Supply Chain Management, while he added a master's degree in Sports Pedagogy from Baylor in May 2022. He and his wife, Mallory, have a daughter Mary Blake.

CHASE DRISCOLL

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO AND ANALYTICS

First Season at K-State // North Florida '18, Oral Roberts '20

@CoachDrip / driscoll_chase

One of the newest members of the coaching staff, Chase Driscoll is in his first season as the Director of Video and Analytics at Kansas State after being hired by head coach Jerome Tang on May 13, 2025.

Driscoll arrives at K-State after a four-year stint (2021-25) at his alma mater North Florida, where he served as an assistant coach and director of operations for his father, Matthew Driscoll, who is both the UNF and Atlantic Sun Conference (ASUN) all-time winningest coach with 248 career victories.

His father, Matthew, who became K-State's associate head coach on May 25, 2025, coached alongside Tang for six seasons (2003-09) at Baylor as an original member of Scott Drew's staff prior to becoming head coach at UNF.

"I'm fired up to bring Chase Driscoll on board as our new video coordinator," said Tang. "His eye for detail, passion for the game, and work ethic make him a huge asset to our program. I can't wait to see the impact he'll have on our preparation, player development, and overall success."

The younger Driscoll helped lead the Ospreys to 56 wins, including 33 in ASUN play, the last four seasons (2021-25) with a 16-16 record in 2023-24 and a 15-17 record in 2024-25. The team won at least 7 league games each season, including a 9-9 record in 2022-23, and made the ASUN Tournament each year. This past season, the Ospreys made national noise with road victories at South Carolina and Georgia Tech, while sweeping the River City Rumble.

While at UNF, Driscoll assisted in the development of four all-conference selections in Carter Hendrickson, Jose Placer, Chaz Lanier and Jasai Miles as well as two of ASUN All-Freshmen picks in Jaylen Smith and Josh Harris.

Hendricksen scored more than 1,600 career points in his Osprey career en route to earning All-ASUN honors three times. Placer averaged more than 14 points per game in three seasons before transferring to South Florida in 2023-24. Lanier was a First Team All-ASUN pick in 2023-24 before becoming a Third Team All-American, the Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year Award winner and the SEC Newcomer of the Year in his lone season at Tennessee in 2024-25. Miles started all 32 games for Ospreys in 2024-25, averaging a team-best 15.4 points on 42.5 percent shooting with 6.8 rebounds and 1.9 assists in 31.4 minutes per game.

Smith became the eighth Osprey to be honored as an ASUN All-Freshman pick, as he was thrust into the starting lineup in the second conference game before leading the team in assists in 10 games. Harris was one of two freshmen to earn unanimous all-freshmen honors in 2024-25, pacing all ASUN rookies in scoring (13.4 ppg.), rebounding (7.1 rpg.) and field goal percentage (55.7) while starting 30 games.

"I'm incredibly honored to join the Kansas State men's basketball program and grateful to Coach Tang for the chance to be a part of his winning culture built on hard work and accountability," said Driscoll. "I'm excited for the opportunity to live life with the staff and the people of Manhattan. I am looking forward to helping our team prepare, compete, and win at the highest level. Ready to get to work!"

Driscoll returned to his alma mater in 2021 after a one-year stint (2020-21) as an assistant and developmental head coach at Webber International, an NAIA program based in Babson Park, Fla., for interim head coach Gabriel Rutledge. Dealing with the aftermath of the COVID-19 season, he helped coach a pair of Second Team All-Sun Conference selections in Rasheem Etienne and Jaylon Myles.

Driscoll began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at Oral Roberts during the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons for current Wichita State head coach Paul Mills. He helped lay the foundation for a Golden Eagles team that advanced to the Sweet 16 in 2021, as the squad went from 11 wins in Driscoll's first season in 2018-19 to 17 and a berth in the CollegeInsider.com Postseason Tournament (CIT) in year two in 2019-20.

Driscoll has helped develop nine all-conference players during his young coaching career, including Emmanuel Nzekwesi, Kevin Obanor and Deondre Burns at ORU, Rasheem Etienne and Jaylon Myles at Webber International and Carter Hendricksen, Jose Placer, Chaz Lanier and Jasai Miles at UNF. In addition, Nzekwesi (2016-17) and Obanor (2018-19) were both Summit League Rookies of the Year with the Golden Eagles.

Driscoll was part of 74 wins and a pair of Atlantic Sun Conference (ASUN) regular-season championships (2015, 2016) during his four-year playing career (2014-18) at UNF. He was part of back-to-back 20-win seasons in 2014-15 and 2015-16 as well as the 2015 NCAA Tournament and the 2016 NIT.

Prior to his playing career at UNF, Driscoll was a standout at Bishop Kenny High School in Jacksonville, Fla., where he helped the Crusaders to back-to-back district titles in 2013 and 2014 and a State Final Four appearance during his junior season in 2013.

Driscoll earned his bachelor's degree in Athletic and Education Leadership from North Florida in 2018 before obtaining a Master's in Science, Sports and Leisure Administration from Oral Roberts in 2020.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Driscoll and his wife, Grace, have a son Baylor.

PHIL BAIER

Pronounced
BAY-err

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Fourth Season at K-State // Springfield [Mass.] College '13

@CoachPhil_KSU / coachphil_kstate

Phil Baier is in his fourth season at Kansas State as the program's Director of Strength and Conditioning in 2025-26 after joining head coach Jerome Tang's staff on April 21, 2022.

Baier has been part of a coaching staff that has helped reenergize a K-State program in the past 3 seasons, leading the Wildcats to 61 wins, including 28 in Big 12 play, with back-to-back postseason appearances highlighted by the run to the 2023 Elite Eight. Among the 61 wins are 16 against Top 25 teams, including 7 Top 10 opponents. During the memorable first season in 2022-23, he continued his recent run of developing and Elite Eight team, helping the Wildcats defy preseason expectations to win 26 games and advance to within one game of the Final Four.

Baier was recently selected to the ROOTS 66 list of the most impactful up-and-coming coaches, administrators, power brokers and visionaries in college basketball. He was one of only 3 strength coaches on the list, which included several Division I athletic directors, head coach and assistant coaches and grassroots leaders.

En route to the Elite Eight run, Baier assisted in the development of a pair of All-Americans in 2023 Bob Cousy Award winner Markquis Nowell and forward Keyontae Johnson, who became the first duo in school history to each earn the recognition from The Associated Press when they were selected to the Third Team. Both players were named to the All-Big 12 First Team, while Johnson was the league's Newcomer of the Year. In addition, he has helped train four more All-Big 12 performers in Third Team selection Coleman Hawkins (2024-25) and honorable mention picks Arthur Kaluma (2023-24), David N'Guessan (2024-25) and Tylor Perry (2023-24).

Baier has 12 years of experience working specifically with men's basketball teams, including full-time stints at Arkansas State (2015-17), North Texas (2017-19), Miami (2019-22) and now K-State. He has been a part of five 20-win seasons, two runs to the Elite Eight (2022, 2023) and a CBI Championship in 2018.

Baier came to K-State in April 2022 following a three-year stint working as the strength coach for head coach Jim Larrañaga at Miami (Fla.), where he helped in the development of a Hurricane program that advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in 2021-22 while posting the fourth-highest win total (26) in program history.

In 2021-22, three Hurricanes earned All-ACC honors, including senior guard Kameron McGusty becoming just the third First Team selection in school history and the first since 2013. Sophomore guard Isaiah Wong earned Third Team recognition for the second straight season in 2021-22, while senior guard Charlie Moore was selected both Honorable Mention All-ACC as well as to the All-Defensive Team. All told, four Hurricane players combined to earn five All-ACC accolades during Baier's time in Coral Gables.

Baier joined the Miami staff after a two-year stint (2017-19) at North Texas, where he worked with the Mean Green men's basketball and women's volleyball teams. Each program enjoyed tremendous success under Baier's guidance, as the men's basketball team reached the 20-win mark in both seasons, collecting 41 total victories and the 2018 CBI Championship, while the volleyball team won 48 matches, including a 29-4 campaign in 2017 that feature a Conference USA regular-season title.

Baier joined the staff at Arkansas State in 2015, spending two seasons (2015-17) working with the Red Wolves' men's basketball, men's and women's track and field, cheerleading and dance squads, along with assisting with the football team. He helped develop teams that won three Sun Belt titles, including a pair in football (2015, 2016) and one in men's outdoor track and field (2016), while the men's basketball team made the second-best turnaround in Division I in 2016-17 with a 10-win improvement to post the school's first 20-win season since 1997-98.

It was at ASU where Baier met current K-State assistant coach Jareem Dowling in 2016 then moved with him to North Texas to be a part of head coach Grant McCasland's coaching staff in 2017-18 and 2018-19.

Baier broke into the strength and conditioning business as a graduate assistant at SE Missouri State from 2013-15, working with the Redhawk men's and women's basketball and women's tennis teams. He also assisted with the strength and conditioning activities with the football team.

Prior to becoming a graduate assistant at SEMO, Baier served strength and conditioning internships at Harvard (Summer 2012 and USC (Spring 2013) in between his final season playing football at Springfield College. He worked with eight different sports at Harvard, including men's basketball, football and men's ice hockey, while he spent time with 10 teams at USC, including primarily with women's crew.

A native of Braintree, Mass., Baier was a four-year letterman (2009-13) as a wide receiver for Division III Springfield College, where he earned All-Liberty League honors in 2012 after posting 12 catches for 262 yards and team-leading 5 touchdowns. He had 728 receiving yards on 32 catches with 9 touchdowns in his final two seasons. He earned a bachelor's degree in Applied Exercise Sciences with a minor in coaching from the school in 2013.

Baier is working on a master's degree in Higher Education Administration from SE Missouri State. He also holds certifications from the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, Poliquin International and the American Red Cross. He and his wife, Jenna, have two dogs, Atlas and Ross.

GENE TAYLOR

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Ninth Season at K-State // Arizona State '80 | St. Thomas '85

@KStateADGT

The last three years could go down as one of the most successful periods in the history of K-State Athletics as Gene Taylor's program has taken the college athletics world by storm. Team and individual championships, postseason runs, record crowds, continued academic success and new facility enhancements have all been the cornerstone of recent Wildcat success.

This past year, Chris Klieman's football team won nine games and were Rate Bowl champions, the women's basketball team garnered another Top 10 ranking and trip to the Sweet 16 under Jeff Mittie, while Pete Hughes and the baseball squad advanced to its second straight NCAA Regional. On the golf course, Stew Burke's women's squad advanced to the NCAA Championships for the first time in school history and were led by All-American Carla Bernat, who also won the prestigious Augusta National Women's Amateur title, and Big 12 individual champion Sophie Bert. Two new coaches began leading their respective programs in 2024-25 as Travis Geopfert took over the track and field/cross country program and Colleen Corbin in women's soccer.

The 2023-24 campaign was highlighted by a Super Regional berth for baseball, just the second time in program history that the Wildcats have won a regional and advanced to the supers, a Pop Tarts Bowl win for the football team and a women's basketball season that saw the Wildcats rise to as high as No. 3 in the national rankings before hosting the 2024 NCAA First and Second rounds in Manhattan. Jason Mansfield's first season leading the volleyball program included record crowds in the new Morgan Family Arena and numerous Top 10 wins.

That all came on the heels of Klieman's team winning the 2022 Big 12 Championship and playing in the Allstate Sugar Bowl, and Big 12 Coach of the Year Jerome Tang and his men's basketball team making a remarkable run to the Elite Eight following a preseason poll that picked the Wildcats to finish last in the league. Both coaches were hired at K-State by Taylor, who was also named the 2022-23 Cushman & Wakefield FBS AD of the Year.

A former member of the College Football Playoff Selection Committee and current member of the LEAD1 Board of Directors, Taylor was named the Director of Athletics at K-State in April 2017. During his tenure K-State has seen the football program qualify for six bowls and win the 2022 Big 12 Championship, the men's basketball team win a Big 12 Championship, earn an Elite 8 appearance and advance to two NCAA tournaments, the baseball team win the Fayetteville Regional and the women's track and field team win back-to-back Big 12 Outdoor championships.

Additionally, Taylor and his staff have fundraised and implemented a department-wide facility master plan that benefits all Wildcat teams including the newly completed Indoor Track and Field Complex, the Morgan Family Arena for volleyball, Morris Family Olympic Training Center and the Shamrock Practice Facility for football.

Taylor, who was named the eighth-best Athletic Director among FBS programs by Stadium in 2020, has implemented a strategic plan for the department which places an emphasis on the student-athlete experience, while his leadership in navigating the COVID-19 crisis, in addition to enhancing the department's already-strong diversity and inclusion program, has been well documented.

With the support of fans and donors, K-State Athletics has also continued to be financially self-sufficient and does not receive support from the university. In FY 2019, a year earlier than anticipated, the program ended the practice of receiving student privilege fees in support of the program. This move makes Taylor's program one of eight across the country to operate with no direct or indirect university and student funding or state support.

K-State Nation continues to support the athletics program in unprecedented fashion as overall pledges and cash gifts to the department during the 2024 fiscal year totaled $36.9 million, of which $26.1 million was designated for the Ahearn Fund annual giving program. Included in the $26.1 million in annual giving was a department record $1.1 million raised during the Powercat Auction.

Hiring and retaining top coaches is also a critical function of the program. Taylor hired Klieman to replace hall of fame coach Bill Snyder after winning four national titles in five seasons at North Dakota State, and in year four led the Wildcats to a Big 12 Championship. Taylor also hired Tang to lead the men's basketball program, Jordan Smith to take over the tennis program and Hughes in baseball, who took the Wildcats to just their second Super Regional in school history. Mansfield had a banner first year on the volleyball court as record crowds saw his squad knock off three Top 10 opponents at home. Burke, in his first season in 2023-24, catapulted the women's golf program up the national ranks and narrowly missed on qualifying as a team for the NCAA Tournament in year one.

Graduating student-athletes remains the department's top priority and academic success has continued under Taylor as K-State continues to rank among the top schools in the Big 12 in APR and graduation success rate.

Taylor is a 1980 business management graduate of Arizona State, and he received his master's degree in sports administration in 1985 from St. Thomas University in Florida. He worked in the ticket office at Southern Methodist University in 1985-86 before joining the Naval Academy. His tenure at Navy included serving as the commissioner of the five-team Collegiate Sprint Football League that includes Army, Navy, Penn, Princeton and Cornell. He served 13 years as Athletics Director at North Dakota State before being named Deputy AD at Iowa in 2014.

Taylor and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter, Casey, and a son, Jared.

ROLLER COASTER

Jerome Tang's third season marked by the highs and lows of 6-game losing and winning streaks in Big 12 play

Overview

▶ During a roller coaster of a season that included a 6-game losing streak followed by a 6-game winning streak, K-State could not overcome a up-and-down non-conference season, as the Wildcats finished with a 16-17 overall record, including a tie for ninth place with TCU in the new-look 16-team Big 12 with a 9-11 mark. Among the 16 wins were 10 over teams that advanced to the postseason (3 NCAA Tournament, 1 NIT and 6 College Basketball Crown), including ranked wins over No. 3/3 Iowa State, No. 16/17 Cincinnati, No. 16/17 Kansas and No. 23/23 West Virginia.

▶ K-State won six of its first eight games before losing its last three non-conference games (at St. John's, Drake and Wichita State) to enter Big 12 play with a 6-5 record. After a 70-67 win over No. 16/17 Cincinnati in the Big 12 opener, the Wildcats lost their next six league games (at TCU, at Oklahoma State, No. 12/11 Houston, Texas Tech, at No. 9/10 Kansas and at Baylor). After an impressive win over No. 23/23 West Virginia, the team rattled off five more victories, including an 80-61 win at No. 3/3 Iowa State and back-to-back home wins over No. 16/17 Kansas and No. 13/13 Arizona. However, the Wildcats couldn't keep the momentum going with four straight losses (at BYU and Utah, Arizona State and at UCF). The team won three of their last four before falling to Baylor at the Big 12 Championship.

▶ Seniors Coleman Hawkins and David N'Guessan were both lauded for their outstanding seasons, as Hawkins was named to the All-Big 12 Third Team while N'Guessan was selected to the Honorable Mention team. Hawkins was the only Division I player in the country to average at least 10 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocks per game. The Wildcats' leading scorer (13.3 ppg.) and rebounder (7.2 rpg.), N'Guessan led the Big 12 with a 64.4 field goal percentage while ranking in the league's top 20 in both scoring and rebounding.

Overtime Streak Snapped

▶ K-State saw its 12-game winning streak in overtime games end in the 73-70 loss to unbeaten Drake on Dec. 21 in the Wildcat Classic in Kansas City. In a game in which they trailed by as many as 20 points in the first half, the Wildcats seemingly tied the game at 70-all in overtime on a 3-pointer by senior Coleman Hawkins with 13 seconds left before Bennett Stirtz's 3-pointer with 4 seconds left proved to be the game-winner.

▶ K-State's 12-game overtime winning streak was the second-longest in Division I history since 1950 and the second-longest current streak behind Florida State (14; 2018-current). The loss also snapped coach Jerome Tang's 13-game personal winning streak in overtime game, which dated back to an overtime win as interim head coach at Baylor in 2013 over Texas.

Top 25 Success Under Tang

▶ Head coach Jerome Tang has enjoyed success against Top 25 teams since he came to K-State prior to the 2022-23 season, posting a 16-16 record, including a 5-3 mark in 2024-25. The win over No. 13/13 Arizona (2/11/25) was the fifth this season, which tied for the most in the Big 12.

▶ Tang is now 13-4 at home vs. AP Top 25 opponents, including 4-2 in 2024-25. His 16 career Top 25 wins tie Tex Winter (1954-68) for the fourth-most in school history. K-State's 16 Top 25 wins tie for the third-most (along with Iowa State) since 2022-23.

1750 Wins and Counting

▶ K-State's win over No. 3/3 Iowa State on Feb. 1, 2025 at Hilton Coliseum represented the 1,750th win in school history, as the Wildcats became the 43rd program in Division I history to accomplish the feat.

▶ The first Wildcat since Dean Wade in 2017-18 to lead the team in both scoring and rebounding, N'Guessan set both the school single-season (64.4 in 2024-25) and career (63.6) field goal percentage records. His 64.4 field goal percentage (179-of-278) led the Big 12 and ranked fifth nationally.

01 NEW ORLEANS

Nov. 5, 2024 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

New Orleans	32	33	—	65
K-STATE	44	45	—	89

▶ Senior David N'Guessan registered his fourth career double-double with a game-high 21 points and 15 rebounds in helping K-State to an 89-65 win over New Orleans in the season opener for both teams on Nov. 5 before 9,155 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ N'Guessan had a double-double (11 points, 11 rebounds) in the first half before earning his first career 20-point, 10-rebound performance of his college career. His 21 points were two shy of his career-high of 23 vs. Abilene Christian on Dec. 6, 2022, while his 15 boards were one short of his career-high of 16 against Iowa State in his last game at home on March 9.

▶ N'Guessan was joined in double figures by senior Max Jones (19 points) and junior Brendan Hausen (17 points), who combined for 8 of the Wildcats' 13 made 3-point field goals on the night. The 13 triples tied for the 10th-most in a game in school history and were the most since knocking down 15 against West Virginia in overtime on Feb. 26, 2024.

▶ Trailing by as many 10 points near the midway point of the first half, the K-State offense exploded for 74 of its 89 points in the last 29 minutes of action. The Wildcats ended the first half on a 29-7 run, flipping a 25-15 deficit with 10:15 to play into a 44-32 halftime advantage.

▶ Hausen (12 points) and Jones (8) combined for 20 of the team's 29 points during this pivotal run, including 5 by Jones in the last 2 seconds of the half.

▶ K-State's lead never dropped below 18 points in the second half and grew to as many as 26 after a pair of free throws by junior Dug McDaniel with 5:47 to play. McDaniel dished out a game-high 8 assists to go with 6 points and 2 steals in 23 minutes off the bench in his first career action.

▶ The Wildcats finished the night with 24 assists on 34 made field goals with just 9 turnovers, the fewest in a game since posting just 5 in the win over Michigan State in the 2022 NCAA Tournament.

▶ K-State moved to 94-27 all-time season openers, including 82-10 at home and 30-3 at Bramlage Coliseum. The Wildcats have now won 19 of their last 22 openers.

▶ New Orleans (0-1) saw three players score in double figures led by 19 from sophomore guard Jah Short. He was joined in double figures by senior James White (14 points) and junior Dae Dae Hunter (10 points).

02 CLEVELAND STATE

Nov. 9, 2024 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Cleveland State	24	40	—	64
K-STATE	36	41	—	77

▶ Junior Brendan Hausen led four Wildcats in double figures with a career-high 22 points, including 6 made 3-point field goals, as K-State earned a 77-64 win over Cleveland State on Nov. 9 before 9,928 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ Hausen followed up his 17-point effort in the season-opening win over New Orleans on Tuesday night with his first career 20-point game. He became the first Wildcat with 6 made 3-point field goals since Tylor Perry did so against Cincinnati on March 3, 2024. He is now shooting 60 percent (12-of-20) from the field, including 55.6 percent (10-of-18) from 3-point range, after 2 games.

▶ Hausen was joined in double figures by seniors Coleman Hawkins (12 points), David N'Guessan (12 points) and Max Jones (11 points). Hawkins tied a career-high with 4 blocked shots to go with 5 assists, 3 steals and 2 rebounds in 31 minutes. N'Guessan went 6-of-6 from the field.

▶ K-State (2-0) never trailed in the contest, as the Wildcats connected on 57.8 percent (26-of-45) from the field, including 52.6 percent (10-of-19) from 3-point range, with 16 assists on 26 made field goals. Thanks to Hausen's 6 triples, the team had double-digit 3-point field goals (10) for the second game in a row.

▶ The Wildcats, who led by as many as 23 points in the second half, were prevented from a larger victory by 19 turnovers, which the Vikings (1-2) converted into 21 points. The team had more turnovers in the first half (10) than they had in the entire game (9) against New Orleans.

▶ However, K-State was able to turn Cleveland State over 20 times, including 12 steals, scoring 24 points off miscues. Junior Dug McDaniel was responsible for 5 of the team's 12 steals, becoming the first Wildcat since Marquis Nowell to post 5 or more steals in a game in the 2023 NCAA Tournament.

▶ Unlike the opener against UNO, the Wildcats got off to a fast start against the Vikings thanks in part to 6 early points from Hausen in a 10-2 start. The lead grew to 16 points (36-20) in the first half after a second 3-pointer from Hausen with 1:39 left before halftime.

▶ After CSU got to within 36-26 moments into the second half, K-State blew the game open by scoring 20 of the next 29 points to take its first 20-point lead at 56-35, forcing a timeout with 11:35 remaining. Back-to-back 3-pointers by Hausen and Max Jones gave K-State a 77-57 lead with 2:11 to play before CSU closed the final score to 77-64 with the game's final 7 points.

06 LIBERTY

Nov. 24, 2024 | St. Thomas, U.S.V.I. / E.W. Blake Center

Liberty	32	35	—	67
K-STATE	29	36	—	65

▶ Junior Dug McDaniel's 3-pointer at the buzzer rimmed off, as Liberty hung on for a 67-65 win over K-State in the semifinals of the Paradise Jam on Nov. 24 before 2,225 fans at the Elridge Wilburn Blake Sports and Fitness Center.

▶ Junior Brendan Hausen led four Wildcats in double figures with 14 points, all in the second half, joining seniors Coleman Hawkins (11 points), David N'Guessan (10 points) and Achor Achor (10 points) in double digits.

▶ K-State got exactly what it wanted in the final sequence with 3 opportunities to either win or tie it after Hawkins pulled the Wildcats to within 67-65 with 42.5 seconds. Liberty was able to run it down to 14 seconds, however, Kaden Metheny's driving layup missed and McDaniel got the rebound. McDaniel raced up the court, missing a 3-pointer with 5 seconds before it was rebounded by N'Guessan. After N'Guessan's tip-in was off, McDaniel gave the Wildcats' one last chance, rebounding the miss and hoisting up a 3-pointer that rimmed out.

▶ In a game that was back and forth in the second half with both teams making big-time shots, it was the little things that proved to be difference for Liberty in victory. Each team had 13 turnovers, but it was the Flames who were best able to take advantage of those miscues, outscoring the Wildcats, 24-11, in points off turnovers. Liberty made 10 of 14 free throw attempts, including 6 in a row to end the game, after ranking 339th in the category in the NCAA at 60.2 percent. In contrast, K-State had just 5 free throw attempts, making four.

▶ K-State led by as many as 5 points (27-22) in the first half before Liberty ended the half on an 8-0 run to take a 32-29 lead. The Flames carried that momentum into the second half, running out to a 39-31 lead before the Wildcats closed to within a possession on several occasions.

▶ Behind the 3-point shooting of Hausen, K-State was able to tie it twice, first at 50-all then again at 55-all, before grabbing its only lead at 63-62 after Achor's layup with 2:31 remaining. Junior Colin Porter's second 3-pointer with 2:15 to play proved to be the game winner, which was followed by a pair of free throws from junior Owen Aquino with 50 seconds left, for a 67-63 lead.

▶ K-State connected on 45 percent (27-of-60) from the field, including 29.2 percent (7-of-24) from 3-point range, with 38 points in the paint.

▶ The tandem of Porter (17 points) and Metheny (13 points) combined for 30 points for Liberty, including 5 of the Flames' 9 3-point field goals.

07 LONGWOOD

Nov. 25, 2024 | St. Thomas, U.S.V.I. / E.W. Blake Center

Longwood	36	28	—	64
K-STATE	44	36	—	80

▶ Senior Coleman Hawkins collected his first double-double as a Wildcat with game-highs in points (19) and rebounds (10), as K-State defeated Longwood, 80-64, in the third-place game of the 25th annual Paradise Jam on Nov. 25 before 2,225 fans at the Elridge Wilburn Blake Sports and Fitness Center.

▶ Hawkins, who also tallied 5 assists, 2 steals and 2 blocks, propelled a K-State offense that set season highs for field goal percentage (58.9) and 3-point field goal percentage (55.0) in ending the Paradise Jam on a winning note. He knocked down 5 of the Wildcats' 11 made 3-point field goals while connecting on 7-of-10 from the field. It marked his seventh career double-double.

▶ Hawkins was joined in double digits by juniors Brendan Hausen (16 points) and Dug McDaniel (11 points) and senior David N'Guessan (10 points).

▶ Hawkins was named to the Paradise Jam All-Tournament Team after averaging 13.0 points, 8.0 rebounds, 3.3 assists, 2.0 steals and 1.7 blocks in 34.3 minutes in the 3-game tournament.

▶ Longwood (6-2), which has been the best program in the Big South the past 3 seasons, with 67 wins and 2 NCAA Tournament appearances, gave K-State a battle for much of the first half before Hawkins' first 3-pointer helped ignite a 22-11 run that carried the Wildcats to a 44-36 halftime advantage. The senior had 3 triples in the pivotal run.

▶ The Lancers got to within 44-39 moments into the second half but an 8-2 run capped by a dunk from N'Guessan pushed the lead to double figures and forced a timeout with 16:19 to play. The advantage grew to 62-47 after a 3-pointer from junior C.J. Jones at the first media timeout.

▶ A 6-0 run got Longwood to within 62-53 near the midway point of the second half, but a Hausen 3-pointer keyed a 16-4 K-State run that pushed the lead to its largest at 78-57 with just over 5 minutes to play. Sophomore Macaleab Rich had 8 points in the stretch as the Wildcats pounded the paint.

▶ K-State connected on a season-best 58.9 percent (33-of-56) from the field, including 55 percent (11-of-20) from 3-point range, while scoring half of its points in the paint (40). The 11 triples were the second-most this season and the third time that the Wildcats have hit on double-digit 3-pointers.

▶ Defensively, K-State held Longwood to 41.4 percent (24-of-58) shooting from the field, including just 13.3 percent (2-of-15) from 3-point range.

08 UAPB

Dec. 1, 2024 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

UAPB	33	40	—	73
K-STATE	63	57	—	120

▶ Senior Achor Achor led six Wildcats in double figures with a season-high 21 points, as K-State set the school single-game scoring record in a 120-73 win over UAPB on Dec. 1 before 7,971 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The 120 points eclipsed the previous mark of 116 set at No. 6/6 Texas on Jan. 3, 2023, while they were the most-ever at Bramlage Coliseum, surpassing the 115 scored against Delaware State in 1991 and Fresno State in 1994.

▶ The Wildcats (6-2) put on a clinic from the 3-point line, totaling 21 makes on a school-record 40 attempts from beyond the arc, falling just two triples shy of the school record of 23 set against Fresno State in 1994. Eight different players registered at least one made 3-pointer, while seven had at least 2 makes.

▶ The Wildcats connected on 61.5 percent (40-of-65) from the field, including 52.5 percent (21-of-40) from 3-point range, while they hit on 19 of 26 (73.1 percent) from the free throw line. The team had assists on 30 of their 40 field goals, including a career-high 10 from junior Dug McDaniel, who finished with his first career double-double with 18 points and 5 steals.

▶ It marked the first time K-State has totaled 40 made field goals since a win over Missouri on Jan. 3, 1998, while it topped 30 assists for the first time since 2008. The 30 assists tied for the second-most in a game and were the most since the Wildcats set the school record with 34 in 1985.

▶ K-State jumped out to an 8-0 lead less than 2 minutes into the game and led 17-3 after three straight 3-pointers before UAPB called a second timeout at the 16:03 mark. The lead topped 20 points after a 9-2 run at 39-18 then grew to 30 points at 54-24 after a 13-4 run that included two 3-pointers by Castillo.

▶ The lead stood at its largest in the first half at 63-31 after consecutive baskets by N'Guessan and Max Jones right before halftime, as the 63 points were the third-most in school history and the most since 70 vs. Fresno State in 1994.

▶ The Wildcats continued to its hot shooting in the second half, scoring 8 of the first 10 points to double up the Golden Lions at 71-35 at the 17:50 mark. The lead topped 40 points at 79-39 after a 3-pointer from Achor with 15:39 left.

▶ A 3-pointer from Hausen gave K-State its first 100-point game since 2023 with 5:23 left before a 3-pointer from sophomore Taj Manning set the school scoring record at 117 points with 1:57 remaining. A 21st and final 3-pointer, this time by McDaniel, provided the final points at 120 with 1:03 remaining.

09 AT ST. JOHN'S

Dec. 7, 2024 | Queens, N.Y. / Carnesecca Arena

[rv/rv] St. John's	35	53	—	88
K-STATE	39	32	—	71

▶ An 18-5 run to open the second half helped St. John's seize the momentum en route to an 88-71 win over K-State in the sixth and final Big 12/BIG EAST Battle on Dec. 7 before a sold-out crowd of 5,602 fans at Carnesecca Arena.

▶ Junior Brendan Hausen led three Wildcats in double figures with a career-high 27 points, while seniors David N'Guessan and Coleman Hawkins added 15 and 11 points, respectively. Hawkins narrowly missed a double-double with a team-high 9 rebounds to go with a game-best 4 steals.

▶ K-State led by as many as 10 points in the first half, in which, the Wildcats got 21 points from Hausen, including 6 made 3-pointers. The 21 first-half points tied for the sixth-most in a first half in school history, as the junior became the 21st player to have 20 or more points in an opening half.

▶ The momentum swung to the side of St. John's (7-2) after halftime. After a basket by Hawkins pushed the lead to 41-35 to open the second half, the home team scored 18 of the next 21 points to go ahead 53-44 and force a timeout by head coach Jerome Tang at the 15:13 mark.

▶ The Wildcats got to within 12 points twice down the stretch, including 76-64 after a pair of free throws by junior Dug McDaniel with 4:02 remaining, but that would be the closest they would get. The Red Storm answered with an old-fashioned 3-point play, as they surged ahead by as many as 19 points in the waning minutes to cap an impressive second-half performance.

▶ Junior Zuby Ejiofor scored 17 of his game-high 28 points in the second half, as St. John's tallied 53 points after halftime on 52.8 percent (19-of-36) shooting.

▶ For the game, the Wildcats connected on a season-low 35.2 percent (25-of-71) from the field, including 32 percent (8-of-25) from 3-point range, while making 13-of-20 attempts from the line.

▶ Hausen scored his career-high 27 points on 9-of-17 field goals, including 6-of-10 from 3-point range, and 3-of-4 free throws. N'Guessan, who has now scored in double figures in 10 consecutive games, scored his 15 points on 6-of-10 shooting with 7 rebounds and 2 blocks. Hawkins had 11 points to go with team-highs in both rebounds (9) and steals (4).

▶ In pregame, St. John's honored its legendary head coach Lou Carnesecca, who passed away at 99. Both coaches wore sweaters to commemorate the affable Carnesecca, who never had a losing season in 24 seasons.

10 DRAKE

Dec. 17, 2024 | Kansas City, Mo. / T-Mobile Center

Drake	36	27	10	—	73
K-STATE	27	36	7	—	70

▶ Junior Bennett Stirtz's 3-pointer with 4 seconds remaining in overtime spoiled K-State's spirited comeback, as Drake remained unbeaten with a 73-70 overtime win in the 13th Wildcat Classic on Dec. 17 at the T-Mobile Center.

▶ Down by as many as 20 points in the first half, K-State (6-4) rallied to take the lead with 9:04 remaining on a layup by senior David N'Guessan. The Wildcats led 60-57 with 4:32 to play before the Bulldogs (10-0) tied it at 63-all with 23 seconds remaining to force overtime.

▶ In the extra session, Drake jumped out to a 70-64 lead with 2 minutes left before K-State rallied to tie it at 70-all on a 3-pointer by senior Coleman Hawkins with 13 seconds. However, on the ensuing possession, Stirtz knocked down the game-winning 3-pointer with 4 seconds to play before senior Max Jones' desperation 3-pointer was off the mark at the buzzer.

▶ The loss was the first in overtime in Jerome Tang's coaching career (13-1), including his first at K-State (12-1). He was a perfect 13-0 in his head coaching career prior to the extra-session loss, which included one overtime win as interim coach at Baylor in 2013 to go with 12 while at K-State (2022-present).

▶ Hawkins was one of four Wildcats to score in double figures with a team-high 16 points on 6-of-9 field goals to go with 5 rebounds and team-highs in assists (5), steals (4) and blocks (2). He has now registered at least 4 assists and 2 steals in 7 of 10 games this season, while he has grabbed 5 or more rebounds on 7 occasions and has had 4 games of at least 2 blocks.

▶ Hawkins was joined in double figures by senior David N'Guessan (13 points), senior Max Jones (12 points) and junior Dug McDaniel (10 points). N'Guessan has now scored in double figures in 11 consecutive games dating back to last season, including all 10 this season.

▶ For the game, the Wildcats connected on 50 percent (26-of-52) from the field, including 38 points in the paint, while hitting on 33.3 percent (7-of-21) from 3-point range and 55 percent (11-of-20) from the free throw line. The team had 21 assists on 26 made field goals.

▶ Stirtz finished with 22 points, while fellow transfer Mitch Mascari added a game-high 25 points, as he converted on 8-of-11 field goals, including 8-of-10 from beyond the arc. They were joined in double figures by sophomore Cam Manyawu, who added 11 points.

11 AT WICHITA STATE

Dec. 21, 2024 | Wichita, Kan. / Koch Arena

Wichita State	29	55	—	84
K-STATE	33	32	—	65

▶ A 12-3 midway through the second half provided the lift Wichita State needed in a tight game, as the Shockers ended a 5-game losing streak to Kansas State with an 84-65 win on Dec. 21 before 8,253 fans at Koch Arena.

▶ Wichita State (9-3) exploded for 55 second-half points on 63 percent (17-of-27) shooting, including 75 percent (3-of-4) from 3-point range, to blow open a game that was single digits for much of the night. The Shockers were also stellar from the free throw line, connecting on 18-of-20 attempts.

▶ Senior Xavier Bell scored 13 of his game-high 24 points in the second half to pace four Shockers in double figures, while junior Corey Washington (18 points, 10 rebounds) and senior Quincy Ballard (10 points, 10 rebounds) each had double-doubles. Fifth-year Justin Hill also had 13 points.

▶ K-State was led by sophomore Macaleab Rich, who posted his first career 20-point game with a career-high 20 points on 8-of-13 shooting, including 3-of-5 from 3-point range. Junior Brendan Hausen added 13 points on 4-of-8 field goals, all from 3-point range.

▶ The Wildcats trailed for much of the first half before an 18-6 run to end the half gave them a 33-29 lead heading into the halftime break. The team went back and forth in the early going before a pivotal 12-3 run by the Shockers gave them a 56-48 lead with 9:38 to play.

▶ A free throw by Hausen cut the deficit to 60-54 just after the third media timeout with 7:33 left, however, the Shockers scored on 3 straight possessions to push the lead into double figures at 66-54 and force a timeout by head coach Jerome Tang with 5:33 remaining.

▶ Although K-State scored on back-to-back possessions out of the timeout to get within 66-58, WSU answered back with 5 of the next 7 points to go back up by double figures at the final media timeout with 3:41 to play. The lead exploded from there, as the Shockers ended their 5-game losing streak.

▶ For the game, the Wildcats connected on 36.2 percent (25-of-69) from the field, including 28.1 percent (9-of-32) from the 3-point range, and made just 6-of-15 free throws.

▶ The game was the last in a series that began in 2021. The Wildcats won the first 3, including 65-59 at INTRUST Bank Arena on Dec. 5, 2021, 55-50 at home on Dec. 3, 2022, and 69-60 in Kansas City on Dec. 21, 2023.

12 16/17 CINCINNATI

Dec. 30, 2024 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

16/17 Cincinnati	29	38	—	67
K-STATE	31	39	—	70

▶ Senior Coleman Hawkins and junior Dug McDaniel combined for 37 points, as K-State put together its best all-around performance of the season to earn a 70-67 win over No. 16/17 Cincinnati in the Big 12 opener for both teams on Dec. 30 before 9,970 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ Although Hawkins and McDaniel were the headliners with 20 and 17 points, respectively, several Wildcats came up clutch in the waning minutes to help snap a 3-game losing streak and earn their first victory over the Bearcats (10-2, 0-1 Big 12) since the 1958 NCAA Tournament.

▶ K-State led by as many as 9 points in the second half before Cincinnati used an 8-2 run to tie the game at 56-all with 5:31 to play. Senior David N'Guessan, who was the third Wildcat in double figures with 13 points, responded with an old-fashioned 3-point play to give the home team a 59-56 lead at the final media timeout with less than 4 minutes remaining.

▶ However, the Wildcats couldn't shake the Bearcats as they pulled to within one possession several times in the last few minutes.

▶ Leading 63-61 with just over a minute to play, senior Max Jones drove to the basket and converted on a turnaround jumper to extend the lead to 4 points. After UC answered to pull within 65-63 on the next possession with 27 seconds, Hawkins made the first free throw before missing the second. However, Jones was there to grab the offensive rebound and tip it out to junior C.J. Jones, who gave K-State a 68-63 lead with a pair of free throws with 20 seconds left.

▶ Following a basket from the Bearcats with 8 seconds, C.J. Jones converted on 2 more free throws for a 70-65 lead before UC's Dillon Mitchell scored the final points on a putback with 1 second left.

▶ Hawkins led the way with game-highs in points (20), rebounds (10) and steals (4), as he recorded his eighth career double-double and his second in a Wildcat uniform. It was his eighth career 20-point game and his first at K-State.

▶ McDaniel fell one point shy of his season-high with 17 points on 7-of-13 field goals in his second start of the season, while N'Guessan recorded double figure points for the 11th time in 12 games with 13 points to go with 7 rebounds.

▶ For the game, K-State shot 43.6 percent (24-of-55) from the field, including 52 percent (13-of-25) in the second half. The defense turned the Bearcats over 15 times, resulting in a 15-8 advantage in points off turnovers.

REVIEW

13 AT TCU

Jan. 4, 2025 | Fort Worth, Texas / Schollmaier Arena

TCU	27	36	—	63
K-STATE	24	38	—	62

▶ Senior Noah Reynolds' layup with 12 seconds to play capped a 7-0 game-ending run by TCU, as the Horned Frogs rallied past K-State for a 63-62 win on Jan. 4 before 6,108 fans at Schollmaier Arena.

▶ K-State (7-6, 1-1 Big 12) led 62-56 after a 3-pointer by senior Max Jones with 3:14 to play before TCU (8-5, 1-1 Big 12) rallied for the victory to remain unbeaten at home. The Wildcats took the 6-point lead after getting a jumper from junior Dug McDaniel and layups from sophomore Macaleab Rich and senior David N'Guessan during a 9-4 run while holding a narrow 53-52 lead.

▶ Following a tip-in by sophomore Vasean Allette after an offensive rebound, senior Brendan Wenzel knocked down a 3-pointer to pull the Horned Frogs to within 62-61 with 1:17 to play.

▶ Both teams came up empty on the next two possessions before N'Guessan was fouled after grabbing his career-best 17th rebound of the game with 24 seconds left. However, the senior couldn't convert on the 1-on-1 free throw opportunity, as Wenzel secured the rebound and fed it to Reynolds, who converted on a layup with 12 seconds.

▶ Coach Jerome Tang called a timeout with 9.5 seconds to set up the potential game-winning play, but McDaniel's layup was off the mark at the buzzer.

▶ The Wildcats connected on 54.8 percent (17-of-31) of its field goals in the second half after hitting on a season-low 26.3 percent (10-of-38) in the first half when they trailed by as many as 8 points. They were able to close to within one possession at 27-24 at the halftime break after a jumper from senior Coleman Hawkins and a 3-pointer from junior Brendan Hausen.

▶ For the game, K-State shot 39.1 percent (27-of-69) from the field, including 21.4 percent (6-of-28) from 3-point range, while making just 2 of 5 attempts from the line. The Wildcats owned a 40-30 advantage in points in the paint.

▶ McDaniel was one of four Wildcats to score in double figures with 12 points on 6-of-15 field goals to go with a game-high 5 assists, 5 rebounds and 2 steals in his second consecutive start. He was joined in double figures by Hawkins (11 points), N'Guessan (10 points) and Hausen (10 points).

▶ N'Guessan tallied his fifth career double-double, including his second this season, with his 10 points and career-high 17 rebounds. The 17 rebounds tie for the third-most by a Wildcat in a Big 12 game and the most since 2008.

14 AT OKLAHOMA STATE

Jan. 7, 2025 | Stillwater, Okla. / Gallagher-Iba Arena

Oklahoma State	43	36	—	79
K-STATE	24	42	—	66

▶ Oklahoma State blew open a tight contest with a 15-0 run to end the first half, as the Cowboys earned their first Big 12 win of the season with a 79-66 win over K-State on Jan. 7 before 5,540 fans at Gallagher-Iba Arena.

▶ Oklahoma State (9-5, 1-2 Big 12) held a narrow 28-24 lead at the final media timeout of the first half with 3:54 to play before a driving layup by senior guard Khalil Brantley spurred a 15-0 run that flipped a two-possession game into a 19-point halftime advantage for the Cowboys.

▶ Five players scored for OSU in the decisive run, including 4 each by Brantley and graduate Abou Ousmane, 3 by senior Bryce Thompson and 2 each by graduates Marchelus Avery and Brandon Newman. Brantley capped the impressive run with a steal and pullup jumper at the buzzer.

▶ K-State twice cut the lead to 11 points in the second half, including 52-41 after an 11-2 run with 12:46 to play, but a 3-pointer from Thompson with the shot clock running down ignited a 9-0 run that pushed the lead back to 20 at 61-41 near the midway point of the half.

▶ Most of the damage came off 19 Wildcat turnovers that the Cowboys turned into 31 points. The 31 points off turnovers tie for the fourth-most ever allowed and the most since Baylor scored 34 points off turnovers on Jan. 27, 2021.

▶ Although plagued by the 19 turnovers, the K-State offense did connect on 50 percent or better from the field for the sixth time this season, finishing at 51.1 percent (24-of-47), including 60.9 percent (14-of-23) in the second half. However, the Wildcats were dismal from 3-point range, making just 21.4 percent (3-of-14) of their shots from beyond the arc.

▶ Senior Coleman Hawkins led three Wildcats in double figures with 18 points on 7-of-13 field goals to go with 5 rebounds, 3 steals, 2 assists and 2 blocks in 32 minutes. Fellow senior David N'Guessan posted his sixth double-double, including his second in a row, with 12 points and a game-high 12 rebounds to go with 4 assists, 2 steals and 2 blocks to his stat line. Senior Max Jones scored in double figures for the sixth time this season with 10 points.

▶ For the game, OSU shot 47.5 percent (28-of-59) from the field, including 42.9 percent (9-of-21) from 3-point range, while making 14 of 18 attempts from the free throw line. Ousmane led all scorers with 27 points on 11-of-15 field goal attempts, while Avery and Thompson added 13 and 10 points, respectively.

15 12/11 HOUSTON

Jan. 11, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

12/11 Houston	46	41	—	87
K-STATE	24	33	—	57

▶ A hot-shooting Houston built a near insurmountable lead in the first half, as the No. 12/11 Cougars extended their winning streak to 8 games with an 87-57 win over K-State on Jan. 11 before 8,332 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ Houston (12-3, 4-0) connected on 57.6 percent (19-of-33) of its field goals in the opening half to build as much as a 24-point lead as the Cougars used a 16-2 run to flip a 4-point deficit (5-9) into a double-digit advantage (21-11) with 10:45 remaining.

▶ K-State was able to cut the deficit to 60-46 with a 12-4 run near the midway point but the reigning Big 12 regular-season champions responded with another 16-2 run to reestablish control of the game with 5 minutes remaining.

▶ Five Cougars scored in double figures led by 15 points from junior guard Emanuel Sharp, while sophomore forward Joseph Tugler added a double-double with 13 points and game-high 10 rebounds to go with 2 blocks. Graduate L.J. Cryer and senior Ja'Vier Francis chipped in 11 points each, while graduate J'Wan Roberts had 10 points, 6 rebounds and 3 assists.

▶ The 30-point loss was the fifth-largest defeat in a home game. It was the largest setback since a 100-69 loss to Baylor on Dec. 19, 2020.

▶ Junior Brendan Hausen was one of two Wildcats to score in double figures, scoring his game-tying 15 points on 5-of-11 field goals from 3-point range. Senior Max Jones had his season-high in a Big 12 game, scoring 12 of his 13 points in the second half.

▶ Houston, which ranks first in scoring defense (54 ppg.), field goal percentage defense (34.3) and scoring margin (+22.3), lived up to its billing, as the Cougars held the Wildcats to a season-low 57 points on 40.4 percent shooting. They posted a 44-20 rebounding advantage, scoring 20 second chance points off 16 offensive rebounds. They also scored 21 points off 15 Wildcat turnovers.

▶ Offensively, the Cougars connected on 49.3 percent (34-of-69) from the field, including 42.9 percent (6-of-14) from 3-point range, as 52 of their 87 points came in the paint. They had just 5 turnovers. The 52 points in the paint are the third-most allowed in the past 25 seasons.

▶ The series is now tied at 5-all after Houston won its second in a row since joining the Big 12. This was just the third meeting between the schools in Manhattan and first since 1971.

Texas Tech	31	30	—	61
K-STATE	33	24	—	57

▶ Senior Elijah Hawkins' layup with 5:28 remaining proved to be the game-winner in a defensive slugfest, as Texas Tech held on late for a 61-57 win over K-State on Jan. 14 before 8,019 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ In a game where points were at a premium it was Texas Tech which was able to grind out a Big 12 win, as the teams combined for 13 points in the final 10:07.

▶ Following the Hawkins' layup, neither team scored for more than 5 minutes before junior Darrion Williams' second chance layup with 17 seconds gave the Red Raiders a 4-point lead. On the last possessions of the game, freshman David Castillo missed from 3-point range with 12 seconds followed by a missed layup from senior Coleman Hawkins with 6 seconds.

▶ All told, K-State did not score in the final 5:50 of the game, making just 1 of its last 12 field goals, including 8 consecutive misses to finish the game. The 57 points matched their season-low for the second consecutive game, as the Wildcats registered season-lows for second-half points (24) and second-half field goal percentage (29.6; 8-of-27) after leading 33-31 at the half.

▶ The dismal offensive performance overshadowed an impressive defensive effort, as K-State held Texas Tech to a season-low 61 points, nearly 25 points under their scoring average (85.6 ppg.). The Red Raiders entered the game ranking in the top 25 of seven offensive categories nationally.

▶ Four Wildcats scored in double figures led by junior Brendan Hausen's 13 points on 4-of-9 shooting, including 3-of-8 from 3-point range. Hawkins added 12 points to go with 5 rebounds, 3 assists and 2 steals, while senior David N'Guessan scored in double figures for the team-leading 14th time with 11 points. Senior Max Jones had a near double-double with 10 points and a season-high 9 rebounds in nearly 39 minutes of action.

▶ Williams paced all scorers with 16 points for the Red Raiders, finishing the night 7-of-15 from the field with 4 rebounds and 3 assists in 35 minutes. Hawkins had a near points/assists double-double with 14 points and a game-high 10 assists to go with 5 rebounds in a team-high 37 minutes.

▶ The loss was K-State's fourth in a row, including their second straight at home. The Wildcats have now lost 7 of their last 8 games.

▶ The Red Raiders have now won the last 3 in the series, including their first win in Manhattan since 2021.

17 AT 9/10 KANSAS

Jan. 18, 2025 | Lawrence, Kan. / Allen Fieldhouse

9/10 Kansas	39	45	—	84
K-STATE	29	45	—	74

▶ K-State showed fight and resilience against a top 10 Kansas team before a sold-out crowd at Allen Fieldhouse, but the Wildcats could not quite dig itself out of a double-digit deficit to start the game in falling 84-74 on Jan. 18 in the annual Dillons Sunflower Showdown.

▶ The Jayhawks jumped out to a 14-0 lead despite two called timeouts by head coach Jerome Tang as the Wildcats missed their first 7 field goals before junior C.J. Jones' pull-up jumper gave them their first points at the 15:30 mark.

▶ K-State (7-10, 1-5 Big 12) scraped to within 6 points (32-26) with 2:45 before halftime on a dunk by junior Ugonna Onyenso, but Kansas was able to take a 10-point lead into the locker room.

▶ In the second half, the Wildcats trailed by as many as 15 points before closing to within 6 points on 3 occasions, including 72-66 after a jumper by junior Brendan Hausen with 4:01 to play. Despite getting two chances after a stop on defense, K-State couldn't close the gap any further as junior Dug McDaniel and senior Coleman Hawkins each had shots blocked.

▶ K-State had one more opportunity down 76-70 with 1:45 to play after a pair of free throws from senior Max Jones, but Hausen's 3-pointer was off the mark, as Kansas sealed the game with a free throw from senior Zeke Mayo and a jumper by senior Hunter Dickinson for a 79-70 lead with 42 seconds left. The Jayhawks connected on 5 of 6 free throws to finish off the game.

▶ Three Wildcats scored in double figures led by Hawkins' points/assists double-double of 15 points and a career-tying 10 assists to go with 7 rebounds while playing all 40 minutes. It was his ninth career double-double, including his third at K-State, and his second double-double of points and assists. He is first Wildcat player to post a points/assists double-double at Allen Fieldhouse.

▶ Hawkins was joined in double figures by fellow seniors David N'Guessan (13 points) and Max Jones (11 points). McDaniel and Onyenso each finished with 9 points, while freshman David Castillo added 6 points on a pair of free throws to go with 2 steals in a season-high 23 minutes.

▶ K-State connected on 45.8 percent (27-of-59) from the field, including 23.1 percent (6-of-26) from 3-point range, and 73.7 percent (14-of-19) from the free throw line. The Wildcats turned the ball over a season-low 5 times, which was the lowest since the 2023 NCAA Tournament.

Baylor	26	44	—	70
K-STATE	30	32	—	62

▶ VJ Edgecombe showed why he is one of the nation's best freshmen, as the rookie scored a game-high 30 points in helping Baylor overcome a 12-point second-half deficit to post a 70-62 win over K-State on Jan. 22 at Foster Pavilion.

▶ Edgecombe scored 20 of his 30 points in the second half, as the Bears (12-6, 4-3 Big 12) connected on 60 percent (12-of-20) from the field while outscoring the Wildcats, 44-32. He finished the night 8-of-13 from the field, including 3-of-7 from 3-point range, and 11-of-12 from the free throw line. He was near perfect in the second half, going 5-of-5 on field goals and 9-of-10 on free throws..

The Bears were able to cut it to 30-26 at the break behind back-to-back 3-pointers from Edgecombe and Norchad Omier.

▶ K-State scored first 7 points out to start the second half en route to taking a 40-28 lead after a 3-pointer from Dug McDaniel at the 16:16 mark. Jones and layup from David N'Guessan to lead 45-36 at the second media timeout with 11:47 to play.

▶ Baylor was able to finally get going offensively out of the timeout, as a pair of free throws from graduate Jalen Celestine sparked a 13-3 run that gave the Bears a 49-48 lead and forced a timeout by Jerome Tang at the 7:44 mark. A jumper by N'Guessan briefly gave the Wildcats a lead before 3-pointers from Celestine and Edgecombe gave the Bears a 55-50 lead with 6 minutes to play.

▶ Junior Brendan Hausen kept K-State within 57-56 after back-to-back 3-pointers with less than 5 minutes to play, but a 6-0 Baylor run pushed the lead out of reach at 67-58 with 1:03 remaining.

19 23/23 WEST VIRGINIA

Jan. 25, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

23/23 West Virginia	18	42	—	60
K-STATE	42	31	—	73

▶ K-State jumped out to 19-2 lead over No. 23/23 West Virginia and never looked back to emphatically end a 6-game losing streak with a 73-60 win on Jan. 25 before 9,018 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The win was not only the first for the Wildcats of the calendar year 2025, but also gave them their second Top 25 win of the season. Head coach Jerome Tang is now 11-3 at home vs. AP Top 25 opponents, including 2-1 in 2024-25.

▶ Buoyed by the impressive start, K-State connected on 53.3 percent (16-of-30) of its field goals in the first half, including 55.6 percent (5-of-9) from 3-point range, as the Wildcats surged ahead by as many as 26 points before halftime. The 42 first-half points were the most the team has scored in Big 12 play this season, while 18 points were the fewest allowed in an opening half all season.

▶ Despite scoring 11 of the first 13 points out of halftime, West Virginia (13-6, 4-4 Big 12) never closed the deficit below double figures in the second half, as the Mountaineers dropped their third in a row to the Wildcats and their fourth straight at Bramlage Coliseum. WVU outscored K-State, 42-31, after halftime but the 24-point halftime deficit was too much to overcome.

▶ Five Wildcats scored in double figures including 15 points from junior Dug McDaniel, who also added a game-high 6 assists and 2 steals. Senior David N'Guessan scored 14 points to go with a career-best 4 blocks, while fellow senior Max Jones had a solid all-around game with 12 points, a team-tying 7 rebounds, 3 assists and a steal. Senior Coleman Hawkins added 11 points to go with 7 rebounds, 4 assists and a block and junior C.J. Jones registered double figures in Big 12 play for the first time with 10 points.

▶ K-State is now 11-0 under Tang when 5 or more players score in double digits.

▶ K-State finished the game shooting 47.3 percent (26-of-55) from the field, including 35.3 percent (6-of-17) from 3-point range, and 68.2 percent (15-of-22) from the free throw line. The Wildcats scored 17 fast-break points and outscored the Mountaineers, 15-5, from the bench.

▶ WVU shot 36.8 percent (25-of-68) from the field, including just 19.0 percent (4-of-21) from 3-point range, while making 6 of 8 attempts from the line. The Mountaineers outscored the Wildcats, 42-36, in the paint and held a 19-12 advantage in second-chance points.

▶ Senior Javon Small led all scorers with 22 points for the Mountaineers.

20 OKLAHOMA STATE

Jan. 29, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Oklahoma State	23	34	—	57
K-STATE	45	40	—	85

▶ K-State used another fast start to overwhelm an opponent, as the Wildcats raced out to a 15-4 lead en route to a wire-to-wire 85-57 win over Oklahoma State on Jan. 29 before 8,542 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ K-State collected consecutive wins for the first time in 2025 by turning in its best offensive performance of the Big 12 season to avenge an earlier loss to OSU. The 85 points are the most through their first 9 league games, as the Wildcats hit on 52.6 percent (30-of-57) from the field, including 52.2 percent (12-of-23) from 3-point range, while making 72.2 percent (13-of-18) from free throw line.

▶ The defense wasn't bad either, as K-State held OSU to 57 points on 39.6 percent (21-of-53) shooting, including 31.6 percent (6-of-19) from 3-point range, while forcing an opponent-high 21 turnovers. The Wildcats scored 28 points off those miscues, including 22 in the first half. The 57 points were the fewest allowed a Big 12 opponent and were one point shy of the season low

▶ K-State used its fast start to build a 22-point halftime lead (45-23) before expanding the advantage to as many as 32 points behind a 12-0 run less than 5 minutes into the second half. OSU never got closer than 24 points the rest of the way. It marked the second straight game that the Wildcats built a 20-point half-time lead, as they have outscored their last 2 opponents, 87-51, in the first half.

▶ The 28-point victory was the second largest of the season and the largest in Big 12 play under head coach Jerome Tang. It is the largest Big 12 win since an 85-46 win over Oklahoma State at home on Feb. 23, 2019.

▶ Four Wildcats scored in double figures led by a team-high 18 points from junior Brendan Hausen, who went a perfect 5-of-5 from 3-point range. He was joined in double figures by fellow seniors Coleman Hawkins (15 points) and Max Jones (14 points) and junior Dug McDaniel (10 points). Sophomore Mobi Ikegwuruka finished with his best game of the season with 8 points to go with 3 rebounds, 3 steals and a block in 12 minutes off the bench.

▶ Hausen is the seventh player in school history to go 5-of-5 or better from 3-point range and the first since Denis Clemente went 6-of-6 from beyond the arc at Texas on Jan. 31, 2009. Hausen's only misses came inside the arc, going 5-of-6 from the field and 3-of-4 from free throw line.

▶ Fifth-year transfer Marchelus Avery led all scorers with 22 points on 7-of-8 field goals, including 2-of-3 from 3-point range, and 6-of-7 free throws.

21 AT 3/3 IOWA STATE

Feb. 1, 2025 | Ames, Iowa / Hilton Coliseum

3/3 Iowa State	35	26	—	61
K-STATE	37	43	—	80

▶ All five Wildcat starters scored in double figures, including a season-high 20 points from junior Dug McDaniel, as K-State snapped No. 3/3 Iowa State's 29-game home court winning streak with an 80-61 victory on Feb. 1 before a sold-out crowd of 14,267 fans at Hilton Coliseum.

▶ The win was just the sixth-ever by K-State over a Top 5 team on the road and the first since a 56-54 win at No. 2 Baylor on Feb. 4, 2017. The 19-point margin of victory is the largest-ever over a Top 5 team on the road and second largest behind a 20-point win over No. 4 Long Island on Jan. 31, 1951.

▶ Iowa State looked like it was on its way to another home win, as the Cyclones scored the game's first 6 points on consecutive 3-pointers en route to a 13-4 lead prompting a Wildcat timeout less than 4 minutes into the game.

▶ The timeout seemed to settle down the Wildcats, as the first of 3 3-pointers from senior Coleman Hawkins ignited a 13-3 run that gave them their first lead at 17-16 at the 12:28 mark. They extended that lead to 28-23 after an old-fashioned 3-point play from senior David N'Guessan, but the Cyclones were able to get to the free throw line, knocking down 7 of 8 attempts, to go along with a 3-pointer from Tamin Lipsey to take a 33-28 lead with 3:10 to play.

▶ With the momentum clearly on the side of the home team, the Wildcats were able to end the half on a 9-2 run that propelled them ahead 37-35 at the break. Senior Max Jones scored 5 of the team's 9 points in the pivotal run. They carried that momentum into the second half, as they scored the first 7 points, capped by Hawkins' second 3-pointer, to take a 44-35 lead and force a timeout.

▶ K-State kept the pressure on, using a 12-0 run capped by a 3-pointer from junior Brendan Hausen to take a 58-39 lead with under 14 to play. However, ISU responded with a 13-0 run to pull to within 58-52 at the midway point.

▶ A Hausen 3-pointer ended the run and started an 8-0 spurt by the Wildcats, as they pulled back ahead by double figures at 66-52 with 8:10 remaining. From that moment, the Cyclones could get no closer than 10 points the rest of the way, as the Wildcats ended the game with 7 consecutive points.

▶ K-State scored its 80 points on 44.8 percent (26-of-58) shooting, including 50 percent (10-of-20) from 3-point range, and 85.7 percent (18-of-21) from the line. The Wildcats outscored the Cyclones, 30-22, in the paint and used their 39-29 rebounding advantage to post a 21-6 edge in second-chance points.

22 AT ARIZONA STATE

Feb. 4, 2025 | Tempe, Ariz. / Desert Financial Arena

Arizona State	32	38	—	70
K-STATE	35	36	—	71

▶ Senior David N'Guessan led four Wildcats in double figures with a season-high 22 points, as K-State overcame a 16-point first-half deficit en route to a 71-70 win over Arizona State on Feb. 4 before 7,362 fans at Desert Financial Arena.

▶ N'Guessan made perhaps his best play of the night with K-State clinging to a 71-70 lead late in the game, as he fouled freshman Jayden Quaintance as he was attempting to dunk the game-winning basket with 4.1 seconds remaining, forcing him to connect on 2 free throws to win the game. However, Quaintance missed on both attempts and junior Dug McDaniel corralled the rebound and threw it down court to senior Max Jones to run out the clock.

▶ N'Guessan finished the night 8-of-11 from the field, including 1-of-1 from 3-point range, and 5-of-6 from the free throw to go with a team-tying 8 rebounds in nearly 36 minutes. He posted his third career 20-point game.

▶ The finish would not have been made possible if not for the Wildcats' epic comeback from a 16-point first half deficit, as the Sun Devils jumped out to a 15-0 lead en route to an 18-2 lead after a 3-point play with just 12 minutes to play.

▶ However, K-State slowly chipped away at the deficit, scoring 17 of the next 25 points to close to within 26-19 and forced a timeout by ASU head coach Bobby Hurley at the 4:47 mark. After a 3-pointer put the Sun Devils up by 10, the Wildcats ended the half on a 16-3 run to go ahead 35-32 at the break.

▶ K-State carried the momentum into the second half, scoring 13 of the first 16 points to go ahead 48-35 and force another ASU timeout with over 13 minutes to play. The Sun Devils closed to within 53-49 on a 14-5 run just before the under-8 media timeout, but back-to-back 3-pointers from Jones and Hausen pulled the Wildcats ahead 60-52 with just over 7 minutes to play.

▶ ASU made one last run after Hausen's 3-pointers, using an 11-2 run to go ahead 63-62 and force Tang to call a timeout with 3:24 left. The team traded the lead over the next few possessions before a 3-pointer by Hawkins and 2 free throws from N'Guessan gave K-State a 71-67 lead with 54 seconds. Alston was able to convert on a 3-point play to close the deficit to 71-70 with 42 seconds.

▶ McDaniel's 3-pointer with 14 seconds left was off the mark giving the Sun Devils' one last opportunity. After a scrum on the floor allowed Quaintance a clear path to the basket, N'Guessan prevented the dunk and forcing him to the line, where he missed both free throws.

23 16/17 KANSAS

Feb. 8, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

16/17 Kansas	36	37	—	73
K-STATE	44	37	—	81

▶ Senior David N'Guessan led four Wildcats in double figures with 20 points, as K-State extended its winning streak to 5 games with a near wire-to-wire 81-73 win over No. 16/17 Kansas in the Dillons Sunflower Showdown before a sold-out crowd of 11,010 fans on Feb. 8 at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ K-State led for more than 37 minutes, using an 18-5 run midway through the first half to assert control of the game en route to a 44-36 lead at the half. The lead grew to as many as 15 points in the second half, as the Wildcats earned their third consecutive win at home over the Jayhawks for the first time in more than 40 years since a 4-game streak from 1981-83.

▶ The 5-game overall winning streak is the longest for K-State since a similar 5-game streak from Nov. 22 to Dec. 9, 2023, while it is the longest such streak in Big 12 play since a 5-game winning streak from Jan. 9 to Jan. 22, 2019. Head coach Jerome Tang is now 12-3 at home vs. AP Top 25 opponents, including 3-1 this season. It was the team's fourth Top 25 win of the season. Tang is the first Wildcat coach since Jack Gardner in 1947-49 to win his first 3 home games.

▶ K-State topped the 80-point mark for the seventh time this season, including the third time in the last 4 Big 12 games, behind a balanced attack led by N'Guessan's second consecutive 20-point performance. It marked the first time in his career that the Dutch native has had consecutive 20-point games, as he hit on 9-of-13 field goals to go with a team-high 7 rebounds in 33 minutes.

▶ N'Guessan was joined in double figures by junior Dug McDaniel (15 points) and seniors Coleman Hawkins (12 points) and Max Jones (12 points). McDaniel dished out a career-high 11 assists for his second career double-double. His 11 assists tie for the sixth-most in a conference game, including the most since Markquis Nowell had 14 at Baylor on Jan. 7, 2023.

▶ Hawkins added 8 assists, 5 rebounds and a career-high 5 blocks to his effort. His 5 blocks tied for the fourth-most in a conference game, including the most since Will McNair Jr. had 5 blocks at Texas Tech last season.

▶ Both teams shot exactly 50 percent from the field, as K-State made 33 of 66 attempts compared to Kansas' 30 of 60 attempts. However, the difference came from the 3-point line, as the Wildcats made 11 of 27 attempts (40.7 percent) compared to just 6 of 19 attempts (31.6 percent) for the Jayhawks.

▶ The Wildcats had 23 assists on their 33 made field goals with McDaniel (11 assists) and Hawkins (8 assists) combining for all but 4 of those assists.

24 13/13 ARIZONA

Feb. 11, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

13/13 Arizona	29	41	—	70
K-STATE	35	38	—	73

▶ Junior Dug McDaniel scored a game-high 24 points, including two baskets to start a late 8-0 run, as K-State won its sixth straight game with a 73-70 win over No. 13/13 Arizona on on Feb. 11 before 8,914 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ The 6-game winning streak is the second-longest of head coach Jerome Tang's tenure and the longest since a 9-game winning streak from Dec. 3, 2022, to Jan. 10, 2023. It is the longest such streak in Big 12 play since a 9-game winning streak from Jan. 9 to Feb. 12, 2019.

▶ In battle of the Big 12's two hottest teams, it was K-State which was able to pull away late in a back-and-forth game that included nine ties and 10 lead changes. The victory snapped Arizona's Big 12-best 6-game winning streak.

▶ After Arizona (17-7, 11-2 Big 12) ripped off a 10-2 run to take a 62-60 lead with 4:05 to play, McDaniel sparked 8 straight points by K-State with back-to-back baskets followed by a layup from senior David N'Guessan and a steal and dunk by sophomore Mobi Ikegwuruka that sent the Bramlage Coliseum crowd into a frenzy with 1:39 remaining.

▶ McDaniel scored his game-high 24 points on 10-of-22 field goals, including the Wildcats' lone 3-pointer of the night, to go with career-tying 5 steals, 4 rebounds and 3 assists in 37 minutes. It was his ninth career 20-point game, including his second this season.

▶ McDaniel was joined in double figures by N'Guessan, who finished with 16 points and 7 rebounds before fouling out with 1:27 to play, and junior reserve C.J. Jones, who added 10 points, his second double-digit scoring game in Big 12 play. Max Jones matched N'Guessan's 7 rebounds to go with 7 points, while senior Coleman Hawkins had a game-high 4 assists.

▶ The teams scored 90 of the 143 points in the paint with K-State holding a narrow 46-44 edge over Arizona. K-State also forced a Big 12-high 17 turnovers by Arizona, including 14 steals that the home team converted into 23 points.

26 AT UTAH

Feb. 17, 2025 | Salt Lake City, Utah / Huntsman Center

Utah	32	42	—	74
K-STATE	32	37	—	69

▶ A late 5-0 run capped by a 3-pointer from fifth-year guard Gabe Madsen gave Utah enough cushion to finish out a 74-69 win over K-State on Feb. 17 before 7,537 fans at the Huntsman Center.

▶ The 5 straight points came after K-State (13-13, 7-8 Big 12) had rallied from a 57-50 deficit to the tie at 59-all with just 3 minutes remaining. A jumper by sophomore Miro Little preceded the Madsen 3-pointer, which was one of just 3 made by Utah (15-11, 7-8 Big 12) on 19 attempts.

▶ Three Wildcats scored in double figures led by junior Brendan Hausen's 17 points. He connected on 5 made 3-pointers for the fifth time this year, including a near logo make that pulled K-State within 69-67 with 49 seconds left.

▶ After Utah made 1 of 2 free throws to extend the lead to 72-69 with 12 seconds left, Hausen nearly had a sixth triple to tie the game with 7 seconds, but it missed off the front of the rim and the Utes' Ezra Ausar grabbed the rebound before being fouled. Ausar calmly sank both free throws to finish the night 7-of-7 from the line and put the game out of reach at 74-69 with 5 seconds.

▶ Despite shooting less than 40 percent from the field, including 15.8 percent from 3-point range, Utah won the game on the glass, out-rebounding K-State, 51-28, including a 21-6 advantage on offensive rebounds that it converted into 14 second-chance points. The 51 rebounds tied for the most by an opponent this season, while 21 offensive rebounds were the most.

▶ The second-chance opportunities also forced the Wildcats to foul and send the Utes to the free throw line, where they converted on 23 of 30 attempts, including a combined 14 of 19 performance by big men Ausar and Lawson Lovering. Utah entered the game as the Big 12's worst free throw shooting team, making just 61.9 percent on the season.

▶ Hausen was joined in double figures by senior Max Jones and junior Dug McDaniel, who each had 13 points. McDaniel eclipsed 1,000 career points with his 3-pointer just over 3 minutes into the second half. He also had 6 assists, while senior Coleman Hawkins dished out a game-high 7 assists. Junior Ugonna Onyenso had a season-best 4 blocks shots to go with his 5 points.

▶ This was the first meeting in more than 40 seasons and the first as Big 12 opponents. The Utes have now won consecutive games in the series since the Wildcats opened with a sweep of a home-and-home series in 1972 and 1973.

27 ARIZONA STATE

Feb. 23, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Arizona State	34	32	—	66
K-STATE	28	26	—	54

▶ Behind a team-high 18 points from freshman Jayden Quaintance, Arizona State snapped a 6-game losing streak with a near wire-to-wire 66-54 win over K-State on Feb. 23 before 9,121 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ K-State (13-14, 7-9 Big 12) saw its losing streak hit 3 games with the loss, as the Wildcats played without their all-everything senior Coleman Hawkins, who is the only Division I player to average 10 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4.5 assists, 2.0 steals and 1.0 blocks per game.

▶ Arizona State (13-14, 4-12 Big 12) had its own missing piece, as head coach Bobby Hurley dismissed the Sun Devils' leading scorer B.J. Freeman (13.7 ppg.) prior to the road trip. However, it was Hawkins' presence that was clearly felt more as K-State was held to a season-low 54 points on 33.3 percent (22-of-66) shooting, including 19.2 percent (5-of-26) from 3-point range.

▶ The Wildcats were paced by senior David N'Guessan, who collected his eighth career double-double, including his team-leading fifth of the season, with game-highs in both points (20) and rebounds (13). It marked his second 20-point, 10-rebound performance of the season and the first since the season opener. He was joined in double figures by junior C.J. Jones, who scored 10 points 4-of-11 field goals. Jones earned the start in place of the injured Hawkins.

▶ ASU jumped out to a 12-6 lead before the first media timeout, including 5 points from Quaintance. K-State responded with 8 of the next 12 points to pull to within 16-14 at the second media timeout at the 10:37 mark. However, the Sun Devils rattled off 7 straight points out of the timeout as part of a 15-5 to run take a double-digit lead. Jones scored 7 of his 10 points in a 9-3 run to end the first half, as the Wildcats closed to within 41-28 at the break.

▶ A 7-0 run out of halftime quickly extended ASU's lead back to double figures less than 3 minutes into the second half. K-State pulled to within 50-40 near the midway point but ASU scored 7 of the next 10 points to go up 57-43 with third media timeout with 7:35 to play. The lead grew to as many as 21 points (66-45) after a dunk by Shawn Phillips Jr. with 1:46 remaining before the Wildcats ended the game with 9 straight points for the 66-54 final score.

▶ Quaintance was one of three Sun Devils to score in double figures, as he hit on 8-of-11 field goals to go with 7 rebounds, 2 assists and 2 steals. He enacted some semblance of revenge with his effort, as he missed the game-winning free throws with 4.1 seconds left in the 71-70 loss to the Wildcats on Feb. 4.

28 AT UCF

Feb. 26, 2025 | Orlando, Fla. / Addition Financial Arena

UCF	41	39	—	80
K-STATE	34	42	—	76

▶ K-State nearly fought back from an 11-point second-half deficit, closing to within one possession several times in the last 2 minutes, before UCF held on for an 80-76 on Feb. 26 before 7,003 fans at Addition Financial Arena.

▶ The Wildcats played without senior Coleman Hawkins for the second game in a row, as the team's losing streak hit 4 games with their loss to the Knights.

▶ UCF (15-13, 6-11 Big 12) was paced by the guard tandem of Keyshawn Hall (26 points) and Darius Johnson (23 points) who combined for 49 points on 53.6 percent (15-of-28) shooting, including 40 percent (6-of-15) from 3-point range. The duo also combined to go 13 of 16 from the free throw line. They were joined in double figures by freshman Moustapha Thiam, who finished with a near triple-double with 11 points, 10 rebounds and 8 blocks.

▶ Senior Max Jones paced four Wildcats in double figures with a season-high 22 points on 6-of-17 field goals, including 3-of-7 from 3-point range, and 7-of-8 from the free throw line. It was his 27th career 20-point game, including his first as a Wildcat. He was joined in double figures by juniors C.J. Jones (12 points), Brendan Hausen (11 points) and Dug McDaniel (10 points).

▶ The pivotal moment in the game came in the last 4 minutes off the first half and the first 3 minutes of the second half when UCF flipped a 34-31 deficit into a 47-36 lead. The Knights ended the first half on a 10-0 run then scored 6 of the first 8 points of the second half.

▶ Despite the 16-2 run, K-State still had a chance in the waning minutes. UCF scored 5 straight points to go ahead by 11 (69-58) for second time in the half with 5:48 to play. However, two free throws by Max Jones keyed a 7-0 run by the Wildcats that cut the deficit to 69-65 at the final media timeout. The teams traded points before 2 more free throws by Jones cut it to 73-71 with 2:11 left.

▶ Following free throws by both teams, K-State had two chances to tie the game with a minute to play, but McDaniel's driving layup missed and Hausen turned the ball over on the inbounds.

▶ After UCF made 4 straight free throws to go ahead 78-72 with 18 seconds, Hausen redeemed himself for the turnover with a rare 4-point play, hitting a long 3-pointer before being fouled and making the free throw, that pulled K-State to within 78-76 with 14 seconds. However, that would be closest it would get, as Hall made both free throws after being fouled on the inbounds play.

29 COLORADO

March 2, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

Colorado	22	34	—	56
K-STATE	33	32	—	65

▶ Senior David N'Guessan paced three Wildcats in double figures with a game-high 21 points, as K-State ended a 4-game losing streak with a 65-56 wire-to-wire win over Colorado on March 2 at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ K-State led for more than 38 minutes in snapping a 4-game losing streak to Colorado and earning the first win in the series since 2010. The Wildcats led by as many as 17 points less than 6 minutes into the second half before the Buffaloes closed to within 60-52 points with less than 3 minutes to play.

▶ N'Guessan, who eclipsed 1,000 career points in the first half, was able to hit a pair of free throws after a key offensive rebound to push the lead back to 62-52 with 2:28 to play as Colorado was on a 9-2 run. Junior C.J. Jones made 1 of 2 free throws after a pair of defensive stops before sophomore Macaleab Rich converted on a pair of free throws for an 11-point lead with 48 seconds.

▶ K-State was able to get off to a quick start, scoring 12 of the first 14 points en route to taking a 16-point lead (33-17) with just over 2 minutes left in the first half. Nearly half of the team's 33 first-half points came off turnovers, as the Wildcats scored 16 points off 7 Buffalo turnovers.

▶ A 10-2 run extended the Wildcats' lead to 46-29 with just over 14 minutes remaining, however, the Buffaloes slowly chipped away at the deficit, closing to within 60-52 with just over 3 minutes to play. N'Guessan and junior C.J. Jones combined for 3 of 4 free throws to push the lead back to double figures, as the Wildcats were never seriously threatened the rest of the way.

▶ Colorado was able to outshoot K-State, 39.3 percent to 34.4 percent, thanks to 48.1 percent (13-of-27) shooting in the second half. However, the Wildcats were able to score 20 points off 15 Buffalo turnovers while converting on 16 of 19 attempts (84.2 percent) from the free throw line.

▶ The Wildcats were shorthanded, as the team not only played without senior Coleman Hawkins for the third consecutive game but also were without sophomore reserve Mobi Ikegwuruka, who was injured at UCF on Feb. 26.

30 AT CINCINNATI

March 5, 2025 | Cincinnati, Ohio / Fifth Third Arena

Cincinnati	25	24	—	49
K-STATE	22	32	—	54

▶ Senior David N'Guessan collected his team-leading sixth double-double of the season with a game-high 18 points and 10 rebounds in helping K-State to a 54-49 win over Cincinnati on March 5 before 10,814 fans at Fifth Third Arena.

▶ The 49 points were the fewest allowed by a Jerome Tang team and the fewest allowed by the Wildcats in a conference game since 2019.

▶ In addition to N'Guessan's stellar performance, the game marked the return of senior Coleman Hawkins, who missed the last 2 games due to injury. Hawkins was his usual all-around self despite some rust, posting 9 points, 8 rebounds, 3 assists, a steal and a block in nearly 34 minutes.

▶ The two seniors, along with junior Dug McDaniel and senior Max Jones, helped spark a big second-half run by K-State, which rallied from a halftime deficit for the first time while connecting on 50 percent (13-of-26) from the field, including 61.9 percent (13-of-21) on 2-point attempts. The turnaround in the second half came after the Wildcats scored a season-tying low 22 points in the opening half on just 32.1 percent (9-of-28).

▶ K-State went nearly 5 minutes without scoring in the first half, as the Wildcats made just 4 of their first 17 field goals, including 1 of their first 10 from 3-point range, as Cincinnati built as much as an 8-point lead. A 3-pointer from Jones helped start a 10-2 run that knotted the game at 21-all with 1:38 to play in the opening half. However, two free throws from Aziz Bandaogo and layup from Dan Skillings Jr. lifted the Bearcats to a 25-22 lead at halftime.

▶ Cincinnati carried its momentum into the second half, scoring 10 of the first 16 points to extend the lead to 35-28 just after the first media timeout with 14:47 to play. However, Jones ignited another K-State run, as his jumper sparked a string of 8 straight points that gave K-State a 36-35 lead with 12 minutes left.

▶ After the Bearcats went back ahead on a jumper at 37-36, junior C.J. Jones gave the Wildcats the lead for good with a jumper at the front of the rim that sparked a 6-3 run that extended the lead to 44-40 at the third media timeout. The home team pulled to within 46-45 with 6:21 to play but 6 straight points gave the Wildcats a 52-45 edge with just over 4 minutes remaining.

▶ A 4-0 run got Cincinnati to 52-49 with 1:48 to play, but the Bearcats could get no closer as the Wildcats locked down defensively before junior Brendan Hausen made a pair of free throws for a 54-49 lead with 22 seconds.

31 10/10 IOWA STATE

March 8, 2025 | Manhattan, Kan. / Bramlage Coliseum

10/10 Iowa State	34	39	—	73
K-STATE	26	31	—	57

▶ No. 10/10 Iowa State forced K-State into 17 turnovers, scoring 22 points off those miscues, as the Cyclones earned a 73-57 win in the regular-season finale for both teams on March 8 before 8,720 fans at Bramlage Coliseum.

▶ Iowa State (23-8, 13-7 Big 12), which was already locked into the No. 5 seed at the Big 12 Championship, led nearly wire-to-wire to even the regular-season series after K-State earned an 80-61 win on Feb. 1 that snapped a 29-game homecourt winning streak at Hilton Coliseum.

▶ The Cyclones were strong on both ends of the court, hitting on 47.1 percent (24-of-51) from the field and 81.8 percent (18-of-22) from the free throw line, while holding the Wildcats to 37.7 percent (20-of-53) shooting, including 9.5 percent (2-of-21) from 3-point range.

▶ Iowa State was paced by a game-high 24 points from senior Curtis Jones while big men Joshua Jefferson and Dishon Jackson added 14 and 11 points.

▶ Senior David N'Guessan led the way for K-State for third consecutive game with 19 points on 8-of-10 field goals and 3-of-5 free throws to go with 7 rebounds, 2 assists, 2 blocks and a steal in his final game at Bramlage Coliseum. It marked his 50th career double-digit scoring game, including his team-high 25 this season. He was joined in double figures by junior Dug McDaniel, who finished with 14 points and a game-high 6 assists.

▶ ISU took advantage of K-State's poor shooting to start the game, including a nearly 5-minute scoreless stretch, to jump out to a double-digit lead at 22-11 with less 9 minutes to play in the opening half. A 5-0 run by N'Guessan pulled the Wildcats to within 22-16 nearly 90 seconds later but a 12-2 response by the Cyclones gave them a 16-point lead with 3 minutes left. The momentum swung to the home team, as they ended the half on an 8-0 run to close to 34-26.

▶ Back-to-back baskets by sophomore Mobi Ikegwuruka and N'Guessan pulled K-State to within 40-34 with 15:38 left in the contest. However, ISU had a perfect response to the run with 11 consecutive points to go up 51-34 and force a timeout by head coach Jerome Tang with 12:03 to play. From that point, the Wildcats go no closer than 13 points the rest of the way.

▶ Senior Coleman Hawkins grabbed a game-high 9 rebounds in his final home game to go with 5 assists, 4 points and 2 blocks in 33 minutes. Another senior – Max Jones – added 7 points and 4 rebounds in nearly 27 minutes.

▶ Senior Coleman Hawkins scored a season-high 26 points to pace four Wildcats in double figures, as 10-seed K-State knocked off 15-seed Arizona State, 71-66, in the opening round of the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship on March 11 at the T-Mobile Center in Kansas City.

▶ Hawkins, who collected his second 20-point game of the season, was 4 points shy of his career-high of 30 points vs. Iowa in 2024, as he scored his season-high 26 points on 10-of-17 field goals, including 4-of-9 from 3-point range, and 2-of-3 free throws to go with a team-tying 8 rebounds, 2 assists, 2 blocks and a steal.

▶ The senior was joined in double figures by junior Dug McDaniel (14 points), senior Max Jones (10 points) and junior Brendan Hausen (10 points).

▶ Hawkins was key in K-State's fast start to the game, as he was responsible for 11 points in the Wildcats' 17-4 opening run. He connected on his first three 3-pointers, while he added a jumper just after ASU head coach Bobby Hurley had called a timeout at the 14:52 mark. However, the Sun Devils wouldn't go away, as they used a 15-2 run to tie the game at 19-all before taking their first lead at 24-21 on a 3-pointer by freshman Joson Sanon with 7:45 before halftime.

▶ The Wildcats answered back 11 straight points to go back ahead 34-26 just after the final media timeout with 2:43 remaining, as the team ended the half with 17 of the final 24 points to go ahead 38-31 at the break. Hawkins was responsible for half of the 38 points, scoring his 19 points on 8-of-11 field goals, including 3-of-5 from 3-point range.

However, ASU stayed within striking distance using an 8-0 run over the next 2 minutes to close to within 58-52. The Sun Devils pulled to within 66-62 with 1:46 to play after 2 free throws from senior Alston Mason and a jumper from Sanon.

▶ With the momentum fading, Hausen connected on a jumper in the lane with 1:24 before senior David N'Guessan, who was hampered by foul trouble all night, helped finish off the victory in the last 36 seconds with a big 3-point play.

Exhibition History

K-State has been playing exhibition games since the 1963-64 season when the Wildcats defeated the Peruvian National Team at Ahearn Field House. The school played exhibition games off and on, including its first international tour in 1981, before the NCAA regulated the practice by allowing Division I institutions the ability to schedule two exhibition games per season prior to 1987-88.

K-State has primarily played the Kansas members of the MIAA (Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association) since switching to Division II teams in exhibition play in 2004. Prior to that change, the Wildcats played traveling teams of former Division I players like Athletes First, EA Sports All-Stars and Global Sports in exhibition play from 1987 to 2005.

Weekly Rankings in The Associated Press Poll [1949-present]

Following is a look at Kansas State's week-by-week ranking in The Associated Press poll since it began in January 20, 1949 with an original poll of 20 teams. From the 1961-62 season through 1967-68 season, there was only a Top 10. It expanded again to 20 teams from 1968-69 through 1988-89. The Top 25 began in 1989-90, and it has stayed at that number ever since.

BRAMLAGE COLISEUM

38th season [1988-present] // Officially opened on Nov. 26, 1988 vs. Purdue
Capacity: 11,010

Now in its 38th season of hosting Wildcat men's basketball, the Fred Bramlage Coliseum has carved its own niche in K-State's colorful history of basketball residence. In keeping with the tradition established by Nichols Gymnasium (1910-50) and Ahearn Field House (1950-88), the arena has given the team a deafening, winning environment since its opening in November 1988.

The coliseum is named for the late 1935 K-State graduate and Junction City (Kan.) businessman Fred Bramlage, who made the principle contribution. The building was constructed at a cost of $17.2 million and was built in a 22-month period beginning in October 1986. Financial backing came from a number of areas, including $7 million from the student body and a matching figure from alumni. The groundbreaking took place on Oct. 18, 1986.

Dubbed the "Octogon of Doom," K-State has posted a 441-153 (.742) all-time mark in its current home, including an emotional 81-77 win over Purdue (led by alumnus Gene Keady) in the facility's debut on Nov. 26, 1988. The 441 victories are the most at a home venue for the Wildcats, surpassing the previous mark of 378 wins at Ahearn Field House (1950-88) during the 2020-21 season.

K-State has earned double-digit victories in 29 of its 37 seasons at Bramlage Coliseum, including a streak of 18 consecutive seasons from 2001-19. Three times Wildcat teams have set the single-season mark with 16 wins in the arena, which came in the 2008-09, 2010-11 and 2012-13 seasons. The 2010-11 team set the high water mark for highest winning percentage (16-1; .941) in a single season, which was then matched by the 2012-13 squad. The team recorded a 15-1 mark at home in 2022-23, which tied for the fewest losses in arena history.

K-State's home court advantage has been even better since the 2001-02 season, as the Wildcats have a compiled a 302-96 (.759) record at Bramlage Coliseum, which includes a 172-19 (.901) mark in non-conference play. Among those 302 victories are 130 in Big 12 play, including 42 against ranked conference foes. In the last 24 seasons, the school has posted double-digit wins 21 times with an average of just over 12 home wins (12.7) per season.

Head coach Jerome Tang has a 39-9 (.813) mark at home, including 21-7 (.750) vs. Big 12 opponents.

Wins over Top 25 teams have also been a regular occurrence at Bramlage Coliseum since its opening in 1988 with 54 ranked opponents falling to K-State, including 23 Top 10 opponents. Four No. 1 teams have been defeated during the arena's history, including No. 1 Missouri in 1990, No. 1 Texas in 2010, No. 1 Kansas in 2011 and No. 1 Oklahoma in 2016. The Wildcats have beaten at least one Top 25 opponent at Bramlage Coliseum every season since 2009-10.

The three Top 10 victories (No. 9 Baylor, No. 4 Kansas and No. 6 Iowa State) at Bramlage Coliseum in 2024 were a first in the arena's history. It surpassed the mark of two Top 10 wins set four times (1989-90, 2007-08, 2013-14, 2022-23).

In addition to wins, Bramlage Coliseum has also played host to some of the biggest crowds in the history of K-State basketball. The Wildcats have averaged better than 12,000 fans in 10 seasons since the doors to the arena opened in 1988-89, including a program-best 12,978 fans during that inaugural season.

Nine of the school's Top 10 attendance averages have come since 2006-07.

K-State has ranked among the NCAA's Top 40 nationally in attendance 13 times in the last 19 seasons, including a program-best 24th in 2012-13 (12,528) and 25th in both 2007-08 (12,529) and 2011-12 (12,783). In addition, the program has been rated 26th in 2006-07 (12,301), 2010-11 (12,652) and 2014-15 (12,549), 29th in 2013-14 (12,125) and 2016-17, 31st in 2009-10 (11,884), 32nd (11,903) in 2015-16 and 35th in 2018-19 (10,640).

K-State was one of 22 schools nationally and one of four Big 12 schools (Arizona, Iowa State and Texas Tech) to have both its men's and women's programs finish in the Top 40 nationally in average attendance in 2023-24, as the Wildcats finished 19th in women's basketball attendance with an average of 5,531 fans. The Wildcat women hosted NCAA First/Second Round action for the first time since 2017, selling out the arena for their Second Round matchup with Colorado.

Seating changes and construction has reduced capacity over the years to its current total of 11,010 for the 2025-26 season. The Wildcats sold out eight games and ranked 23rd nationally in percentage capacity at 87.57% as well as 39th in average (9,596) and total attendance (163,135) in 2022-23.

#Big 12 Championship Game

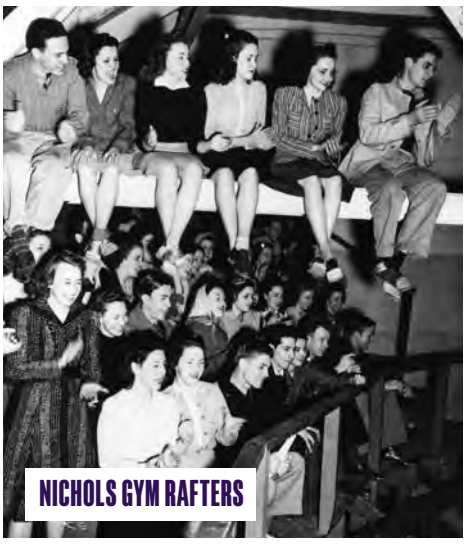
NICHOLS GYM

Home arena for 40 seasons [1911-50] // Officially opened on Jan. 30, 1911 vs. Bethany
Capacity: 2,800

K-State's basketball tradition was born in Nichols Gymnasium located now on the grounds of Nichols Hall on the university campus. The gym achieved its fame, however, more for spawning the movement to build Ahearn Field House and for an arsonist's fire which gutted the structure on Dec. 13, 1968.

Nichols was named after Ernest Nichols, the university's fifth president from 1899-1909. Work on the facility began in February 1910, and was completed in June of that same year at a cost of $84,190.

The Wildcats defeated Bethany in the opener by a 40-20 count, on Jan. 10, 1911 then lost to Missouri, 58-55, in the final game on March 3, 1950.



NICHOLS GYM RAFTERS

Over the years, K-State won 227 games in the building (with a .627 winning percentage), including four seasons - 1916-17 (10-0); 1918-19 (10-0), 1919-20 (10-2) and 1947-48 (10-1) - of 10 victories. The last four teams compiled an impressive 36-5 (.878) record at Nichols Gym, including a 10-1 mark in 1947-48.

Fans at Nichols Gym saw some of the early milestones of the K-State program, including its first three All-Americans F. I. Reynolds (1917), Frank Groves (1937) and Rick Harman (1950) as well as early head coaches Mike Ahearn, Zora G. Clevenger (who would later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame) and Jack Gardner (who later would be inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame).

The school's first two conference championship teams - the Missouri Valley Conference champions in 1917 (15-2) and 1919 (17-2) - both called Nichols Gym home with each of the squads going 10-0 in the building. The school's first Final Four team - 1947-48 - also competed in the arena and posted a 10-1 mark, while its last team won the Big Seven Conference crown in 1949-50.

The seating capacity of Nichols was just 2,800 and by the time it closed, the crowds were easily overflowing. The student body was divided into two groups, and the groups alternated in attendance at every other game. People actually sat on the rafters and practice goals to see the games. That overcrowding problem eventually led to the construction of Ahearn Field House.

Prior to the advent of Nichols Gym, K-State basketball was played in several locales. Among the homecourts were Commercial Hall, the K-State YMCA at 1100 Fremont in Manhattan and various other buildings around the town, including a closed-down skating rink.

The first game ever played on campus, a bout between the student team and the faculty, was staged in the Ag Barn at the north end of campus in January 1906. Twenty-five spectators attended, and the goals were provided by the blacksmith shop.

AHEARN FIELD HOUSE

Home arena for 38 seasons [1950-88] // Officially opened on Dec. 9, 1950 vs. Utah State
Capacity: 11,000-14,000

Ahearn Field House meant different things to different people. To K-Staters, it meant great atmosphere, roaring crowds and Wildcat victories. To opponents, it meant intimidation, deafening noise and likely defeat.

Then legendary Indiana head coach Bob Knight paid the facility one of its biggest compliments by saluting the fans. The Hoosier mentor said, "This has to be the greatest basketball crowd in America."

SOUVENIR PROGRAM
Opening of the
Kansas State College Field House
Saturday, December 9, 1950
Kansas State vs. Utah State
On the Campus of Kansas State College, Manhattan

Over four and half million fans witnessed Ahearn's long and fruitful tenure and saw the Wildcats amass an incredible record of 378-86 (.815) in 38 seasons. Included in those totals are six undefeated seasons - 1951-52 (11-0); 1958-59 (11-0); 1961-62 (10-0); 1969-70 (11-0); 1972-73 (12-0); 1974-75 (12-0) - and an arena-best 16 wins in 1981-82 under head coach Jack Hartman.

K-State averaged almost 10,000 fans for its 464 games in Ahearn Field House and drew an arena record 12,166 fans during the 1968-69 season. In fact, the Wildcats drew 11,000 or more fans 16 times in the history of Ahearn Field House, including nine straight seasons from 1961-62 to 1969-70. The 378 wins are also the second-most at a home venue.

Ahearn's beginning officially started April 16, 1940, with a student rally although athletic director Mike Ahearn had mentioned the need for a new gymnasium several years earlier. The rally took place a full 10 years before the first game was played at the new field house. The student rally kicked off an extended period of student demonstrations, petitions and pleading with state legislators for a new athletics facility which would be home to numerous events. However, at the heart of the matter, was basketball seating, or the lack of it.

As head coach Jack Gardner's Wildcat teams began to take off, so did the demand for tickets in the 2,800-seat Nichols Gymnasium, which had been home to the team for 30 years. The college's enrollment alone was almost twice the seating capacity of Nichols Gym. Students began their field house campaign, which soon grew to be a statewide effort, with the slogan "Let's have a Crackerjack Field House instead of a Crackerbox Coliseum."

After countless petitions and rallies, the students took things a step further in January 1941. With over 100 legislators attending the K-State/Kansas basketball game as guests of the university, a body fell from the rafters of Nichols Gym where many of the students were forced to sit. Although the body was made of straw and covered with ketchup, the point was well taken.

"The way those students sat up on those rafters, it's really a wonder that somebody wasn't injured or killed," said Dev Nelson, the "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1954-79. "When the dummy fell from the rafters, it startled a lot of people."

In time, the long endeavors of the K-State students and supporters paid off with a new $2 million facility, which was the fifth largest in the country at its construction and the largest in Kansas with a seating capacity of 13,000.

The structure opened on Dec. 9, 1950, when K-State defeated Utah State, 66-56 before a sellout crowd. Later that same season, on Jan. 31, 1951, a record crowd of 14,028 crammed in to see the Wildcats crush No. 4 Long Island, 85-65.

The last game in the building took place on March 5, 1988, when K-State defeated Missouri, 92-82, in front of 11,850. The last official capacity for the facility was 11,220 (over the years, seating was reduced due to fire codes).

Ahearn Field House also served as the home venue for K-State's acclaimed men's and women's indoor track and field teams and the women's volleyball squad until 2020. The building served as host for the NCAA Tournament five times (1996, 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2007), while it played host to the conference indoor track meet on two occasions (1976 and 1999). The building was closed to sporting events following the 2020 indoor track season.

T-MOBILE CENTER

19th season [2007-present] // Officially opened on Oct. 10, 2007

T-Mobile CENTER

T-Mobile Center (formerly the Sprint Center) has served as a home away from home for K-State, serving as the host for 13 Wildcat Classic games (2007-12, 2014, 2016, 2018-19, 2022-24), while also serving as the host for Wildcat games in 17 Phillips 66 Big 12 Championships (2008, 2010-present), the 2010, 2015, 2021 and 2025 CBE Hall of Fame Classics and the 2013 NCAA Tournament.

Located in downtown Kansas City, T-Mobile Center opened on Oct. 10, 2007, inaugurated by an Elton John concert three days later on Oct. 13. In addition to the annual Big 12 Championship, the arena has hosted the first and second rounds of the 2009 and 2013 NCAA men's tournaments, plus the regional rounds of the tournament in 2017, 2019 and 2023. It has also hosted the NCAA women's tournament in 2010 and 2018 as well as the NCAA women's volleyball Final Four in 2010 and 2017. It will host the Final Four again in 2025.

K-State played its first game in the arena on Dec. 17, 2007 with an 87-60 win over Florida A&M in the inaugural Wildcat Classic. The team has played host to the Wildcat Classic 13 times in the past 19 seasons, including six in a row from 2007-12. The Wildcats have won 10 of 13 Wildcat Classics, including a 5-game winning streak (No. 23 Alabama, No. 8 Florida, No. 21 Texas A&M, Washington State and Vanderbilt) from 2011-18.

Among the 10 wins are three over ranked teams, including No. 23 Alabama (71-58) in 2011, No. 8 Florida (67-61) in 2012 and No. 21 Texas A&M (71-64) in 2014.

K-State lost just its third game in the Wildcat Classic in 2024, as eventual Missouri Valley Conference champion Drake outlasted the Wildcats, 73-70, in overtime. There will be no Wildcat Classic game in 2025 due to the school's participation in the Hall of Fame Classic.

K-State has played 28 games in 17 Big 12 Championships (2008, 2010-present) held in the T-Mobile Center, including a run to the title game against Kansas in 2010 and 2013. The Wildcats went 1-1 at the most recent Big 12 Championship, defeating Arizona State, 71-66, before losing to Baylor, 70-56, in 2025.

The Wildcats have also played in three installments (2010, 2015, 2021) of the Hall of Fame Classic, which has been played every year since 2001. They have advanced to two championship games in the event, losing to top-ranked Duke in 2010 and No. 9 North Carolina in 2015. They are scheduled to play in the 2025 event on Nov. 20-21 against a field that is expected to include Mississippi State, Nebraska and New Mexico.

INTRUST BANK ARENA

16th season [2010-present] // Officially opened on Jan. 2, 2010

INTRUST Bank. Arena

INTRUST Bank Arena, a 15,004-seat arena in Wichita, has served as a home arena for K-State on four occasions (2011, 2013, 2015, 2017) in the Wichita Wildcat Classic. Typically, the arena has hosted the Wildcats on odd years when they didn't hold a Wildcat Classic at the T-Mobile Center in Kansas City.

The arena opened on Jan. 2, 2010 with the Wildcats staging their first game a little over a year later with former coach Bob Huggins and his West Virginia Mountaineers on Dec. 8, 2011 in the inaugural Wichita Wildcat Classic. The Mountaineers survived a thriller in double overtime, 85-80.

K-State posted its biggest win in the second edition of the Classic with the Wildcats knocking off national power and No. 21 Gonzaga, 72-62, on Dec. 21, 2013. The team has since returned three other times to the arena, defeating Colorado State, 61-56, on Dec. 19, 2015, losing to Tulsa, 61-54, on Dec. 9, 2017 and defeating Wichita State, 65-59, on Dec. 5, 2021.

The arena regularly hosts a wide range of sporting events, including Professional Bullriding Association (PBR), college basketball and NBA and NHL preseason exhibitions. It's home to the ECHL's Wichita Thunder (hockey) and the Wichita Force (Champions Indoor Football League). It has also hosted the NCAA women's basketball tournament in 2011 (first/second-round games) and 2022 (Sweet 16 and Elite Eight) and the NCAA men's basketball tournament in 2018 (Rounds of 64 and 32) as well as in 2025 (Rounds of 64 and 32).

The Wildcats have a long history in the city of Wichita dating back to a meeting with Wichita State on Dec. 17, 1932. The team has twice played an NCAA Tournament game in the city, including advancing to the 1964 Final Four. Most of those matchups have

Season Notes

- K-State posted a 13-15 overall record, including an eighth-place finish in the Big Eight with a 3-11 mark, in coach Dana Altman's first season at the helm. Altman's first roster had just eight seasons of combined Division I experience and was further hampered when freshman Askia Jones missed the season with a broken ankle.
- Twelve of the 28 games were decided by single digits. Of the 15 losses, eight were by single digits, including six by five points or less.
- The non-conference season was highlighted by the BMA Holiday Classic title in Kansas City, which included win over Texas A&M and Murray State. Senior Jean Derouillere was named MVP.
- The Big Eight season was highlighted by a season sweep of Oklahoma for the first time since 1978, including a 95-70 thrashing at home behind a record 63.5 field goal percentage.
- Senior Jeff Wires was an All-Big Eight Second Team selection by the UPI, while seniors Keith Amerson and Jean Derouillere were honorable mention picks by several organizations.

Season Notes

NIT FINAL FOUR

■ K-State posted its first 20-win season since 1987-88, as the Wildcats tallied a 20-14 record, including a 4-10 mark in Big Eight play, and its first trip the NIT Final Four in New York City. The team defeated Mississipi State, Gonzaga and Fresno State before losing to Vanderbilt at Madison Square Garden in the semifinals.

■ Among the 20 wins was a 68-64 upset of No. 1 Kansas at Allen Fieldhouse, which is the one of only 5 wins over the top-ranked team in school history and the first-ever on the road.

■ K-State shattered the school record with 246 made 3-pointers, eclipsing the previous mark of 179 set in 1987-88. Senior Askia Jones also broke the individual single-season record with 110 treys.

■ Jones set the single-game scoring record with a Big Eight record 62 points, including 45 in the second half, in a 117-77 win over Fresno State in the NIT quarterfinals in his final game at Bramlage Coliseum on March 24, 1994. He made a school-record 14 3-pointers (on 18 attempts), including a stretch of 9 in a row.

Season Notes

NCAA EAST FIRST ROUND

- K-State made its 22nd appearance in the NCAA Tournament, including its sixth trip in the last 10 years, to cap a 17-12 season in coach Tom Asbury's second season at the helm. The 10-seeded Wildcats lost to 7-seed New Mexico in the first round.
- K-State was picked to finish seventh in the final Big Eight season but ended the year with a tie for the fourth-place with Oklahoma State. It was the first upper half finish since 1989-90.
- The Wildcats allowed opponents to shoot just 40.1 percent from the field, which was the lowest figure since 1967-68. Only six teams shot above 45 percent in the team's 29 contests. The squad also set a new record with 121 blocked shots.
- Senior Elliot Hatcher became the first Wildcat since Steve Henson in 1989 to be named to the All-Big Eight First Team. Hatcher led the Big Eight in steals (2.4 spg.). In addition, Ayome May was named to the All-Big Eight freshman team.

Season Notes

- K-State posted a 13-17 overall record, including an 11th-place finish in the Big 12 with a 4-12 mark. Although the Wildcats didn't progress in the win-loss column, few can argue they weren't a better team as eight of their 12 conference losses were by single digits.
- The 2002-03 season marked the 100th anniversary of basketball at K-State, as the university released its 13-member All-Century team that included players and coaches from the past century.
- K-State nearly became the first 11-seed to win a game at the Big 12 Championship, however, Colorado banked in a 3-pointer at the buzzer to pull out a 77-76 first-round victory.
- Eleven of the Wildcats' 13 wins, including three of four Big 12 victories, were by double figures.
- Seniors Gilson DeJesus and Pervis Pasco were both named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention team. DeJesus was also selected to the league's All-Underrated Team, while fellow senior Matt Siebrandt earned All-Improved Team honors.

Season Notes

NIT SECOND ROUND

- K-State produced its first 20-win season and advanced to the postseason (NIT) for the first time since 1998-99 in Bob Huggins' first and only season as head coach. The team's win over Vermont in the first round of the NIT was the first postseason victory since 1994. He left to take over as head coach at his alma mater West Virginia after the season where he retired as head coach in 2023.
- The 23 wins were the most-ever by a first-year head coach in school history and the most since the 1987-88 squad tied the school record with 25 victories.
- The Wildcats earned their first bye at the Big 12 Championship with a fourth-place finish and 10-6 record. The 10 Big 12 wins were the most in conference play since posting 11 in 1987-88. During the year, the team snapped Texas' 22-game home court winning streak and swept rivals Colorado, Iowa State and Missouri.
- Junior Cartier Martin was named All-Big 12 Second Team.

NCAA MIDWEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

- K-State advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in nearly 12 years (1996) and collected its first NCAA Tournament win since 1988 with its 80-67 victory over USC in the first round of the NCAA Midwest Regional in Omaha, Neb.
- The Wildcats posted consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time in nearly 20 years (1986-87 and 1987-88), while they achieved 10 conference wins for the first time in the Big 12 era, which resulted in a third-place finish. The third-place finish was the best in conference play since also finishing third in the Big Eight in 1988-89.

- Head coach Frank Martin became just the second first-year coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament.

NIT SECOND ROUND

- K-State posted its third consecutive 20-win season as well as its third trip to the postseason, as the Wildcats won 22 games, including 9 in Big 12 play, and received an at-large bid to the Postseason NIT. The team defeated Illinois State in overtime in the first round before losing to the region's top-seed San Diego State, in round two.
- It marked the first time in 15 years (1991-94) that the team advanced to the postseason in three consecutive seasons, while the three straight 20-win seasons was a first in over 25 years (1979-82).
- K-State became just the second school in Big 12 history to rally from an 0-4 start to get back to at least .500 in league play. The team was just the fourth in the Big 12 era to start winless (0-4 or worse) in league play and advance to the postseason.
- Junior Denis Clemente was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Year as well as Second Team All-Big 12. He was the ESPN.com National Player of the Week on Feb. 2 after tying the Big 12 single-game record with 44 points in a win at No. 11 Texas.

Season Notes

- K-State ended a rebuilding season with back-to-back wins (Iowa State and TCU) to wrap up the 2019-20 season with an 11-21 overall record. The team's quarterfinal matchup with No. 5/5 Baylor in the Big 12 Championship was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The non-winning season snapped a streak of three consecutive 20-win seasons and was the first since 2014-15.
- The Wildcats set school records for both overall losses (21) and conference losses (15). The 21 losses surpassed the previous low of 20 in 1945-46, while the 15 Big 12 defeats eclipsed the 14 in Missouri Valley play in 1922-23. The team finished last in Big 12 play for the first time since finishing 12th in 1999-2000.
- 18 of the 32 games were decided by 10 points or less, including 17 by single digits. The squad lost 13 games by single digits (8 in Big 12) and seven by 5 points or less.
- Senior Xavier Sneed was named honorable mention All-Big 12.

Season Notes

- In one of the most challenging seasons in school history, K-State had to navigate COVID-19 protocols on a near daily basis while fielding one of the nation's youngest teams. The nine wins were the fewest in a season since also posting nine in 1999-2000.
- The Wildcats did respond by winning 4 of their last 6 games, including a home victory over No. 7 Oklahoma and a win at the Phillips 66 Big 12 Championship for the sixth straight season.
- The team was one of the youngest in the country, as it returned just four lettermen while welcoming eight newcomers. The average age of 19.6 years ranked 336th out of 347 teams in Division I.
- Three true freshmen (Davion Bradford, Selton Miguel and Nijel Pack) started in 17 games, including 12 in Big 12 play. The 71 combined starts by freshmen ranked second nationally to Kentucky's 72, while the 17 games with at least three true freshman starters placed third behind Duke (19) and Kentucky (18).
- Senior Mike McGuirl was named honorable mention All-Big 12.

Season Notes

- K-State put itself in a position for a postseason berth by winning 4 games in a 5-game stretch in mid-February, however, the Wildcats could not sustain the momentum, losing their last 6 games to post their third consecutive losing season and end the Bruce Weber era.
- Health was a major storyline for the Wildcats in 2021-22, as 12 of the 16 players listed on the roster combined to miss 107 games. Fifth-year senior Mark Smith was the only player to start every game, as injuries and COVID-19 health and safety protocols forced Weber to use 12 different starting lineups.
- Sophomore Nijel Pack was among 3 Wildcats to earn recognition for their outstanding play, as he was selected as the league Most Improved Player as well as All-Big 12 First Team. He was the first Wildcat to be named the league's Most Improved Player, while he was just the sixth in the Big 12 era to earn First Team honors. Pack was joined by Smith, who was named to the All-Big 12 Third Team and All-Newcomer Team, and junior Markquis Nowell, who was named All-Big 12 honorable mention and to the All-Defensive Team.

NCAA EAST REGIONAL FINAL
FINAL RANKING: No. 15 (AP), No. 9 (USA Today/ESPN)

- K-State defied preseason expectations under first-year head coach Jerome Tang to post a 26-10 record, including a tie for third-place in the Big 12, and the school's 13th trip to the Elite Eight.
- The 26 wins are the third-most in school history, trailing the school-record 29 in 2009-10 and the 27 in 2012-13, and just the eighth 25-win campaign and first since 2017-18.
- The Wildcats tied the school record with 7 Top 25 wins, including one over defending national champion and No. 2/2 Kansas, another at No. 6/6 Texas and a home-and-home sweep of Baylor.
- Seniors Markquis Nowell and Keyontae Johnson formed one of the nation's top tandems en route to becoming the first Wildcat duo to earn AP All-America honors in the same season. Tang was named Naismith National as well as Big 12 Coach of the Year.

Season Notes

■ During a roller coaster of a season that included a 6-game losing streak followed by a 6-game winning streak, K-State could not overcome a disappointing non-conference season, as the Wildcats finished with a 16-17 overall record, including a tie for ninth place with TCU in the new-look 16-team Big 12 with a 9-11 mark.

■ Among the 16 wins were 10 over teams that advanced to the postseason (3 NCAA Tournament, 1 NIT and 6 College Basketball Crown), including ranked wins over No. 3/3 Iowa State, No. 16/17 Cincinnati, No. 16/17 Kansas and No. 23/23 West Virginia.

■ Seniors Coleman Hawkins and David N'Guessan were both lauded for their outstanding seasons, as Hawkins was named to the All-Big 12 Third Team while N'Guessan was selected Honorable Mention. Hawkins was the only Division I player to average 10.0 points, 6.5 rebounds, 4 assists, 1.5 steals and 1.0 blocks per game. The Wildcats' leading scorer (13.3 ppg.) and rebounder (7.2 rpg.), N'Guessan led the Big 12 with a 64.4 field goal percentage while ranking in the league's top 20 in both scoring and rebounding.

1. Jacob Pullen [2,132]

G // 6-0 // 185 // Maywood, Ill.
(Proviso East)

The school's all-time leading scorer (2,132 points) and just the second Wildcat (joining Mike Evans) to eclipse 2,000 career points... Pullen set the career scoring mark with 38 points vs. Wisconsin (3/19/11) in the NCAA Tournament, which are the most points by a Wildcat in an NCAA Tournament game... The first three-time team captain in school history, he was twice named an All-American (2010, 2011) and was a three-time All-Big 12 selection (2009, 2010, 2011)... He was named as the 2011 winner of the Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award, which goes to the best player 6-foot and under by the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame... He is the first Wildcat with at least 1,800 points, 400 assists, 300 rebounds and 200 steals and the first to post at least 600 points in consecutive seasons, including the fourth player to top 700 points in a single season... His 37 consecutive double-digit scoring games are the longest single-season streak and the second-longest overall in school history.

2. Mike Evans [2,115]

G // 6-1 // 165 // Goldsboro, N.C.
(Laurinburg Prep)

One of the most prolific scorers in school history, Evans was the first Wildcat to score 2,000 career points and currently ranks second on the all-time scoring list with 2,115 points... He still places among the Top 10 in a number of single-game, season and/or career categories in school history, including tops in career field goals made (890) and field goals attempted (1,810), second in career scoring and third in career double-digit scoring games (93) and career 20-point games (40)... He is the only Wildcat to score 500 or more points in three separate seasons... A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year, he averaged 18.3 points as a junior in guiding the Wildcats to both the Big Eight regular-season and tournament titles and a trip to the Midwest Regional Final... 4. Askia Jones [1,834]

G // 6-5 // 200 // San Antonio, Texas
(Marshall)

Perhaps best known for his school-record 62-point effort vs. Fresno State in 1994 Postseason NIT, Jones finished his four-year playing career (1989-94) with 1,834 points... Many of his accolades from that game still stand, as he holds records for most points in a half (45), most 3-point field goals made (14) and attempted (18)... During his senior year in 1993-94, he became the second Wildcat to score 700 or more points in a single season... His name still ranks among the best in many single-season and career 3-point categories, including first in single-season made (110) and attempted (279) and most by a sophomore (78; 1991-92), second in career attempted (624) and third in career made (237).

5. Barry Brown, Jr. [1,781]

G // 6-3 // 195 // St. Petersburg, Fla.
(Gibbs)

The school's all-time leader in games played (139) as well as consecutive games played (139), Brown is considered not only as one of the program's most durable players but also one of the best defensive players in its long history... His 254 steals not only shattered the school's all-time mark by more than 44, it ranks as the six-th-most in Big 12 history... A semifinalist for the Naismith National Defensive Player of the Year, he became the first Wildcat to be selected as the conference's Defensive Player of the Year in the Big 12 era and the first since Rolando Blackman won it in back-to-back seasons in 1979 and 1980.

6. Bob Boozer [1,685]

F // 6-8 // 215 // Omaha, Neb.
(Tech)

Considered to be K-State's most decorated player, Boozer was the landslide vote-getter for the school's All-Century Team released in 2003 and remains the only Wildcat to be a two-time consensus first team All-American... Despite playing more than 50 years ago, he still ranks among numerous Top 10 lists for single-game, single-season and career record, including first in career 20-point games (45), second in career scoring average (21.9 ppg.) and 30-point games (10), fourth in career rebounds (824) and fifth in career points (1,685)... Bob Boozer forward // omaha, neb. // 1956-59

Considered to be the school's most decorated player, Boozer was the landslide vote-getter for the All-Century Basketball Team released in 2003 and remains the only Wildcat to be a two-time consensus first team All-American... A three-time letterman for legendary coach Tex Winter, he helped the school post a 62-15 overall record from 1956-59 with two conference titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances highlighted by the 1958 Final Four... A first team All-American in both 1957-58 and 1958-59, he averaged a double-double for his 77-game career with 21.9 points and 10.7 rebounds per game... He is one of two players (Willie Murrell) to average 20 points and 10 rebounds in a career... In addition to All-America honors, he was the first Wildcat to be named Big Eight Player of the Year (in both 1958 and 1959) and the second to earn first team all-conference three times... A native of Omaha, Neb., he averaged a then school-record 25.6 points per game as a senior en route to leading the school to the 1958-59 Big Eight regular-season title with a 14-0 mark and the No. 1 ranking in the final regular season poll... His single-season scoring mark stood for nearly 50 years until Michael Beasley, who also wore No. 30 on his jersey, averaged 26.2 points in 2007-08... It was common knowledge that when K-State was in trouble, the Wildcats would clear one side and provide a double-pick for a 20-foot Boozer jump shot... As one rival head coach once said, "I knew he would shoot, my players knew he would shoot, the good Father above knew he was going to shoot, but we couldn't do anything about it."... Although he played more than 50 years ago, he still ranks among numerous Top 10 lists for single-game, single-season and career records at K-State, including first in career 20-point games (45) and career double-doubles (42), second in career scoring average (21.9 ppg.) and 30-point games (10), fourth in career rebounds (824) and sixth in career points (1,685)... He still owns the all-time marks for free throws made (529) and attempted (702), while his 23 makes (on 26 attempts) against Purdue on Dec. 1, 1958 remains No. 1 for the most free throws made in school history... The first Wildcat to play on an Olympic team, he was part of the gold-medal winning 1960 U.S. Olympic team that was enshrined into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010... Touted as the greatest team in Olympic history, the 1960 U.S. squad went 8-0 in winning gold in Rome, averaging 101.9 points a game and posting an average margin of victory of 42.4 points... Selected with the No. 1 pick of the 1959 NBA Draft by the Cincinnati Royals, he went on to play 11 seasons (1959-71) in the NBA for six teams, leading the Milwaukee Bucks to the 1971 NBA title... He scored 12,964 points (14.8 ppg.) on 46.2 percent shooting during his pro career with 7,119 rebounds and 1,237 assists in 874 games... Charter member of the K-State Athletics Hall of Fame in 1990... Selected to Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1996... No. 30 jersey was honored in 2005... Selected to the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016... Passed away on May 18, 2012.

forward // norfolk, va. // 2022-23

Johnson enjoyed a storybook season in 2022-23 after joining the Wildcats from Florida, where he experienced a medical emergency in a game against Florida State on Dec. 12, 2020, which sidelined him for much of the 2020-21 and 2021-22 seasons... After being cleared in August 2022, Johnson went on to an All-American season in guiding the Wildcats to a 26-win season and trip to the Elite Eight... Averaged 17.4 points on a Big 12-best 51.6 percent shooting to go with a team-best 6.8 rebounds and 2.1 assists in 34.1 minutes per game... Was one of just two players to rank in Big 12's top-5 in both scoring and rebounding in all games and Big 12-only games... Finished fourth in scoring and fifth in rebounding, while he was third in both scoring (18.1 ppg.) and rebounding (6.9 rpg.) in Big 12-only games... Scored in double figures in 34 of 36 games (with 10 games of 20 or more points), which tied for the second-most in school history and the most since Jacob Pullen set the school record in 2009-10... One of just 12 players in school history to eclipse 600 points in a single season... Was selected to a number of All-America teams, including the Third Team by the Associated Press and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC)... Was also one of five finalists for the Julius Erving Award, which goes annually to the top small forward... Was named to the All-Big 12 First Team by the coaches and AP, while was the unanimous Big 12 Newcomer of the Year... Finished his college career with 1,416 points on 51.9 percent shooting, which included a 3-year stint at Florida (2018-21)... Became the latest Wildcat to be drafted, as he was selected with the 50th pick by the Oklahoma City Thunder in the 2023 NBA Draft... Currently plays for the Charlotte Hornets.

Markquis Nowell

guard // harlem, n.y. // 2021-23

Led the Wildcats to a thrilling run to the Elite Eight to cap a 26-win season in 2022-23... Finished second nationally in assists/game (8.3 apg.), total assists (297) and total steals (92) en route to earning the Bob Cousy Award as the nation's top point guard... Capped his career with a remarkable run through the NCAA Tournament, where he was selected as the Most Outstanding Player of the East Regional after averaging 23.5 points, 13.5 assists and 4.0 steals during the team's four-game run... His 54 assists are the third-most in the tournament's history, which included a tournament and school-record 19 assists in the overtime win over Michigan State... Set the career (13) and single-season (10) record for points/assists double-doubles, which included the school's only two 30-point/10-assist double-doubles... Scored nearly 2,000 points in his college career (1,941 points), including 968 points at K-State — the second-most by a Division I transfer in school history... ALL-CENTURY TEAM

100 years of Kansas State Men's Basketball // 1903-2003
The 13-person team was selected as part of K-State's All-Century celebration in 2003

Ernie Barrett guard // wellington, kan. // 1948-51

Affectionately known as "Mr. K-State," Ernie Barrett enjoyed a storybook senior season in 1950-51, as he led the Wildcats to the NCAA Championship game, earned first team All-America honors from the Helms Foundation, The Sporting News and International News Service and played on the team that opened iconic Ahearn Field House.

Rolando Blackman guard // brooklyn, n.y. // 1977-81

One of just three players to earn first team All-America honors in consecutive seasons, Rolando Blackman was selected as a first team All-American as a senior in 1980-81 when he was chosen to the Helms Foundation, The Sporting News, Converse Yearbook and John R. Wooden Award teams in helping K-State to the 1981 West Regional Final... He was also the 1980 Big Eight Player of the Year and twice named Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year.

Bob Boozer forward // omaha, neb. // 1956-59

Considered to be K-State's most decorated player, Bob Boozer was the landslide vote-getter for the All-Century Basketball Team and remains the only Wildcat to be a two-time consensus first team All-American... A three-time letterman for head coach Tex Winter, he was a first team All-American in 1957-58 and 1958-59 and averaged a double-double for his 77-game career with 21.9 points on 44 percent shooting with 10.7 rebounds per game.

Mike Evans guard // goldsboro, n.c. // 1974-78

The first player in school history to total 2,000 career points, Mike Evans earned first team All-America honors from the Helms Foundation as a senior in 1978... In addition to his All-America accolades, he is one of just two players to be named Big Eight Player of the Year twice (1977, 1978) and one of just three to receive the honor.

Steve Henson guard // mcpherson, kan. // 1986-90

The first player to lead the school to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments, Steve Henson was once described as "K-State's stick of dynamite"... Considered the school's greatest point guard, he broke 21 school records and etched his name among the Top 10 in 41 categories... He still owns career marks for assists (582), free throw percentage (90.0), minutes played (4,474) and consecutive starts (118).

Lon Kruger guard // silver lake, kan. // 1971-74

One of only two K-State players ever to be named the Big Eight Player of the Year twice, Lon Kruger led the Wildcats to a pair of Big Eight Championships and two Elite Eight appearances during his three seasons playing for head coach Jack Hartman... He is one of only three Wildcats to earn Academic All-America honors twice.

Ed Nealy forward // bonner springs, kan. // 1978-82

The only player to earn All-America honors on and off the court, Ed Nealy was a four-year letterman for coach Jack Hartman from 1978-82, leading the Wildcats to 85 wins and three NCAA Tournament appearances... He is the only Wildcat to total more than 1,000 career points and rebounds with a school-best 1,069 career boards.

Jack Parr center // richmond, va. // 1955-58

Known for his hook shot and a soft "face the basket" jumper playing for Tex Winter, the two-time All-American Jack Parr still ranks among the Top 10 in several school statistical categories, including first in both single season (14.5 rpg.) and career (12.7 rpg.) rebounding averages and second in career double-doubles (40).

Mitch Richmond forward // fort lauderdale, fla. // 1986-88

One of the more recognizable players in school history, Mitch Richmond led K-State to a then school-record tying 25-wins, a second-place finish in the Big Eight and the 1988 Elite Eight... His 1,327 points are the most by a player in a two-year career, while his 786 points as a junior in 1987-88 rank second on the single season list.

Chuckie Williams guard // columbus, ohio // 1972-76

One of the school's most potent scorers, Chuckie Williams paced the Wildcats in scoring at 22.1 points per game en route to the 1975 Elite Eight... His 47 points vs. Holy Cross in 1975 stood as the school record for 19 years.

COACHES

Jack Gardner head coach // 1939-42, 1946-53

A member of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, Jack Gardner led the Wildcats to 146 wins during two stints as head coach (1939-42; 1946-53) to go with two Final Fours (1948, 1951) and three Big Seven titles.

Fred "Tex" Winter head coach // 1953-68

A member of both the Naismith and National Collegiate Basketball Halls of Fame, Tex Winter led the Wildcats to 261 wins as head coach (1953-68) to go with two Final Fours (1959, 1968) and eight Big Seven/Eight titles.

Jack Hartman head coach // 1970-86

The program's all-time winningest coach with 295 victories from 1970-86, Jack Hartman helped the Wildcats to seven NCAA Tournament, including four trips to the Elite Eights, as well as four Big Eight Championships.

[6] K-STATE	31	44	—	75

▶ 11-seed Minnesota jumped out to a 14-point lead just 11 minutes into the first half en route to an 86-75 win over 6-seed K-State in the first round of the East Regional at the Greensboro Coliseum in Greensboro, N.C.

▶ The Gophers never trailed after Kevin Lynch's 3-pointer less 3 minutes into the game, as they connected on 51.9 percent (27-of-52) from the field, including 66.7 percent (8-of-12) from 3-point range.

2008 | MIDWEST REGIONAL FIRST ROUND

March 20, 2008 | Omaha, Neb. / Qwest Center

[6] USC	27	40	—	67
[11] K-STATE	37	43	—	80

▶ Led by a bevy of talented freshmen, 11-seed Kansas State won its first NCAA Tournament game in 20 years with an 80-67 victory over 6-seed USC in the Midwest Regional first round before 17,162 fans at the Qwest Center in Omaha.

▶ Four Wildcat freshmen scored in double figures led by All-American Michael Beasley, who paced all scorers with 23 points on 7-of-12 shooting to go with a game-high 11 rebounds. It was his 27th double-double of the season.

▶ Beasley was joined in double figures by redshirt freshman Bill Walker, who had 22 points, along with true freshmen teammates Jacob Pullen and Ron Anderson, who had 11 and 10 points, respectively, off the bench.

▶ For K-State, it is used to big things from the Player of the Year candidate Beasley, but it was his supporting cast who made the difference in the first NCAA Tournament win since 1988. The Wildcats jumped out to a 10-point halftime lead before leading by as many as 17 points late in the second half.

▶ Walker carried the load in the early going, scoring 17 in the first half and hitting a dagger of a 3-pointer in the closing minutes. Pullen, a lightning-quick guard, doled out five assists to go with his 11 points. Anderson, averaging only 3.1 points per game, scored 10 and grabbed 8 rebounds in 21 minutes to help the Wildcats dominate the Trojans on the boards, 44-27.

▶ Another K-State freshman - Dominique Sutton - stuck to USC star O.J. Mayo like a nagging cold, helping limit the freshman to 6-of-16 shooting. Mayo led the Trojans with 20 points, but it didn't matter. He was joined in double figures by Davon Jefferson (15 points) and Taj Gibson (10 points).

▶ Walker's first 3-pointer just a over minute into the contest gave K-State a lead that it would keep the rest of the first half, as they broke open a tight contest with a 7-1 run. He led all scorers with 17 points at the break.

▶ After the Trojans tied the game at 48 with 12:40 remaining, the Wildcats used a 13-5 run to pull back ahead 61-53 with under 9 minutes to play. After a pair of free throws by Daniel Hackett cut the deficit to 5 points with 5:57, Wildcat freshmen combined for 15 of the next 19 points to put the team ahead 76-60 with under 2 minutes left to put the game away.

▶ Among K-State's 44 rebounds were 21 offensive rebounds that the team turned into 22 second-chance points compared to just 3 for USC.

2008 | MIDWEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 22, 2008 | Omaha, Neb. / Qwest Center

[3] Wisconsin	39	33	—	72
[11] K-STATE	33	22	—	55

▶ Trevon Hughes matched his career-high with a game-high 25 points, as 3-seed Wisconsin eliminated 11-seed Kansas State from the NCAA Tournament with a 72-55 win on March 22 in the second round of the Midwest Regional before 17,162 fans at the Qwest Center in Omaha.

▶ Michael Flowers had 15 points and Greg Stiemsma 14 for the Badgers, who advanced to the regional semifinals for the first time since 2005.

▶ Wisconsin's top-rated defense held the K-State to just 55 points on 39.6 percent shooting (21-of-53), including 34.6 percent (9-of-25) after halftime. The Wildcats also missed all 13 of their 3-point field goal attempts, while they managed just 4 assists to 13 turnovers.

▶ Offensively, the Badgers were the picture of efficiency, connecting on 52.2 percent (24-of-46) from the field, including 40.9 percent (9-of-22) from 3-point range. They hit on better than 50 percent in each half.

▶ All-American Michael Beasley recorded his 28th double-double in what would be his final game as a Wildcat with 23 points and 13 rebounds, but he had only 6 points after halftime as the Badgers outscored the Wildcats, 33-22.

▶ Hughes, who had 8 points in a 71-56 first-round win over Cal State Fullerton, scored in double figures for the first time in seven games and had his biggest output since scoring 25 in the season opener against IPFW. He scored 8 points in a 13-2 run over the first and second halves to break open the game, and hit four of the Badgers' nine 3-pointers.

▶ Flowers paced Wisconsin early with three of the team's seven first-half 3-pointers. Jason Bohannon's 3 broke a 10-10 tie, and back-to-back 3s by Flowers put Wisconsin up 32-20. A Beasley dunk got the Wildcats back within 36-33, but the Badgers got another 3 from Flowers to lead 39-33 at halftime.

▶ Bill Walker was the only other Wildcat in double figures with 18 points, but he wasn't much of a factor in the first half after scoring 22 points. But he was the best thing going in the second half where he scored 10 of his 18 points.

▶ The Badgers led by more than double figures in the second half, turning a 39-33 halftime lead into a 14-point lead with 15:20 to play. The Wildcats got to within 58-49 with 9 to play, but a quick 14-2 run ended any hopes of a further comeback as the lead grew to 21 points with 3:35 remaining.

March 18, 2010 | Oklahoma City, Okla. / Ford Center

[15] North Texas	25	37	—	62
[2] K-STATE	41	41	—	82

▶ Led by Denis Clemente's 17 points, four Wildcats scored in double figures as second-seeded Kansas State advanced in the NCAA Tournament with an 82-62 win over North Texas on March 18 in the first round of the West Regional before 13,382 fans at the Ford Center in Oklahoma City.

▶ In addition to Clemente's 17 points, Curtis Kelly and Jacob Pullen each added 15. Dominique Sutton also pitched in 12 for the Wildcats, who shot 51 percent from the floor in the win. K-State's defense held North Texas to 30 percent shooting for the game and forced 16 Mean Green turnovers.

▶ Holding a 16-point advantage at the half, K-State extended its lead to 21 in the first four minutes of the second half on a Clemente lay-up. A McGruder three with 12:50 left matched the largest lead of the contest up to that point at 59-38 before a Wally Judge bucket pushed the margin to 62-38. The Wildcats held their largest lead of the game at 26 midway through the second half.

▶ North Texas would get to within 14 at 69-55 before a Kelly turnaround made it 71-55 and jump-started a 6-0 K-State scoring run to close out the win.

▶ Tristan Thompson led North Texas (24-9) with 28 points, while Eric Tramiel and George Odufuwa added 11 and 10 points, respectively. Odufuwa had a double-double with a game-high 10 rebounds.

▶ The Wildcats scored the game's first five points but the Mean Green answered and took their first lead at 8-7 with 15:26 left. With 11:21 remaining in the first half, the Wildcats held on to a 14-8 lead after two Kelly put-backs.

▶ Following a turnover and a foul, two Sutton free throws gave K-State its first double-digit lead of the game at 24-14. Pullen's driving layup then pushed the lead to 26-14 with 6:40 left in the half, forcing North Texas into a timeout. K-State took a 30-16 lead on a Clemente to Sutton fast break layup before Pullen's three with 3:50 left upped the margin to 35-18.

▶ Clemente hit consecutive three's to make it 41-25 at the half as the backcourt duo of Pullen and Clemente each had 11 first-half points. K-State held North Texas to just five field goals in the first half (20 percent) but the Mean Green were 13-of-18 from the free throw line.

▶ The Wildcats scored 46 of their 82 points in the paint, while they turned the 16 Mean Green turnovers into 17 points.

POSTSEASON

2010 | WEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 20, 2010 | Oklahoma City, Okla. / Ford Center

[7] BYU	31	41	—	72
[2] K-STATE	41	43	—	84

▶ Kansas State erased two early double-digit deficits and guards Jacob Pullen and Denis Clemente combined for 53 points as the seventh-ranked Wildcats advanced to the Sweet 16 with an 84-72 win over BYU on March 20 in the second round of the West Regional at the Ford Center.

▶ The matchup was hyped to be a battle of top guards and Pullen provided the firepower with a game and career-high 34 points, which included seven three-point field goals. Clemente added 19 as the two combined to go 13-for-13 at the free throw line to pace the Wildcats. Curtis Kelly chipped in 10 points.

▶ The Wildcats shot 41 percent and hit 11 3-pointers. But, the Wildcats' performance at the free throw line was the story as they went a season-best 27-of-30 on the night, which included an 11-of-12 effort down the stretch.

▶ K-State had to play catch up in the first half as BYU (30-6) opened the game with a 10-0 run to take control early. Pullen's three and a Clemente runner made it 12-9. But, the Cougars made another run to put the lead back to 10, 23-13.

▶ Pullen, who scored 20 points in the first half, hit his fifth three of the half to give the Wildcats a 10-point advantage at the break, 41-31. K-State hit on 13-of-14 free throws in the opening half and connected on six three-point attempts while holding BYU to 37 percent shooting and forcing nine turnovers.

▶ K-State maintained a 10-point lead in the opening minutes of the second half until BYU closed to within 45-40 with 16:25 left. A Judge jumper and another Pullen three upped the lead back to 10 at 50-40 with 15:31 left and Clemente's runner upped it back to seven at 55-48 after BYU cut it to five.

▶ BYU would only get as close as 55-50 the rest of the way as Clemente and McGruder each hit big three's to keep the lead at double digits. BYU closed it to 66-59 but Pullen answered yet again with a big three and a defensive stand that culminated with a Samuels block secured a 71-61 lead.

▶ K-State went on to hit 11 free throws down the stretch to close out the win.

2010 | WEST REGIONAL FINALS

March 27, 2010 | Salt Lake City, Utah / EnergySolutions Arena

[5] Butler	27	36	—	63
[2] K-STATE	20	36	—	56

▶ Kansas State's historic 2009-10 season came to an end as the Butler Bulldogs held off a second-half surge from the Wildcats to take a 63-56 win in the West Regional Final at EnergySolutions Arena and advance to the Final Four.

▶ The 2009-10 Wildcats will go down as the winningest team in school history with their 29-8 record this season and the postseason run through the NCAA Tournament was one Wildcat fans will not soon forget.

▶ Despite trailing almost the entire game, K-State rallied as Denis Clemente made a three-pointer with 4:49 left to cap an 8-0 run and give the Cats their only lead of the game, 52-51.

▶ Butler's Gordon Hayward then got fouled going to the hole and made two free throws to take the lead back, and teammate Matt Howard made one more free throw to make it 54-52. Clemente dribbled for a layup to tie the score at 54, and that was the last significant basket the Wildcats would make.

▶ Clemente led the Wildcats with 18 points in his final college game, while Curtis Kelly and Jacob Pullen each had 14. K-State was out-rebounded by Butler, 41-29, while the Bulldogs held the edge at the free throw line.

▶ Down 7 at the half, Clemente hit a free throw and connected on the team's first three-pointer of the contest to pull within three at 27-24. Two Pullen free throws capped a 6-0 Cat run to open the half before Butler answered with seven straight to go up 34-26. The Bulldog lead would then grow to as many as 10 on two occasions before the Wildcats made their late charge.

▶ Butler grabbed the early 10-4 lead in the game as K-State hit just two of its first eight shots from the field. The Bulldogs hustled their way to a 20-10 lead as the Cats connected on just five of their first 20 shots. But, Kelly answered with four straight to pull within six before Butler scored five in a row to go ahead 23-14. Down 27-16, the Cats closed the half with a Luis Colon tip-in and a Clemente layup to get back to within seven at the break, 27-20.

▶ The 20 first-half points were the fewest in a half for the Wildcats, as they hit on just 35 percent of its field goals while committing eight turnovers. Clemente and Pullen combined for just two points in the first half.

2011 | SOUTHEAST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 17, 2011 | Tucson, Ariz. / McKale Arena

[12] Utah State	22	40	—	68
[5] K-STATE	33	46	—	73

▶ Jacob Pullen had a big game after an illness kept him out of practice the day before and fifth-seeded Kansas State held off Utah State 73-68 in the first round of the Southeast Regional by making its free throws down the stretch before 10,293 fans at the McKale Arena in Tucson, Ariz.

▶ A 64 percent foul-shooting team during the regular season, K-State (23-10) made 11 of 14 from the line in the final 1:08 and 24 of 28 overall to move into the third round of the Southeast region against Wisconsin.

▶ Pullen paced four Wildcats in double figures with a game-high 22 points to go with 5 assists, while Curtis Kelly chipped in 15 points. Rodney McGruder and Shane Southwell added 10 points each.

▶ K-State seemed to be in control coming out of halftime, leading by 11 after Pullen scored 10 points despite missing practice due to a fever.

▶ The Wildcats had been good at closing teams of late, but reverted back to their old ways in the second half, stringing together miscues at both ends while Utah State (30-4) hit a series of big shots to climb back in it.

▶ Tai Wesley overcame early foul trouble to score 18 points, Brockeith Pane added 17 and Pooh Williams 16 in what was a superb season at Utah State.

▶ It was a game of strengths: K-State's swarming D vs. Utah State's patient offense. The Wildcats' goal was to disrupt the Aggies' offensive sets, not let them get to the spots they want on the floor or get the ball into Wesley in the post.

▶ K-State did just that in the first half, making every shot a chore for the Aggies, even the ones that went in. Wesley was almost nonexistent, limited to two points and three shots due to foul trouble.

▶ Wesley helped USU keep K-State in sight by getting to the rim, scoring eight quick points. The Aggies, who trailed by as much as 14, kept hanging around and made one last push, pulling within 56-50 when Rodney McGruder was called for an intentional foul on Pane - Brady Jardine hit the free throws when Pane hurt his arm - and Williams threw down a dunk.

▶ Wesley and Pane kept hitting shots and K-State kept making mistakes, but USU couldn't get any closer. The Wildcats made sure of that, answering anything the Aggies threw at them down the stretch by hitting from the line.

2011 | SOUTHEAST REGIONAL THIRD ROUND

March 19, 2011 | Tucson, Ariz. / McKale Arena

[4] Wisconsin	36	34	—	70
[5] K-STATE	30	35	—	65

▶ Jacob Pullen tied a school-record with 38 points in his final college game but it wasn't enough, as 4-seed Wisconsin advanced to the Sweet 16 with a 70-65 win over 5-seed K-State in third round of the Southeast Regional before 11,267 fans at the McKale Arena in Tucson, Ariz.

▶ Pullen won the individual matchup of marquee point guards, scoring anywhere and everywhere while Jordan Taylor clanged one shot after another. When it was over, Taylor was the one headed to the next round of the NCAA tournament, leaving Pullen dejected and wiping away tears with his jersey.

▶ Finding ways to contribute even when his shots weren't falling, Taylor made the biggest plays of the game down the stretch, hitting two big free throws and blocking Pullen's tying 3-point attempt in the closing seconds to seal the win.

▶ Josh Gasser sealed it with two more free throws, sending the Badgers (25-8) into the round of 16 for the fourth time since 2000.

▶ Pullen poured his heart into what turned out to be his final game, almost single-handedly keeping the Wildcats (23-11) in it. He shot 6 of 8 from 3-point range and broke Mike Evans' school career scoring mark (2,115 points).

▶ After a get-a-feel-for-it start, Wisconsin was able to establish its tempo in the first half against K-State, working the ball around to set up shots along the perimeter. The Badgers hit 5 of 10 3-pointers in the first half to lead 36-30.

▶ Pullen got the Wildcats back in it quickly in the second half. He opened by pulling up for a 3-pointer, then set up a layup and added another 3-pointer to cap a 9-0 run. K-State was back to its swarming ways at the defensive end to complement Pullen's shooting, forcing Wisconsin to miss its first six shots.

▶ The Badgers went through another string of missed shots and rallied to set up Taylor's finishing flourish that sent Wisconsin to the Sweet 16.

2012 | EAST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 15, 2012 | Pittsburgh, Pa. / CONSOL Energy Center

[9] Southern Miss	27	37	—	64
[8] K-STATE	30	40	—	70

▶ Freshman Angel Rodriguez overcame early jitters to score seven of his 13 points in the final 2:10 as 8-seed Kansas State surged past 9-seed Southern Miss, 70-64, in the first round of the NCAA East Regional before 18,927 fans at the CONSOL Energy Center in Pittsburgh, Pa.

▶ Southern Miss, making its first NCAA appearance in 21 years, pulled within 62-59 on a steal and dunk by Darnell Dodson with 2:34 to play.

▶ Rodriguez, handed the starting job in January after the Wildcats got off to a slow start in Big 12 play, calmly dribbled on the wing after a timeout then slipped past two defenders before hitting a nifty reverse lay-up.

▶ K-State's defense tightened up, and Rodriguez nailed five free throws over the final 57 seconds to send the Wildcats into a matchup with 2-seed Syracuse.

▶ Rodney McGruder led K-State (22-10) with 30 points - including 18 in the first half when the Wildcats could muster little else - and center Jordan Henriquez-Roberts added 15 points, nine rebounds and six blocks for K-State, which won its opening NCAA game for the third straight year.

▶ The Golden Eagles overcame some early jitters to build a five-point lead midway through the second half but couldn't win in coach Larry Eustachy's return to the game's biggest stage.

▶ After a Dodson 3-pointer gave USM a 45-40 lead, K-State responded with an 18-6 run led by McGruder and Henriquez-Roberts, who combined for 13 points during the burst, including a 3-pointer by McGruder that hit every inch of the rim before rolling in, for a 58-51 advantage with 4:30 remaining.

▶ No Wildcat was bigger or tougher than Henriquez-Roberts. The center dominated the lane, swatting six shots and altering a handful of others. A 52 percent free-throw shooter - he made 9-of-10 at the line to give McGruder some help after a first half in which McGruder singlehandedly kept K-State in front.

▶ K-State connected on 50 percent (21-of-42) from the field, including 58.8 percent (10-of-17) in the second half, while hitting on 76.5 percent (26-of-34) from the free throw line.

POSTSEASON

2012 | EAST REGIONAL THIRD ROUND

March 17, 2012 | Pittsburgh, Pa. / CONSOL Energy Center

[1] Syracuse	25	50	—	75
[8] K-STATE	24	35	—	59

▶ Scoop Jardine had 16 points and eight assists to lead top-seeded Syracuse to a 75-59 win over 8-seed Kansas State in the third round of the NCAA East Regional before 18,588 fans at the CONSOL Energy Center in Pittsburgh, Pa.

▶ Dion Waiters had 18 points and James Southerland added 15 for the Orange (33-2), who didn't wait until the final minutes to seal the win as they did in the second round against 16th-seeded UNC Asheville.

▶ Syracuse blew open a one-point halftime lead with a 50-point second-half, as they hit on 66.7 percent (14-of-21) of their shots, including 5-of-5 from 3-point range, while making 17 of 21 attempts from the free throw line.

▶ Rodney McGruder had 15 points for the Wildcats, who struggled from the field against Syracuse's 2-3 zone defense. He had 30 points in the win over Southern Miss but he was just 5 of 13 from the field against the Orange.

▶ After scoring fewer than 70 points in five of its last seven games, the Orange flipped the script against the Wildcats with a strong second half, as Southerland was 5 of 6 from the field and Jardine and Waiters were each 5 of 9.

▶ With Waiters going 7 of 7 and Joseph 7 of 8, Syracuse finished 23 of 29 from the free throw line, while K-State was just 13 of 19.

▶ Jordan Henriquez-Roberts had a double-double with 14 points and 17 rebounds, as the Wildcats dominated the boards throughout, finishing with a 41-32 advantage. Henriquez had 11 of the team's 25 offensive rebounds, but they were only able to turn them into 20 second-chance points.

▶ Syracuse, which didn't take the lead for good against Asheville until there were 6 minutes to play and then saw the Bulldogs get within three points three times in the closing 1:20, took the lead for good with 18:20 to go on a 3-pointer by Jardine. The Orange pushed the lead to double figures on two free throws by Southerland that made it 45-34 with 12:52 to play.

▶ Neither team had its leading rebounder. Syracuse's 7-foot Fab Melo, the Big East Defensive Player of the Year, was declared ineligible by the school earlier in the week. About 20 minutes before the start of this game, K-State announced that Jamar Samuels would be held out over an eligibility issue.

2013 | WEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 22, 2013 | Kansas City, Mo. / Sprint Center

[13] La Salle	44	19	—	63
[4] K-STATE	26	35	—	61

▶ 4-seed Kansas State nearly completed a miracle comeback, rallying from a 19-point deficit to take multiple lead in the second half, before three straight free throws by Jerrell Wright helped La Salle hold on for a 63-61 win in the second round of the West Regional at the Sprint Center in Kansas City.

▶ The Wildcats (27-8) stormed out of the locker room in the second half going on a 20-5 run to eventually take a lead with just over seven minutes left.

▶ Wright, who led all scorers with 21 points for the Explorers (22-9), made the first two free throws to give La Salle a 62-61 lead. Jordan Henriquez-Roberts missed in the paint on the other end, and Wright made the first of two more foul shots with 9.6 seconds to go.

▶ The Wildcats (27-8) raced down court, looking for a tying basket, but point guard Angel Rodriguez got hung up in the corner near the K-State bench. His off-balance shot over the corner of the backboard missed everything, and the Explorers jumped off their bench to celebrate.

▶ Henriquez-Roberts and Shane Southwell scored 17 points each for K-State, which trailed 44-26 at the break but managed to claw back into the game with some scrappy defense.

▶ Those open 3-pointers in the first half the Explorers had been pouring in were replaced with brick shots and air balls, their weary legs starting to show. And those lousy passes and missed layups by K-State were replaced with crisp feeds for open looks around the basket.

▶ Henriquez-Roberts, the Wildcats' 7-footer, started to take advantage of a six-inch advantage in the paint, scoring six points during their 20-5 run to open the half. When he checked out, bruising post player Thomas Gipson kept the pressure on, demoralizing the smaller Explorers.

▶ Gipson's basket in the paint drew K-State within 56-55, and then a put-back by McGruder gave the Wildcats their first lead of the game with 7:10 remaining.

▶ Wright's two foul shots with just over 4 minutes left in the game knotted it 60-all, and Henriquez-Roberts' free throw with 2:25 remaining gave K-State the lead. But McGruder missed a closely guarded jumper on the Wildcats' next trip, and then rattled out a 3-pointer. The misfires gave the Explorers the opening they needed to finish off a memorable upset.

2014 | MIDWEST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 14, 2014 | St. Louis, Mo. / Scottrade Center

[9] Kentucky	29	27	—	56
[8] K-STATE	23	26	—	49

▶ Marcus Foster paced three Wildcats in double figures with 15 points, but it wasn't enough to lift Kansas State to victory as 8-seed Kentucky held on for a 56-49 in the second round of the Midwest Regional before 19,223 fans at the Scottrade Center in St. Louis.

▶ Julius Randle paced all players with a double-double of 19 points and 15 rebounds for Kentucky, while Aaron Harrison chipped in 18 points.

▶ Foster was joined in double figures by Shane Southwell (11 points) and Thomas Gipson (10 points) for a Wildcat squad that was held to just 35.8 percent (19-of-53) shooting.

▶ K-State (20-13), which started in a 1-0 hole after a technical for a dunk in pregame warm-ups, struggled to hit from the perimeter against Kentucky's tall lineup as the Cats hit just 5 of 21 from 3-point range.

▶ Sophomore walk-on Brian Rohleder, who played only 31 minutes all season, earned a technical foul for that pre-game dunk. NCAA rules prohibit dunking with less than 20 minutes until tip, and Rohleder's dunk came with 19:58 showing on the clock.

▶ Andrew Harrison made one of two free throws while fans showered the officials with derision, and Kentucky led 1-0 when the game finally started.

▶ The SEC tournament runner-up built on its advantage through the opening minutes, the Harrison twins each knocking down a series of outside shots. Kentucky pushed the lead to 29-17 with 2:23 to go on Randle's basket, but K-State answered with six straight points to end the half.

▶ Bruce Weber's team trimmed the lead to 35-33, only for Kentucky to regain control when Southwell was hit with a technical for arguing a no-call.

▶ Kentucky stretched its lead to 44-36 midway through the second half, and whenever its rival Wildcats threatened to get closer, Randle was there to answer the call. The bruising forward stuck back a miss to make it 46-38 with 8:02 remaining, converted a three-point play a few minutes later, and then scored again at the rim for a 51-40 advantage.

▶ K-State closed to 55-49 on Foster's off-balance 3-pointer with 24 seconds to go. But a team that replaced most of its key players from a season ago and defied expectations all year eventually ran out of time on its comeback bid.

POSTSEASON

2017 | FIRST FOUR

March 14, 2017 | Dayton, Ohio / UD Arena

[11] Wake Forest	36	52	—	88
[11] K-STATE	40	55	—	95

▶ Senior Wesley Iwundu scored a career-high 24 points to help guide 11-seed Kansas State to a 95-88 win over fellow 11-seed Wake Forest in a First Four game before 11,855 fans at the University of Dayton Arena.

▶ The Wildcats connected on 66 percent (31-of-47) from the field, including 69.6 percent (16-of-23) in the second half, to post their first NCAA Tournament win since 2012. It is the highest field goal percentage by a K-State team in a NCAA Tournament game and ties for the ninth-highest percentage in a game.

▶ Iwundu paced four Wildcats in double figures with his career-best 24 points, which came on 6-of-9 field goals and an 11-of-13 effort from the free throw line. He also added a team-high 7 assists and 6 rebounds in 35 minutes.

▶ Sophomore Kamau Stokes also registered a 20-point game, scoring 19 of his 22 points in the second half on 4-of-5 field goals, all from 3-point range, and knocked down 7-of-8 from the free throw line. Senior D.J. Johnson scored 18 points on 8-of-9 shooting to go with 6 rebounds and 3 blocks, while sophomore guard Barry Brown added 14 points with 5 rebounds and 3 assists.

▶ The teams battled through two ties before 5 straight free throws, including 4 in a row from Iwundu, pushed K-State to an 18-13 lead. The first-half advantage grew to 36-29 with 3:13 to play after 2 more Iwundu free throws before Wake Forst pulled to within 40-36 at the half by scoring 7 of the last 11 points.

▶ The Wildcats were sparked by 9 points from Stokes in the opening minutes of the second half, as the lead grew to 57-47 with 15:32 to play. However, the Demon Deacons continued to battle, pulling to within 67-66 on a pair of free throw from John Collins at the third media timeout with 7:43 remaining.

▶ K-State answered back with a 12-4 run to go ahead 79-70 with less than 4 minutes to play. From there, the lead never fell below 5 points and grew to as many as 11 points after a pair of Stokes free throws with 49 seconds.

▶ Wake Forest (19-14) connected on 47.2 percent (25-of-53) from the field, including 54.8 percent (17-of-31) in the second half, and went a stellar 90.6 percent (29-of-32) from the free throw line.

▶ Collins paced three Demon Deacons in double figures with a game-high 26 26 points on 9-of-13 field goals and a game-high 9 rebounds, and sophomore Bryant Childress, who totaled 20 points and a game-high 10 assists.

2017 | SOUTH REGIONAL FIRST ROUND

March 17, 2017 | Sacramento, Calif. / Golden 1 Center

[6] Cincinnati	39	36	—	75
[11] K-STATE	28	33	—	61

▶ Senior Troy Caupain paced an explosive Cincinnati offensive attack, as the Bearcats posted a 75-61 win over 11-seed Kansas State in the South Regional First Round before 16,154 fans at the Golden 1 Center in Sacramento, Calif.

▶ Hot-shooting Cincinnati (30-5) connected on 65.2 percent (27-of-43) from the field, including 65.2 percent (15-of-23) in the first half, and led for 38 minutes and 49 seconds. It marked the first time that K-State has allowed an opponent to shoot better than 60 percent from the field since 2013.

▶ A Dean Wade 3-pointer gave the Wildcats their first lead at 3-2 just 57 seconds into the game, however, senior Kevin Johnson gave Cincinnati the advantage for good with a jumper with 18:20 remaining in the first half as the Bearcats hit their first 8 field goals, including a pair of 3-pointers.

▶ The lead grew to as many as 13 points in the first half before Kamau Stokes connected on a 3-pointer to close the deficit to 28-21 with just under 5 minutes to play. However, Jacob Evans answered back with his own 3-pointer as the Bearcats ended the half with 11 of the last 18 points for a 39-28 lead.

▶ Trailing by 11 points at the half, K-State used a 7-2 run to cut the deficit to 49-43 with 14:15 to play on a 3-pointer by sophomore Barry Brown Jr. However, Cincinnati responded out of a timeout to score 10 of the next 12 points to push its lead back out to 59-45 with 9:29 remaining and end any further comeback.

▶ A 3-pointer by senior Wesley Iwundu pulled the Wildcats to within 60-50 with 7:33 to play, but a 7-0 Bearcat run capped by a 3-pointer from Jarron Cumberland pushed the lead to its largest at 67-50 with 5:31 remaining. From there, the lead never dipped below 11 points the rest of the way.

▶ K-State shot just 38.9 percent (21-of-54) from the field, including 38.9 percent (7-of-18) from 3-point range, and were outscored 34-22 in the paint.

▶ Iwundu was only Wildcat in double figures, as he scored a team-high 19 points on 5-of-10 field goals, including 3-of-5 from long range, to go with a 6-of-6 effort from the free throw line. He also added a team-high 4 rebounds and 3 assists despite playing just 27 minutes due to foul trouble.

▶ Caupain led three Bearcats in double figures with his game-high 23 points on 7-of-10 shooting, while juniors Kyle Washington and Gary Clark added 16 and 15 points, respectively.

2018 | SOUTH REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 18, 2018 | Charlotte, N.C. / Spectrum Center

[8] Creighton	26	33	—	59
[9] K-STATE	32	37	—	69

▶ Three Wildcats scored in double figures, including a career-high 17 points from freshman Mike McGuirl, as 9-seed Kansas State topped 8-seed Creighton, 69-59, in the first round of the NCAA South Regional at the Spectrum Center.

▶ McGuirl was joined in double-figures by juniors Barry Brown Jr., and Kamau Stokes who added 18 and 11 points, respectively. Sophomore Xavier Sneed added valuable minutes with 9 points, while Brown added a team-high 6 rebounds and redshirt freshman Cartier Diarra led the team with 3 assists.

▶ K-State (23-11) played without All-Big 12 First Team selection Dean Wade, who was held out for the second consecutive game as a precaution due to foot soreness. With Wade out, the Wildcats used a four-guard lineup featuring guards Brown, Diarra, Sneed and Stokes and Makol Mawien. K-State's guards filled Wade's void nicely, combining to score 53 of 69 points for the Wildcats.

▶ As a team, the Wildcats shot 46 percent (23-of-50) from the field and 47.3 percent (9-of-19) from beyond the arc. K-State turned the ball over just 11 times, marking the 25th time the Wildcats committed 12 or fewer turnovers.

▶ Stokes scored the game's first 7 points, as K-State jumped out to a 10-2 lead less than 4 minutes into the first half. The lead grew to as many as 9 points, as four different Wildcats had at least 5 points at the half. Mitch Ballock cut the deficit to 29-26 with a 3-pointer, but McGuirl answered back with a triple right before the first half buzzer for a 32-26 advantage.

▶ A 3-pointer from Sneed and a Brown layup gave K-State a 37-28 lead less than 3 minutes into the second half before the Creighton pulled to within a possession on the strength of a 7-0 run. A layup by Stokes sparked a 14-6 answer from the Wildcats, who went ahead 51-41 with 9:34 to play.

▶ Although the Bluejays cut the deficit to 53-46 at the 7:34 mark, the Wildcats responded with 11 of the next 13 points to push ahead 64-48 with 2:25 to play and put the game away. McGuirl had seven of K-State's 11 points, including a pair of 3-pointers in the pivotal run. The lead didn't drop below double figures the rest of the way.

▶ Creighton (21-12) was led by Ballock who scored 16 points on 5-of-14 field goals. The Bluejays shot collectively 33.8 percent (23-of-68) from the field and 26.4 percent (9-of-34) from beyond the arc. K-State forced Creighton into 13 turnovers in the game and outscored the Bluejays' bench, 19-7.

POSTSEASON

2018 | SOUTH REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 21, 2018 | Charlotte, N.C. / Spectrum Center

[16] UMBC	20	23	—	43
[9] K-STATE	25	25	—	50

▶ The Kansas State Wildcats were led by a strong defensive effort and junior Barry Brown Jr.'s 18 points, as No. 9 seed K-State defeated No. 16 seed UMBC, 50-43, in the second round of the NCAA South Regional at the Spectrum Center in Charlotte, N.C., to advance to the Sweet 16.

▶ The Sweet 16 appearance marked the 17th in program history and their first bid since 2010. In addition, head coach Bruce Weber became the 10th Division I coach to take three teams to the Sweet 16 (K-State, Illinois, Southern Illinois).

▶ Brown was one of two Wildcats in double figures, as sophomore Makol Mawien added 11 points and a team-high 7 rebounds. Brown's 18 points came off 5-of-13 shooting and a perfect 8-of-8 from the free-throw stripe, while sophomore Xavier Sneed contributed 8 points, including six in the final five minutes to propel K-State to victory.

▶ K-State played their third straight game without All-Big 12 First Team selection Dean Wade, who was held out due to foot soreness. The Wildcats returned a four-guard lineup for the third game in a row, featuring guards Brown, Sneed, Cartier Diarra, and Kamau Stokes and Mawien at forward.

▶ After upsetting No. 1 Virginia, UMBC continued its hot streak against K-State, scoring the game's first 7 points as the Wildcats struggled to find an open look, missing their first 5 shots. After a 3-pointer from Jourdain Grant gave the Retrievers a 10-2 lead, a pair of free throws by Mike McGuirl helped start a 12-5 run that gave the Wildcats their first lead at 15-14 with 8:31 to play.

▶ K-State continued its push with a 10-2 run after UMBC tied the game at 15-all. Brown was responsible for 8 of these 10 points, as the Wildcats entered halftime with a 25-20 lead despite shooting 37.5 percent from the field.

▶ The Retrievers got to within one point twice, including 32-31 on a 3-pointer by K.J. Maura and again at 34-33 on a pair of Maura free throws. Two free throws by Mawien and a Stokes jumper pushed the Wildcats back out at 38-33.

▶ After Jairus Lyles again pulled UMBC to within one point with a 3-pointer, a dunk by Sneed sparked a 12-4 run that put K-State up 50-41 with 27 seconds.

▶ UMBC (25-11) was led Lyles, who scored 12 points on 4-of-15 from the field. The Retrievers shot 29.8 percent (14-of-47) from the field in the game and 27.3 (6-of-22) from beyond the arc.

▶ Hot shooting carried 3-seed Kansas State to its first NCAA Tournament win under head coach Jerome Tang and its first overall since 2018, as the Wildcats connected on 58.2 percent from the field en route to earning a 77-65 victory over 14-seed Montana State in the first round of the East Regional on March 17 before 17,150 fans at the Greensboro Coliseum.

▶ It was an impressive all-around offensive performance for the Wildcats, who posted the fifth-highest field goal percentage (58.2/32-of-55) in an NCAA Tournament game in school history and the highest since the 2017 First Four. The team hit on 51.7 percent (15-of-29) in the first half before connecting on 65.4 percent (17-of-26) after halftime. They also tied the school record for assists (21) in an NCAA Tournament game.

▶ Four Wildcats scored in double figures led by 18 points from senior Keyontae Johnson, who went 8-of-15 from the field with a team-high 8 rebounds and 3 assists in nearly 39 minutes. It marked the seventh time that he has led the team in scoring and rebounding, while he has posted double digits in 32 of 33 games.

▶ Fellow senior Markquis Nowell dished out a career-tying 14 assists to go with 17 points on 7-of-12 field goals, including 3-of-6 from 3-point range, while adding 6 rebounds and 3 steals in 37 minutes. The 14 assists not only broke the school record for most by a Wildcat in a NCAA Tournament, surpassing the 12 by Steve Henson against Purdue on March 25, 1998, they also tied for the ninth-most by any player in an NCAA Tournament game. It was Nowell's 16th career double-double, including his 11th at K-State and eighth this season.

▶ The senior duo was joined in double figures by juniors Nae'Qwan Tomlin and David N'Guessan, who finished with 13 and 10 points, respectively. Sophomore Cam Carter scored 8 points on his birthday and senior Desi Sills added 7 points, as the Wildcats moved to 13-1 this season when six or more players have 6 or more points.

▶ K-State used an 11-4 run late in the first half to break open a tight contest and build a 9-point lead with 52 seconds before halftime. After the Bobcats (25-10) closed to within 34-28 at the break, the Wildcats scored 10 of the first 16 points to open the second half to extend the lead to double figures. Although MSU closed to within 8 points several times in the second half, K-State responded each time with a big shot, including a dunk by Sills with just under 2 minutes to play that extended the lead to a game-high 16 points.

2023 | EAST REGIONAL SECOND ROUND

March 19, 2023 | Greensboro, N.C. / Greensboro Coliseum

[6] Kentucky	26	43	—	69
[3] K-STATE	29	46	—	75

▶ Clutch 3-pointers by junior Ismael Massoud and senior Keyontae Johnson in the last 2:21 helped lift No. 15/13 Kansas State to a trip to New York City for the Sweet 16 with a 75-69 win over Kentucky on March 19 in the second round of the East Regional before 16,517 fans at the Greensboro Coliseum.

▶ The win was the 25th of the season, as the Wildcats became the eighth team in school history and the first since 2018-19 to collect a 25-win season. The team advanced to their 18th Sweet 16 and first since 2018.

▶ Down 62-61 with 2:43 to play, Massoud gave the Wildcats the lead for good with a deep 3-pointer from the right wing with 2:21 to play that was followed by another deep triple from Johnson on an offensive rebound from junior David N'Guessan at the 1:23 mark. Senior Markquis Nowell continued the 8-0 spurt with a pair of free throws that extended the lead to 69-62 with 37 seconds.

▶ Kentucky (22-12) was able to get a basket from senior Oscar Tschiebwe, who posted a double-double of 25 points and 18 rebounds, to close the gap to 69-64 with 23 seconds, but Nowell and fellow senior Desi Sills clinched the game at the free throw line with a combined 6 consecutive makes.

▶ Four Wildcats scored in double figures led by a special performance from the Harlem native Nowell, who finished with a game-high 27 points, 9 assists and 3 steals in playing all but 16 seconds. It was the most points by a Wildcat in an NCAA Tournament game since Rodney McGruder scored 30 points in 2012.

▶ After his 17-point, 14-assist performance in the win over 14-seed Montana State on Friday night, Nowell combined for 44 points and 23 assists in his first two NCAA Tournament. He is one of two players since 1990, along with Murray State's Ja Morant, to combine for 40 points and 20 assists before the Sweet 16.

▶ Johnson finished with 13 points to go with 4 rebounds and 3 assists. He has now scored in double figures in all but one game. Junior Nae'Qwan Tomlin, who led the way in the first half with 8 points, and Sills each added 12 points.

▶ After a shaking start offensively, in which, the Wildcats made just 5 of their first 16 field goal attempts, including going 0-fer on 7 3-point attempts, the team settled down to hit on 48.1 percent (26-of-54) from the field, including 63.6 percent (21-of-33) from inside the 3-point line with 40 points in the paint. They were nearly flawless from the free throw line, converting on 18 of 22 attempts, including a 10-of-11 effort from Nowell.

2023 | EAST REGIONAL SEMIFINALS

March 23, 2023 | New York, N.Y. / Madison Square Garden

[7] Michigan State	38	44	11	—	93
[3] K-STATE	43	39	16	—	98

▶ Senior Markquis Nowell sealed one of the greatest NCAA Tournament performances in school history with a steal of fellow New Yorker Tyson Walker with 3 seconds left in overtime, as 3-seed Kansas State earned a trip to the Elite Eight with a 98-93 win over 7-seed Michigan State on March 23 in the semifinals of the East Regional before 19,624 fans at Madison Square Garden.

▶ Nowell's layup at the buzzer gave him 20 points for the night to go with an NCAA Tournament-record 19 assists and 5 steals. His 19 assists surpassed the previous record of 18 set by UNLV's Mark Wade in the 1987 National Semifinals. The assist total also broke the school single season record of 16 set by Keith Frazier against Central Missouri on Dec. 18, 1976, while also surpassing his own NCAA Tournament mark of 14 vs. Montana State on March 17.

▶ In addition to Nowell's record-setting night, the Wildcats broke school records for most assists (26) and fewest turnovers (5) in an NCAA Tournament game while tying the mark for made 3-point field goals (11). The 98 points were the fourth-most (98) in an NCAA Tournament game in school history and the most since scoring 101 vs. Xavier in 2010 NCAA West Regional Semifinals.

▶ K-State connected on 55.9 percent (38-of-68) from the field, including 66.7 percent (6-of-9) in the decisive overtime period.

▶ Nowell was one of six Wildcats to score in double figures, including one of two with 20-point games, as fellow senior Keyontae Johnson led the team with 22 points in playing nearly 45 minutes. Junior Ish Massoud scored a K-State career-best 15 points, while sophomore Cam Carter had perhaps his best all-around game in a Wildcat uniform with 12 points, 6 rebounds and 3 steals. Juniors David N'Guessan and Nae'Qwan Tomlin each added 11 points.

▶ In game that included 16 lead changes and 14 ties, Michigan State (21-13) was able to force overtime with an impressive final minute, getting a second chance putback from senior Malik Hall with 51 seconds before Walker's driving layup tied the game at 82-all with 5 seconds remaining.

▶ In the extra period, Johnson broke a 92-all tie with a lob-dunk from Nowell with 52 seconds, then after a free throw from Hall with 43 seconds closed the deficit to 94-93, Nowell set the all-time NCAA Tournament record with his 19th assist to Massoud on an inbound play for a jumper and a 96-93 lead with 17 seconds remaining. Nowell sealed the game with a steal of Walker with 3 seconds and a layup at the buzzer for the final 98-93 win.

2023 | EAST REGIONAL FINALS

March 25, 2023 | New York, N.Y. / Madison Square Garden

[9] FAU	42	37	—		79
[3] K-STATE	38	38	—		76

▶ Despite a valiant effort from senior Markquis Nowell, it was a late 15-1 run by No. 25/25 Florida Atlantic that proved to be the difference as the 9-seed Owls advanced to their first Final Four with a 79-76 win over 3-seed K-State on March 25 in the East Regional finals before 19,680 fans at Madison Square Garden.

▶ Nowell, who was named the Most Outstanding Player of the East Regional, finished with just the second 30-point, 10-assist game in school history, as he led the way with game-highs in points (30), assists (12) and steals (5) in playing all 40 minutes in his final college game. He is the first player with at least 25 points and 10 assists in a game in the Elite Eight or later since Marquette's Dwyane Wade in 2003, while his 54 assists in the tournament are the third-most and the most since Michigan's Rumeal Robinson had 56 in 1989.

▶ Nowell was joined on the all-tournament team by Keyontae Johnson, who was plagued by foul trouble before fouling out with 2:44 to play with 9 points in 18 minutes. Junior Nae'Qwan Tomlin was the only other Wildcat in double figure with 14 points on 6-of-11 field goals to go with 6 rebounds and 2 steals.

▶ With K-State seemingly gaining control after a 3-pointer from Nowell gave the Wildcats a 63-57 lead with 8:39 to play, it was Florida Atlantic (35-3) that responded with a 15-1 run to flip the deficit into a 72-64 lead with 2:44 left. The Owls scored 10 straight points after the Nowell 3-pointer, taking the lead for good on dunk by sophomore Vladislav Goldin with 6:12 left.

▶ Despite the momentum and without their leading scorer, Nowell and the Wildcats continued to fight, using a 10-4 run that was highlighted by 3-pointers from Nowell and sophomore Cam Carter, to pull within 75-74 with 24 seconds left. However, FAU senior Michael Forrest knocked down down a pair of free throws with 17 seconds then after a Tomlin layup got K-State to within 77-76 with 8 seconds he calmly knocked down 2 more for the final margin.

▶ K-State connected on 46.6 percent (27-of-58) from the field, including 45.5 percent (10-of-22) from 3-point range, while making 66.7 percent (12-of-18) from the line. So Close, Yet No Cigar

K-State has won 21 conference championships in its history, including 19 regular-season titles dating back to the first one in the Missouri Valley Conference in 1916-17. However, the Wildcats could have way more as they have finished second a remarkable 18 times since they began conference play in 1913-14. Remarkably, the squad finished first or second in Big Seven or Big Eight play 29 times in a 41-year span between 1947-48 and 1987-88.

Big Six / Seven / Eight Holiday Tournament

For 33 years, the Big Six / Seven / Eight Conference sponsored one of the most successful basketball tournaments in the nation - the Big Six / Seven / Eight Holiday Basketball Tournament. The four-day tournament included eight teams, each guaranteed three games with consolation and winner brackets.

The event began in 1946 when members of the Big Six Conference invited SMU and Arkansas to complete the field of eight. In 1947, the Big Seven invited Missouri Valley Conference member Oklahoma A&M (now Oklahoma State) to participate. Completing the field until it became the Big Eight in 1958 were: Harvard (1948); Michigan (1949); Minnesota (1950); Stanford (1951); Yale (1952); Washington (1953); California (1954); Cornell (1955); Michigan State (1956); Princeton (1957).

The tournament was held at Municipal Auditorium in Kansas City, Mo., from 1946-73 before it moved to Kemper Arena (now Hy-Vee Arena) beginning with the 1974 tournament. The last Holiday Tournament was in 1978, and cancelled because the league also conducted a postseason tournament for automatic NCAA Tournament qualification. The two tournaments were conducted in the same year three times: 1976-77; 1977-78; 1978-79.

K-State won the Holiday Tournament seven times - 1947, 1950, 1952, 1958, 1960, 1961 and 1963 - while the Wildcats advanced to the championship in seven other seasons - 1954, 1957, 1962, 1967, 1971, 1972 and 1977.

A CHAMPIONSHIP

TRADITION

K-State's coaching ledger reads like a who's who of basketball's greatest minds. These 11 coaches guided the Wildcats to some of their most successful seasons, including nearly 1,400 wins, 4 Final Fours, 31 NCAA Tournaments and 17 league titles.

JACK GARDNER

Jack Gardner had great numbers, great teams and great results. That is why he is enshrined in the Naismith Hall of Fame, basketball's highest reward. It's also the reason that he is often credited with beginning the great basketball tradition that exists at Kansas State today.

Simply stated, Gardner got it all started. Interestingly, he is the only head coach in school history to hold the top position on two occasions (1939-42; 1946-53). His second stint resulted in some of the best basketball ever played in Manhattan.

Entering the 1946-47 season, Kansas State hadn't finished above the .500 mark for 15 years, but Gardner, renowned for his tactical prowess, rallied the Wildcats to a 14-10 season in the initial season of his second go-around. By his second season in 1947-48, the Wildcats had posted their first-ever 20-win season and captured both the Big Seven regular-season and Holiday Tournament titles. The 1950-51 squad, perhaps the school's best-ever, would soar to a 25-4 record and become the only team to play for a national championship, losing to Kentucky, 68-58, in the finals. Gardner's teams won a total of three conference crowns in seven years and secured two Big Eight Holiday Tournament titles, in addition to finishing the year ranked in the Top 20 on two occasions. He would finish his tenure with a 146-81 (.643) record, including a stunning 126-47 (.730) mark in his final seven seasons.

Aside from his on-the-court achievements, Gardner is remembered as the force behind the construction of Ahearn Field House in 1950. His successful teams of the late 1940s drove basketball fans in the state of Kansas into a frenzy, and tickets were as rare as the losses. After nearly a decade of trying to persuade state legislators, the new arena became a reality in December 1950.

Gardner, a native of New Mexico and a graduate of USC, responded with the 1950-51 team which was arguably the best in school history and one of two that would go to the Final Four during his tenure (the other was in 1947-48).
The 1950-51 squad led by All-American Ernie Barrett is still the only team in school history to advance to the NCAA title game.

Gardner left K-State in 1953 to take over the head coaching reins at new Big 12 member Utah, where he remained for 18 years. He led the Utes to six NCAA Tournament appearances and two trips to the Final Four. He finished his career in Salt Lake City with a 339-154 record while winning seven conference titles. Overall, he posted a 486-235 (.674) mark in 28 seasons as a head coach.

Gardner, who was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2000, has been inducted into 11 Hall of Fames. He is also a member of the Southern Utah Hall of Fame, Utah All-Sports Hall of Fame, State of Utah Basketball Hall of Fame, Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame, Helms Foundation Hall of Fame, the Crimson Club (Utah), the Modesto (Calif.) Junior College Hall of Fame and the Redlands (Calif.) High School Hall of Fame and the College Basketball Hall of Fame. He was the 1982 winner of the NABC's Golden Anniversary Award.

Gardner worked as a consultant for the NBA's Utah Jazz from 1979-91 and is credited with discovering Gonzaga's John Stockton. He passed away on April 9, 2000.

HISTORY

FRED 'TEX' WINTER

1953-68 261-118

Morice Fredrick "Tex" Winter was an assistant coach during Jack Gardner's glory years. He was a natural to succeed his mentor, although the early years were tough. So tough, in fact, that at one point signs sprouted saying, "Spring is here, Winter must go."

Fortunately, Winter stayed, and it was a "long, hard Winter" for K-State foes for 15 years. An innovator of the "triangle offense," he earned a reputation as one of the most creative offensive coaches in the land and in 1962, published a book on the offense entitled The Triple-Post Offense.

Winter owns the second-most wins (261) of any Kansas State coach, and laid claim to more league titles (eight) than any other Wildcat coach. He would lead the school to postseason play seven times, including six trips to the NCAA Tournament. K-State won the Big Eight Holiday Tournament four times under his leadership, and achieved top 20 finishes on four occasions.

He helped the Wildcats to a No. 1 ranking twice in his career, including for the first time in school history for four weeks in late February and early March 1958 and again for two weeks at the end of the 1959 season. Eleven players achieved all-league honors under Winter, and two (Jack Parr and Bob Boozer) were All-Americans. He was also named the United Press International (UPI) National Coach of the Year in 1959.

There were several outstanding teams under Winter, two of which made trips to the Final Four in 1959 and 1964. Spearheaded by the play of Bob Boozer, the 1958-59 team was ranked among the nation's top-5 for most of the season and spent numerous weeks as the nation's No. 1 ranked team before falling in the Midwest Regional Finals to Oscar Robertson and No. 5 Cincinnati. Then, in 1964, the Wildcats charged back to the Final Four, finally being eliminated by eventual champion UCLA, 90-84.

A native of Huntington Park, Calif., Winter began his coaching career as the first full-time assistant at K-State for Jack Gardner from 1947-51. Like Gardner, he graduated from USC [in 1947], where he learned the triangle offense from Sam Barry. An All-American pole vaulter for the Trojans, he became the youngest coach in the nation at Marquette in 1951, guiding the Warriors to the National Catholic Championship in his first season. After his second season at Marquette, he replaced Gardner as head coach at K-State in 1953.

Following his departure from K-State in 1968, Winter served shorter stints as head coach at Washington (1969-72), the NBA's Houston Rockets (1972-74), Northwestern (1975-78) and Long Beach State (1978-83). In total, he won 454 games in college, while he went 51-78 with the Rockets.

In 1985, Winter started another chapter of his life, serving as an assistant coach with the NBA's Chicago Bulls under famed 11-time championship head coach Phil Jackson and teaching the triangle offense to Michael Jordan. Winter was hired to the position by Chicago general manager Jerry Krause, an old friend he had met while at K-State.

As a assistant to Jackson, Winter was an integral part of the Bulls' NBA championships in 1991, 1992, 1993, 1996, 1997 and 1998. He followed Jackson to the Los Angeles Lakers in 1999, where he collected four more championship rings in 2000, 2001, 2002, and 2009.

A member of both the state of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame and K-State Sports Hall of Fame, Winter earned recognition to the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2010 and the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2011. He is the fourth person with K-State ties in the Naismith Hall of Fame, joining former mentor Jack Gardner who was elected in 1984, former player Bob Boozer, who was a part of the 1960 U.S. Olympic Team elected in 2010 and Mitch Richmond, who was selected in 2014.

This was Winter's second honor from the Naismith Hall of Fame, as he was named the 1998 winner of the John Bunn Award for lifetime achievement. K-State once again honored Winter in January 2015 by dedicating the drive leading to the Wildcats' Ice Family Basketball Center in his name.

One of only two people to be affiliated with all four of K-State's Final Four teams, Winter passed away at the age of 96 on October 10, 2018 at his home in Manhattan, Kan.

LOWELL 'COTTON" FITZSIMMONS

1968-70 34-20

Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons and Tex Winter had at least three things in common. Neither used their given first name, both took over the head coaching job at K-State after serving as an assistant coach and both are remembered for a coaching style marked by personality and their winning ways.

Fitzsimmons was a menace in the Big Eight in his two years, winning 34 games, including 19 in league play, and finishing among the top two in both seasons. His 1968-69 squad was the league runner-up in his initial campaign, then won the league crown in his second and final season with a 10-4 mark in 1969-70. His second team eclipsed the 20-win mark, advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament and earned Fitzsimmons 1970 Big Eight Coach of the Year honors. It was the school's first 20-win season and first trip to the NCAA Tournament in six seasons since advancing to the 1964 Final Four. He saw three players earn All-Big Eight honors in his tenure, including Steve Honeycutt in 1969 and Jerry Venable and Bob Zender in 1970.

Fitzsimmons was colorful, literally. He became the first coach to ever add a third color to the uniforms, when he attached a gold trim during his stay. Of a less literal, Fitzsimmons' style drew attention, too. His first team finished 14-12, but that 1968-69 squad averaged more fans (12,166 per game) than any team in the history of Ahearn Field House.

A native of Hannibal, Missouri, Fitzsimmons began his coaching career at Moberly (Mo.) Junior College, where he compiled a 224-58 (.794) record in 11 years and won national titles in 1966 and 1967. He was twice named the National Junior College Coach of the Year. He spent one season as an assistant coach to Winter before being named head coach in 1968, helping the Wildcats to a 1969 Big Eight title and the NCAA Midwest Regional Semifinals.

Fitzsimmons left K-State in 1970 to become head coach of the Phoenix Suns, the first of three coaching stints with the franchise. He went on to coach 21 seasons in the NBA, compiling the 16th-most victories in the league's history with an 832-775 (.518) record with five teams - Phoenix (1970-72; 1988-92; 1996-97), Atlanta Hawks (1972-76), Buffalo Braves (1977-78), Kansas City Kings [currently the Sacramento Kings] (1978-84) and San Antonio Spurs (1984-86). He was twice named NBA Coach of the Year, first in 1978-79 with the Kansas City Kings and lastly in 1988-89 with the Phoenix Suns.

Fitzsimmons received the highest honor of his esteemed career in 2021, as he was one of 16 individuals selected to the 2021 class of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. Formally inducted on September 11, 2021, he is the fifth individual with K-State ties named to the Hall of Fame and third head coach. He was also inducted into the Phoenix Suns' Ring of Honor in 2005.

Fitzsimmons was Senior Executive Vice President for the organization before his passing at the age of 72 in July 2004 due to complications from lung cancer.

COTTON FITZSIMMONS

JACK HARTMAN

Shrewd, calculating and intense all describe the winningest coach in Kansas State history. Jack Hartman endeared himself to K-Staters for a number of reasons, but none more memorable than his ability to take seemingly less talented teams and consistently come out on top.

Hartman led K-State to 295 wins, three Big Eight titles, two Big Eight Tournament championships and nine postseason appearances during his 16 seasons as head coach. He saw the Wildcats register 20 or more wins seven times, including 24 wins in both 1976-77 and 1980-81. He also guided the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament seven times (1972, 1973, 1975, 1977, 1980, 1981, 1982), including four trips (1972, 1973, 1975, 1981) to the Elite Eight. His teams finished the season ranked among the Top 20 five times, including the No. 7 (UPI) and No. 9 (AP) rankings in 1972-73.

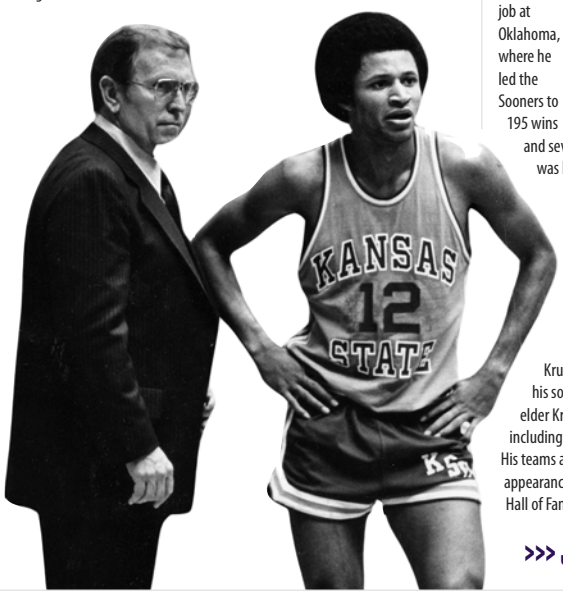
Hartman was honored as National Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) after the 1980-81 season. Led by All-American Rolando Blackman, the eight-seeded Wildcats charged into the NCAA West Regional Finals on the strength of upset wins over San Francisco, No. 2 Oregon State and No. 19 Illinois. The Wildcats were denied their first Final Four in 17 years by No. 6 North Carolina in the finals. He was also named Big Eight Coach of the Year following the 1974-75 and 1976-77 seasons.

In 23 years of coaching at the Division I level (the other seven coming at Southern Illinois from 1962-70), Hartman compiled a 439-233 (.653) record. He also enjoyed success in the community college ranks, posting a 150-46 (.765) mark in seven seasons at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College from 1955-62. During his stint at Coffeyville, he was one of the few coaches to take a junior college team through a season undefeated, including the national title, as his 1962 squad went 32-0. In addition, he was the head coach for the United States at the 1983 Pan American Games, and led the Americans to the gold medal.

Hartman coached a number of future pros, including Walt Frazier at Southern Illinois and legends Rolando Blackman, Mike Evans, Lon Kruger, Ed Nealy and Chuckie Williams at K-State. In all, he coached 10 All-Americans, five Big Eight Players of the year and 16 first team All-Big Eight selections.

A native of Dewey, Oklahoma and a two-sport star at Oklahoma State, Hartman played professionally on the gridiron. After garnering All-Missouri Valley Conference honors as the Cowboys' quarterback, he played for the CFL's Saskatchewan. He was also an outstanding basketball player for OSU, and played for the legendary Henry Iba.

After retiring from coaching in 1986, Hartman served as a color analyst for the Wildcat Television Network as well as the Big Eight television package. He served as interim coach of the women's basketball team during the 1995-96 season, guiding the squad to a 3-4 record. He remained active in K-State Athletics until his death at the age of 73 on November 6, 1998. He will be inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame this fall.



LON KRUGER

1987-90 81-46

A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year for K-State in 1973 and 1974, Lon Kruger is remembered for many accomplishments as the Wildcats' head coach from 1986-90. At the top of that list, one will find four consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Despite K-State's reputation, no coach had been able to secure four straight trips to the prestigious event. Kruger changed all that by taking the Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament in each of his four years at the helm, and became the first coach in school history to win 20 games in his initial season.

His best team was the 1987-88 club, which featured All-American and 2014 Naismith Hall of Fame inductee Mitch Richmond. That squad tied the school record for wins at 25-9 and advanced all the way to the Midwest Regional title game at Pontiac, Michigan, where the Wildcats lost to eventual champion Kansas. Following that season, he was named NABC District Coach of the Year.

With a coaching style marked by calculated precision and calm under pressure, Kruger led the Wildcats to several triumphs that will be recalled for many years to come. His upsets of some of the nation's highest-ranked teams became almost routine as his trips to the NCAA Tournament.

A native of Silver Lake, Kansas, Kruger was a three-year lettermen for head coach Jack Hartman from 1971-74, winning Big Eight Player of the Year accolades in both 1973 and 1974. He scored 1,063 points in his career, including a 17.6-point average his senior year, and his jersey was retired in 2006.

Kruger served as an assistant to Hartman for four years from 1978-81 before becoming head coach at Texas-Pan American (now UTRGV) in 1982. He spent five years at UTRGV before becoming at head coach at K-State in 1986.

Following his stint at K-State, Kruger moved onto Florida for six seasons (1990-96) where he led the Gators to 104 wins and the 1994 Final Four. He left Florida in 1996 to become head coach at Illinois for four years (1996-2000), guiding the Fighting Illini to 81 victories, three three NCAA Tournaments (1997, 1998, 2000) and a Big Ten crown in 1998. He left to take over as head coach of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks in May 2000, compiling a 69-122 record with the Hawks before being replaced on Dec. 26, 2002.

Kruger returned to the college game in March 2004 when he was named head coach at UNLV. He led the Runnin' Rebels to 161 wins and six postseason appearances in seven seasons (2004-11), which included four NCAA Tournaments (2007, 2008, 2010, 2011).

Kruger left Las Vegas in 2011 to take the head coaching job at Oklahoma, where he led the Sooners to 195 wins and seven NCAA Tournament appearances in 10 seasons. His Sooner tenure was highlighted by his second trip to the Final Four in 2016.

In 2012-13, Kruger became the first coach in NCAA history to take five different schools (K-State, Florida, Illinois, UNLV and Oklahoma) to the NCAA Tournament, while he was the first to take four schools to the Sweet 16 since the tournament expanded to 64 teams. He was also the first coach to take five schools to multiple NCAA Tournament appearances.

Kruger retired from the coaching profession on March 25, 2021 to help his son, Kevin, who served as head coach at UNLV from 2021-25. The elder Kruger finished his career with a 674-432 (.609) record in 35 seasons, including 100 or more wins at Florida (104), UNLV (161) and Oklahoma (195). His teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament 20 times, including Final Four appearances in 1994 and 2016. He was inducted into the College Basketball Hall of Fame in 2022.

DANA ALTMAN

Although his four-year tenure as head coach only produced one NCAA Tournament, Dana Altman's tenure awill be remembered most for his uncanny ability to win close ball games, and for pulling off some of the biggest upsets, including top-ranked Kansas in 1994 at Allen Fieldhouse.

Altman's teams were a remarkable 28-13 in games decided by six points or less, which included a 6-1 mark in one-point games. Picked to finish last in the Big Eight, his 1992-93 club won 11 games in the final minute, earned the school's first Top 25 ranking in five seasons, finished 19-11, reached the championship game of the Big Eight Tournament and returned K-State to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1990. Altman was named him Big Eight Coach of the Year in 1993 and he capped the season by upsetting No. 6 Kansas, 74-67, in the Big Eight Tournament semifinals.

The following season, Altman made it two in a row over Kansas when he upset the top-ranked Jayhawks, 68-64, at Allen Fieldhouse. The 1993-94 squad finished the year with a 20-14 record and advanced to the NIT Final Four in New York City. During the team's run to the NIT semifinals, Askia Jones broke the school single-season scoring mark with 62 points against Fresno State on March 24, 1994. Jones still holds single-game records for 3-point field goals (14) and attempted (18) for his historic performance as well as single-season marks for 3-point field goals made (110) and attempted (279).

Altman has posted a 780-405 (.658) record in 37 seasons as head coach, which includes stints at Marshall (1989-90), K-State, Creighton (1994-2010) and Oregon (2010-present). He built the Bluejays into one of the top mid-major programs, posting 327 wins in 16 seasons with three Missouri Valley Conference regular season, six tournament titles and seven trips to the NCAA Tournament. He has continued his impressive work at Oregon, where he has led the Ducks to 370 wins, nine NCAA Tournaments and a trip to the 2017 Final Four.

Altman's teams have made 27 consecutive postseason appearances (1998-2025), including 16 trips to the NCAA Tournament with three Sweet 16s (2013, 2019, 2021), two Elite Eights (2016, 2017) and a Final Four (2017).

TOM ASBURY

Tom Asbury continued the rich tradition of Kansas State basketball, guiding the Wildcats to 85 wins from 1994 to 2000 to go with three postseason appearances, including a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 1996.

Asbury was hired after an impressive six-year stint at Pepperdine, where he guided the Waves to 125-59 (.679) record from 1989-94 and three West Coast Conference regular-season and tournament titles. He also led the Waves to five trips to the postseason, including three NCAA Tournaments (1991, 1992 and 1994). He was also named the West Coast Conference (WCC) Coach of the Year following the 1990-91 and 1991-92 seasons.

Known for developing tough defensive teams, Asbury guided K-State to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in three seasons in just his second season at the helm, as his 1995-96 squad advanced to the East Region where they lost to No. 23 New Mexico.

Asbury helped the team to back-to-back trips to the Postseason NIT in 1997-98 and 1998-99. His 1998-99 team led the nation in field goal percentage defense, as the Wildcats held opponents to just 37.1 percent shooting from the field. That squad posted the 19th 20-win season in school history and the first in five years.

Upon leaving K-State, Asbury entered private business before returning to bench as an assistant coach to Mark Gottfried at Alabama from 2003-07. After a brief retirement, he returned to the sidelines in 2008 for his second stint at Pepperdine, guiding the Waves for three seasons (2008-10) before retiring for good in 2010. He concluded his career with a 242-212 (.533) record in 15 seasons at Pepperdine (1988-94; 2008-10) and K-State (1994-2000).

JIM WOOLDRIDGE

When Jim Wooldridge was hired as K-State's head coach in 2000, he brought with him the reputation as a builder of programs. After all, he spent 16 years mastering the art at places like as Central Missouri, Texas State and Louisiana Tech.

Hired after a stint coaching with the NBA's Chicago Bulls, alongside Tim Floyd and coaching icon Tex Winter, Wooldridge rebuilt a program that had won just nine games the year before he arrived to double-digit wins in each of his six seasons (2000-06) at the helm. His 83 wins ranks eighth on the all-time coaching wins list.

After slowing but steadily improving the K-State program, Wooldridge guided the Wildcats to their first winning season in six years in 2004-05 with a 17-12 record. The team started the year with eight wins in a row, which represented the best start by a squad since the 1979-80 team also started 8-0 en route to the school's best non-league record (10-1) since 1993-94. The Wildcats went on to tally six wins over teams that advanced to the postseason. The squad had a number of near misses, as seven of their Big 12 losses came by 10 points or less, including two on last-second shots and two in overtime. Despite 17 wins, including a sweep of Missouri, the team did not advance to the postseason.

Wooldridge again had the Wildcats off to quick start in 2005-06, as the team won seven of its first eight games and ended non-league play with a 9-2 mark. However, his tough luck continued as the Wildcats set a school-record by losing nine games (including seven in Big 12 play) by five points or less. Two of these defeats came in overtime and two came in back-to-back one-point losses to No. 7 Texas and No. 20 Oklahoma.

Wooldridge returned to the coaching ranks at UC Riverside in 2007, posting a 70-112 record before retiring from coaching in 2013 to become the school's athletics director. He moved two years later to become athletics director at Riverside City College before retiring in 2020. He finished his coaching career with a 382-349 (.537) overall record in 25 seasons.

BOB HUGGINS

Although his tenure as Kansas State's head coach lasted just one season in 2006-07, legend Bob Huggins left an indeliable mark upon the program.

Hired as the 22nd head coach on March 23, 2006, Huggins came to K-State as one of the most successful coaches in the country with over 500 career wins and 15 trips to the NCAA Tournament to his credit, including the 1992 Final Four.

Huggins helped guide the Wildcats to their first 20-win season and first postseason appearance in eight seasons, as his squad posted a 23-12 record and advanced to the second round of the Mastercard NIT. The 23 wins were the most-ever by a first-year coach in school history and the most since the 1987-88 squad tied the school record with 25 victories.

In addition, Huggins also helped the program to one of its best ever in the Big 12 era, as the Wildcats earned their first bye in the league tournament with a fourth-place finish and a 10-6 record. In the process, K-State snapped nationally-ranked Texas' 22-game home court winning streak (its only home loss), swept the series from rivals Missouri (just second time since 1982), Iowa State and Colorado. The team's win over Vermont in the first round of the NIT was the Wildcats' first postseason victory since 1994.

Huggins left K-State in 2007 to become head coach at his alma mater, West Virginia, where he led the Mountaineers to 345 wins and 11 NCAA Tournament appearances in 16 seasons, including a trip to the 2010 Final Four.

One of just six coaches in NCAA Division I history to win 900 games, Huggins received the ultimate honor in 2022 when he was inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. He retired from college basketball coaching in July 2023, as he finished in his career with a 935-414 (693) overall record in 41 seasons with 25 NCAA Tournaments and 12 conference titles to his credit.

FRANK MARTIN

2007-12 117-54

Just like it had done twice before when it elevated assistants Tex Winter (1953) and Cotton Fitzsimmons (1968) to the head coaching spot, K-State tapped Bob Huggins' top assistant Frank Martin as his replacement in 2007.

The fiery Martin, a native of Miami, Florida, took the baton from Huggins and led the school to one of its greatest stretches in its long and storied history. He helped the Wildcats to a 117-54 (.684) overall record, including a 50-32 (.610) mark in Big 12 play, and the team advanced to the postseason each of his five seasons, including four trips to the NCAA Tournament (2008, 2010, 2011 and 2012). He is the first head coach in school history to post five consecutive 20-win seasons and the first to guide the Wildcats to the postseason in each of his first five years. His 117 wins rank fifth in school history.

Hired as the 23rd head coach on April 6, 2007, Martin posted one of the most successful inaugural campaigns in school history. He guided the Wildcats to a 21-12 record in 2007-08, including a third-place finish in the Big 12, and broke a 12-year drought in the NCAA Tournament. He became just the second rookie head coach in school history to lead his team to the NCAA Tournament and the first since Lon Kruger in 1986-87. Under his tutelage, Michael Beasley posted one of the greatest seasons ever by a college freshman, averaging 26.2 points and 12.4 rebounds en route to earning consensus National Freshman of the Year honors and National Player of the Year honors from a number of outlets. Beasley became the first consensus first team All-American since 1959.

After an NIT finish in year two, Martin helped K-State to its first Elite Eight appearance in 22 seasons in 2009-10. Led by All-Americans Denis Clemente and Jacob Pullen, the Wildcats won a school-record 29 games and finished in a tie for second in the Big 12. In all, the team set 23 team and individual school records, including the scoring mark (2,949). For his effort, Martin was the Big 12 Coach of the Year and a runner-up for the AP's National Coach of the Year.

Martin left K-State in March 2012 for the head coaching job at South Carolina, where he won 171 games and advanced to the 2017 Final Four in 10 seasons. He was hired as the head coach at Massachusetts [UMass] on March 22, 2022, where enters the 2025-26 season with 335 career victories.

BRUCE WEBER

2012-22 184-147

K-State turned to one of the winningest active Division I coaches to replace Martin, as Bruce Weber was selected as the school's 24th head coach on March 31, 2012.

Mentored by K-State alumnus Gene Keady during his 19 years as an assistant coach at Purdue before head coaching stints at Southern Illinois (1998-2003) and Illinois (2003-11), Weber enjoyed immediate success, guiding the Wildcats to a 27-8 record and a 14-4 mark in league play en route to its first-ever Big 12 regular-season title and a school-record fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2012-13. The 27 wins remain the second-most in school history, while the 14 in conference play tied the school record held by the 1958-59 team (and again tied in 2018-19). The league title was the 18th in school history and the first since the 1976-77 season, as he became the first sixth coach to be named league Coach of the Year.

Weber helped K-State to four more trips to the NCAA Tournament, including three in a row from 2017-19, while his 2018 team made the school's first trip to the Elite Eight in eight years, which included the first-ever win over Kentucky in the Sweet 16. During the 2018 NCAA Tournament run, he became just the 10th Division I head coach to take three schools to the Sweet 16. The following season in 2018-19, he guided the Wildcats to a second Big 12 title with a 14-4 mark.

Weber's 184 wins are the third-most by a head coach in school history, trailing Hall of Famers Jack Hartman and Fred "Tex" Winter, while he is one of four coaches with multiple conference championships. He is also the fourth coach to take the school to at least five NCAA Tournaments, while only Hartman had more 20-win seasons. Among his five 20-win seasons were consecutive 25-win campaigns in 2017-18 and 2018-19 for the first time in school history. He currently works as a college basketball analyst on the Big Ten Network.

Wildcat Nickname

Through its first 19 seasons, K-State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 football season, coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats." The moniker lasted the one season Bender coached at K-State. Under coach Z.G. Clevenger in 1917, the school team became known as the "Farmers." In 1920 new coach, Charles Bachman, took over the program, renaming the team "Wildcats." This time, the nickname stuck.

Willie Wildcat

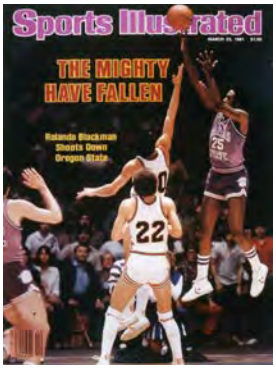
Willie, a student bedecked in a oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheer coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student is kept secret.

K-State Colors

The school color Royal Purple was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of "Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Jr. and Miss Winnifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod, of the senior class, and perhaps one or more others." Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complimentary color for many years. Silver and black are also common second and third colors. Former basketball coach Bob Huggins introduced a black uniform in 2006 and it continues to be used by both basketball teams, along with volleyball and baseball. The basketball team also utilized a silver uniform. Former basketball coach Lowell "Cotton" Fitzsimmons incorporated gold during his two-year stint (1968-70), but gold or yellow has not been used since that time.

Lavender Two-Tone Uniform

Head coach Jack Hartman returned from a recruiting trip in Illinois and called Jim Knight of Knight's Sporting Goods in Salina, Kansas to meet with him on a new jersey idea. The two had been friends for years and Knight's Sporting Goods had been the primary vendor for all K-State products. Hartman had seen a lavender jersey and wanted to see if Knight could find a manufacturer. After some research, Knight and his son, Chris, found a company (Sand Knit) in Berlin, Wisconsin that said they could create the unique look. Hartman and Knight flew to the company's headquarters in Berlin and approved the new color scheme. Knight measured all the players and sent the order in for the two-tone purple uniforms. This was a new concept in uniforms to utilize the two shades of the same base color. One of the assistant coaches got pulled into the process and he told Knight, "I think Jack (Hartman) has lost his mind!" Even at the first fitting for the uniforms, famed big man Ed Nealy remarked "We are going to get called names that you have NEVER heard before!" The nation got to see the unique uniform first hand when Sports Illustrated used the picture of Rolando Blackman draining the jumper to upset Oregon State in the NCAA Tournament in Los Angeles in 1981.



Powercat Logo

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the Powercat. The logo was introduced by legendary football coach Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan in 1989 as the attitude of the entire athletics department and university was changing. K-State art professor Tom Bookwalter, in cooperation with Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the football helmet, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere in Manhattan.

Slogans

Several chants and slogans are used in association with the team. "Purple Pride" and "Eat 'Em Up, Eat 'Em Up K-S-U" and "Every Man A Wildcat" or "EMAW" are just a few. The term "Every Man A Wildcat" was popular in the '50s, '60s and early '70s, specifically with men's basketball, and once adorned the front of the Ahearn Field House press box. It has since been adopted by a number of sports. Kansas State, itself, is referred to in many different shortened versions. The most popular is "K-State", which is used by alums, friends and journalists from coast to coast.

Songs

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

alma mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.
"KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly.
Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.
"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

wildcat victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.
"Glory into combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

wabash cannonball

With a history like no other, the Wabash Cannonball may be known as a second fight song to the K-State contingent. Composed in 1933 as a folk ballad saluting the nation's rail-riding hobos, Wabash Cannonball was first performed for an athletic event at K-State on December 19, 1968. Wabash was the only selection in the band's repertoire that evening for a home basketball game at Ahearn Fieldhouse. Just three nights prior, arsonists had set fire to Nichols Hall, at the time the home of the Music Department, destroying all of the department's assets, including sheet music. The band director at the time, Phil Hewitt, just happened to have taken one copy of the Wabash home from the library that night to work on the arrangement; thus making its the only selection to survive the fire. Since then the Wabash Cannonball has come to represent the survival of the underdog in the hearts and minds of all true K-State fans, and has earned a secure place in the university's history. It was the judged the No. 1 football pregame tradition in the Big 12 in 2016 by ESPN.com.

"Voice of the Wildcats"

To go along with the outstanding basketball tradition at K-State is a long line of memorable "Voices of the Wildcats." Wildcat fans around the region have enjoyed broadcasts by Hall-of-Famers Bob Hilgendorf, Dev Nelson, Gary Bender, Fred White, Steve Physioc, Ron Paradis, Mitch Holthus, Greg Sharpe and currently in his 24th season, Wyatt Thompson.

A pioneer in broadcasting n Kansas, Bob Hilgendorf was the Wildcats' play-by-play announcer for both football and basketball for seven years (1947-54). In 1951, he organized the K-State Sports Network, one of the country's first college-operated sports networks. He also broadcasted seven Final Fours.

Dev Nelson was the K-State Sports Information Director from 1966-72 and handled the Wildcats' play-by-play duties for football and basketball as "Voice of the Wildcats" for 25 years (1954-79). He earned Kansas Sportscaster of the Year honors five times and appeared on that award's final ballot of three for 18 consecutive years. In addition to his work on the Wildcat Network, he also was the first man on the Big Eight TV Network and originated the state high school basketball tournament all-site coverage. His first K-State athletics broadcast was a 65-51 win over Kansas in 1951 at Ahearn Field House on the 550-station Liberty Network. The Press Level of the West Stadium Center is named in honor of the 1949 K-State graduate.

Gary Bender worked for WIBW calling the action at Wildcat games sandwiched between Dev Nelson and Fred White during the 1966 and 1967 seasons. He went on to work for many years at CBS Sports, ABC Sports, ESPN, TNT and Fox Sports, including calling the 1981 NBA Finals and 1982 and 1983 NCAA Championship games. He retired in 2011 from Fox Sports Arizona after 18 years as the television play-by-play voice of the Phoenix Suns. Bender was inducted into the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

Fred White called the action for football and basketball games from 1967-79 for WIBW. He was the radio voice of the Kansas City Royals for 25 years. The award-winning announcer was heard year-round after working college basketball and football games for CBS Sports, NBC Sports, ABC Sports, TBS, Raycom, Jefferson Pilot, Creative Sports and ESPN. White, who earned numerous Kansas Sportscaster of the year awards, retired as the Royals' Director of Broadcast Services in 2008. He passed away on May 15, 2013 of complications from melanoma.

Steve Physioc served as "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1979-83. After leaving WIBW in 1983, he has served as play-by-play announcer for the Cincinnati Reds and Bengals (1983-87), San Francisco Giants (1987-88), San Diego Padres (1989-90), Golden State Warriors (1989-91), Vancouver Grizzlies (1995-96), Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim (1996-2009) before handling television play-by-play duties for the Kansas City Royals (2013-21) until retirement. Physioc was a member of the ESPN staff from 1988-95 where he announced MLB, college basketball and baseball as well as Big Ten football before joining FOX Sports Net and KCAL in Los Angeles. A 1977 graduate of K-State, he also broadcasted college basketball games on FOX Sports and Big Ten Network.

Ron Paradis was a three-year letterman at K-State from 1964-66 before embarking on a broadcasting career. During his tenure at WIBW-TV, Paradis served as "Voice of the Wildcats" in 1984.

Mitch Holthus was "Voice of the Wildcats" from 1984-96 while earning Kansas Sportscaster of the Year honors in 1987, 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993 and 1994 by the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters. He is the youngest broadcaster to receive every major sportscasting award in the state of Kansas, winning the Kansas Broadcasters Association best play-by-play sportscast nine times. The 1996 winner of the Hod Humiston Award of Excellence in Kansas Sportscasting and the 2007 winner of the John Sanders Spirit of the Valley by the Missouri Valley Conference, he was inducted in the K-State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2016. He is in his 31st season as play-by-play voice for the 3-time Super Bowl champion Kansas City Chiefs.

Greg Sharpe was K-State's man behind the mike from 1997 to 2001 and moved into the play-by-play role after serving as the Wildcats' color analyst from 1989 to 1996. Sharpe was named the Kansas Sportscaster of the Year in 1997. He went onto serve as the play-by-play voice of the Nebraska Cornhuskers before his passing in 2025.
